

Butler University Appoints Bursar

Raymond W. Gladden
To Succeed Kendall

The appointment of Raymond W. Gladden, accounting, statistical and fiscal officer, Department of Education, Indiana, as bursar of Butler University effective Feb. 15 was announced today by President M. O. Ross.

Mr. Gladden will replace Arthur S. Kendall, whose resignation will become effective Mar. 1, after which he will become a livestock grower in Marshall County.

A native of Charlestown in Clark County, the new bursar is a graduate of Arsenal Technical High School, and was graduated from Butler University with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1936. He did graduate work in accounting and business administration, and is a member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.

Taught Until 1941

Mr. Gladden taught until 1941, when he was appointed to his present position in the state department of education. He is a member of the Indiana School Men's Club and the Indiana State Teachers Association, is 34 years old, and lives at 4721 E. 13th St. with his wife, the former Katherine Stoeckinger, of Mishawaka.

Set Purdue Parley On Adult Education

Miss Pauline French, Indianapolis Public Schools director of adult activities, will speak on the extension of library facilities to adult education groups in the second annual Adult Education Conference to be held on the campus of Purdue University Jan. 13 and 14.

Approximately 200 teachers, housewives, educators, librarians, and others are expected to attend the two-day conference sponsored by the Indiana and Purdue universities. The theme of the conference "Community Organization for Adult Education" will be illustrated by 70 graphic exhibits.

Raymond W. Gladden becomes bursar of Butler University Mar. 1.

Butler Honor Group To Elect Officers

Members of Sigma Tau Delta, Butler University English honor society, will hold election of officers for the second semester at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Room 162, George Coffin, Indianapolis senior, president, announced today.

During the meeting plans will be discussed for the showing of the French movie "Griboffle" (The Heart of Paris) on Wednesday afternoon and evening at 2, 4 and 8 p. m. in Room 131 Jordan Hall, Butler University.
