

Plenty to Do For Grand Jury, Dailey Asserts

Official Promises General Crack-Down

A search for the answers to some big questions that have been ignored by law enforcement officials here in the last few years will be the first major project of the new Grand Jury next January.

This was promised by Prosecutor-elect George S. Dailey, Democrat, in his first statement on law enforcement intentions since he was elected last Tuesday.

"What about conditions at the Marion County?" asked at Julietta?" Mr. Dailey asked.

"What about some of the big name offenders in law violations incident to local government administration?"

"Why are only the 'little felons' prosecuted in most of our law violations?

Too Much Influence

These were some of the "big questions" Mr. Dailey said he would ask the next Grand Jury to investigate.

"There has been too much influence by special privilege groups in law enforcement," he said. "It's time to 'enforce the laws on all people alike, rich or poor, powerful or weak."

Mr. Dailey said he will take office Jan. 1 "with no strings tied to my administration."

"I'll make my appointments without having to consult with anybody," he said. "My deputies will have to be qualified for the jobs before they can be accepted on the staff."

The Prosecutor-elect said he will use the Grand Jury "more than it has ever been used before" to tighten law enforcement leaks and prevent the filing of criminal charges against defendants without proper evidence.

"When a criminal charge is brought against a defendant there's going to be sufficient evidence to convict him," he said. "We'll try to put stop to the trials of many cases that have to be thrown out of court because of inadequate preparation of the evidence. When we go to court we're going to get convictions and not a lot of acquittals."

Court Delays Cited
Mr. Dailey said law enforcement in this county must be improved if this rapidly growing metropolis is to keep pace with the progress being made in other larger communities.

He said he will introduce some reforms in handling police court cases.

"There has been confusion and delays in Municipal Courts for years," he said. "We must eliminate this by assignment of police officers for full-time duty in three eight-hour shifts as warrant officers empowered to make out affidavits when prisoners are arrested."

"By this procedure all cases can be ready for trial the next session of court instead of continuing them for weeks because of a lack of preparation."

The prosecutor-elect said he will seek remodeling of the quarters for the prosecutor's office in the Courthouse.

"Office facilities are a disgrace to the county," he said. "Even with the best staff available efficient operation could not be achieved with the present inadequate quarters where deputies have no room to work."

South Side Teen Canteen to Open

JKU BOX SESSION—Marie Romano (left) and Pat Woods ask Jack Wilmoth what tune he wants to hear on the juke box in the Eagles Nest Canteen. The canteen will open tomorrow night. It is located in the Fountain Square Eagles Lodge Hall.

It'll Be Eagles Nest In Honor of Donors

By JEAN MANEY

"We've got it made."

That's the slogan of the South Side teen-agers. They're planning to open their new teen canteen, The Eagles Nest, tomorrow night and they think that Christmas is in November this year.

The Santa Clauses in this case are the members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, 2511. The men have turned over the lodge hall in the basement of the Fountain Square building to the teen-agers for dances every Monday night. They decided to donate the hall when their own youngsters complained of the long trip to the Brookside Park canteen and the overcrowding there.

Major Accepts Offer

Mayor Al Feeney accepted the offer and the sub debts and squares in the neighborhood organized the newest of the city's canteens. It will be open to teen-agers living on the South Side.

After registration at the first few dances, membership cards will be issued. The hall holds 220 and the canteen organizers hope to build a membership of around 200 teen-agers.

Shorty Lewis and his novelty band will play for the first dance tomorrow night from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. Talented members of Teen Sensations will present a floor show featuring Dicky Endicott and Stan Fazzie.

Mayor Feeney, members of the Board of Park Commissioners Leroy Keach, president of the Board of Safety, and Police Chief Edward Roule will be guests of the canteen at tomorrow's opening.

Elect Temporary Officers

The teen-age "founders" of the canteen elected temporary officers. They are Jack Wilmoth, president; Marie Romano and Pat Woods, vice presidents; Jo Ann Pons, secretary; Charles Ellis, treasurer, and Robert Niclouff, sergeant-at-arms.

Adult sponsors are Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Walter, George Murray and Roy Mitchell, and Bob Giberson. Mr. Mitchell is president of the lodge.

Baker Services Set Tomorrow

Services for Mrs. Valaria Esther Clee Baker, who died in her home, 1226 N. Illinois St., yesterday, will be at 2:30 p. m. Monday in Milton Christian Church. Burial will be in Milton Cemetery.

A native of Connersville, Mrs. Baker lived in Indianapolis 21 years, and was a sales representative for Avon Cosmetics Co. She was a member of University Park Christian Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Beatrice Baker; two sons, John R. Baker, and Clyde C. Baker, Union City; a brother, Robert E. Clee, San Antonio, Tex., and one granddaughter.

National Optimist Week

National Optimist Week will be observed today through Nov. 13th in Indiana, following a proclamation by Gov. Ralph Gates. Members of Optimist Clubs will renew their pledges to live optimistically and live up to their slogan, "Friend of the Boy," during the national observance.

Deweys to Take Arizona Vacation

Governor Weighs Problems of Party

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 6 (UP)—Looking rested and chipper after his second defeat for the Presidency, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey declared today that he had given a great deal of thought to the problems of his party for the next four years.

His ideas were definite, he stated, but he would keep them to himself until after he returns from Arizona, where he and his family will spend a post-election vacation.

He recalled that a Phoenix newspaper, during the campaign, carried a headline saying, "Dewey Likes Arizona Sunshine."

"Now, maybe I'll get a chance really to enjoy it," he said.

The 46-year-old governor leaves La Guardia field, New York City, by plane at 7 a. m. (Indianapolis time) tomorrow with Mrs. Dewey and their two sons, Thomas Jr., 16, and John, 13. Also along will be Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Straus, Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Hogan and their 12-year-old son, Jack. Their destination is Tucson.

The governor said he was "particularly pleased" by the flood of telegrams he had received from high school and college students.

DOG MISTREATED

STERLING, Ill., Nov. 6 (UP)—Ritchie Benders, 34, Lyndon, Ill., was arrested today on charges that he called a dog to him and then broke both its hind legs with his hands.

Detectives said the home at
