KING6 Boys and Girls Awarded Safety Prizes by Times*Winners to Be Named Each Week
Until Close of Contest; $50 Awaits Winner

By ART WRIGHT

Six boys and girls have received prizes they won in the first week of The Times Safety Funnies . . . and we're presenting today the second contest sketch that might win one of the same prizes for you.

Three boys and three girls receive prizes each week in the five-week contest. The same prizes are awarded each week. Then at the close of the contest, the one best entry of all wins $50 in cash for the boy or girl submitting it.

So keep sending in your entries week after week, even though you haven't won a prize yet. And if you have won, you are allowed to enter again as many times as you wish.

Here are the first week's winners and the prizes they received.

GIRLS—1st, Alice Sloan, 12, of 2132 N. Temple Ave., a seventh grader at School 37, who won a Safety Umbrella made of Vinylite; 2nd, Dona Lang, 7, of 1839 Applegate St., a 2A pupil at School 31, a Normandy pen and pencil set; 3rd, Jacqueline Mullen, 8, of 1134 W. 36th St., a 4B pupil.

The Safety Council of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce is co-operating with The Times in staging the contest.

Safety Funnies No. 2

The Rules

Every boy and girl up to and including 12 years of age is eligible except families of employees of The Indianapolis Times and the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce. Clip out this entry coupon—or write the name, address, etc., on a plain piece of paper and mail with your entry. The decision of the judges will be final. The winning entries will be published in the Indianapolis Times. Entries must be in or postmarked by Oct. 31. The winning sketch based on another safety rule will appear in next Sunday's Times.
