U. S. Marshal to Quit—'Like It or Not'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (UP)—Bob Clarke, Los Angeles' 72-year-old U. S. marshal, is going on the retirement rolls Oct. 29 whether he likes it or not.

Justice Department experts said the old battler is doomed to disappointment if he thinks he can ignore a government order for his retirement because of age. The retirement law, they said, is automatic with no exceptions.

Mr. Clarke, who was a hard-riding U. S. ranger in the days of the wild west, says he's in perfect health and defies anyone to show that he's too old to do his job. He says he's going to appeal to President Truman if necessary to remain in active service.

Women, Kids, Low Prices, Send Cigarette Use Up

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (UP)—Cigarette smoking is on the increase, the Agriculture Department reported today.

The department said total cigarette output next year will probably approach 385 billion. This is 25 billion more than for 1947.

Four reasons for the uptrend: ONE—Women are still entering the ranks of smokers.

TWO—People start smoking at an earlier age.

THREE—Cigarettes are "a good buy" as prices go in this inflation period.

FOUR—War tensions accustomed people to smoking a lot.

Committee: John M. Ward, vice president of the Alabama State C. of C., and Ralph Bradford, vice president of the U. S. C. of C.
