

SATURDAY, JAN. 8, 1949

Patricia Seay, Robert Nagel, Wed Today

Couple to Make Home in Wapakoneta, O.

The St. Philip Neri Catholic Church was the scene at 9 a. m. today of the marriage of Miss Patricia Seay and Robert G. Nagel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wayne Seay, 646 Eastern Ave., and Mr. Nagel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur O. Nagel, Wapakoneta, O. The Rev. Fr. Raymond Moll officiated.

Mrs. Ralph E. Nester, Wapakoneta, was matron of honor and Mrs. Paul A. Nugent was bridesmaid. Miss Sally Nester was junior bridesmaid. Martha Ellen Treacy was flower girl and Eric Ruppert, Wapakoneta, was ringbearer.

The matron of honor wore a periwinkle blue velvet frock with sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves and full skirt. She had an old-fashioned bonnet and matching muffs and mitts and carried roses. The bridesmaids and flower girls wore similar frocks in American beauty, aqua and peach.

White Velvet Worn by Bride

The bride's white velvet gown had long sleeves and train, sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. An orchid topped her white prayer book.

William E. Nagel was his brother's best man. Ushers were J. Paul Nagel, another brother of the bridegroom, and Robert W. Seay, brother of the bride. The wedding breakfast was in Chiff's restaurant and the reception in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride chose a navy blue suit for her wedding trip in the East. They will live in Wapakoneta.

Sororities— Clubs Plan Musical Programs

Mrs. H. N. Edgington, 5201 N. New Jersey St., will be hostess for the 8 p. m. dinner meeting of the Indianapolis Alumnae Chapter, Mu Phi Epsilon Sorority, Monday. A short business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Henry Hoss, president.

Modern music of France and England will be the program theme. Mrs. Charles G. Fitch will give a short travogue and sing a group of modern songs. Mrs. Paul Mozingo will present music of today in France and England.

Piano selections representing the 20th century trend in the countries will be played by Mrs. Helen Jenner. Miss Charlotte Moore will conduct selections by the vocal ensemble of the group. In charge of dinner reservations are Mrs. John A. Sink and Mrs. Alfred Brandt.

Mrs. Henry W. Laut will review "The Other Side of the Record" (O'Connell) at the meeting of the Fátroiness Club of Mu Phi Epsilon Sorority Wednesday.

It will be held at 10:30 a. m. in the home of the president, Mrs. Herbert T. Wagner, 5235 Grace-land Ave.

Musical numbers will be given by Mesdames F. T. Edenharter, Claud Record, J. W. Costin and Clemens Kline. Assisting in the hostess will be Mrs. Earl Gluchist and Mrs. Costin.

Mrs. Meredith Johnson will be hostess in her home, near Boggs-town for the 8 p. m. business meeting of Kappa Chapter, Delta Sigma Kappa Sorority Monday.

The Indianapolis Alumnae Club of Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority held a luncheon in Block's Tea-room today. Miss Leota Haynes presided.

The Alpha Chapter of Chi Phi Gamma Sorority will hold an 8 p. m. business meeting Tuesday. Mrs. Gordon Hulien, 3107 E. New York St., will be the hostess.

Women Voters Will Meet

"Prison Reform in Indiana" will be the program theme for the two general January meetings of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters. Mesdames Ralph Furst, W. A. McKinzie, Charles Booth and C. B. Vawter will review results on Indiana prisons at the first meeting Wednesday. It will be held at 10 a. m. in the Meridian Room, Colonial Furniture Co., followed by a luncheon.

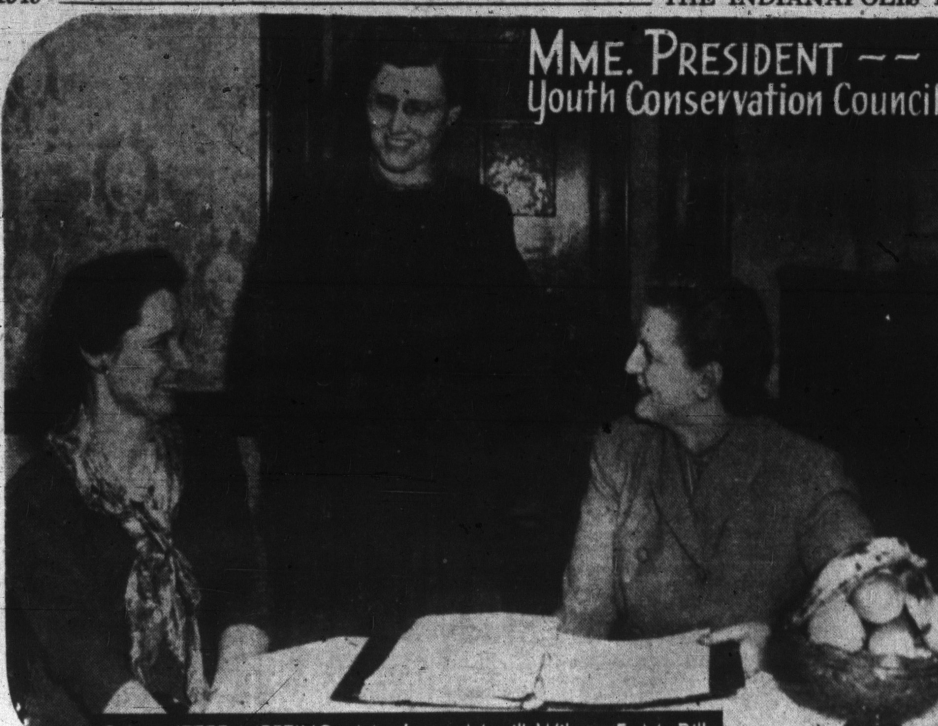

Mrs. Richard Edwards of Peru will highlight the legislative bills at the 6:45 p. m. dinner session Jan. 20 in the North Methodist Church. Dinner will be served by the church organization.

Mrs. Edwards, a director on the League state board, is a former national board member. A member of the Miami County welfare board, she also has served on the Indiana state welfare board.

Mrs. Earl Booth, 6204 Washington Blvd., will be hostess for the kindergarten study group at 10 a. m. Jan. 18. The child welfare study group will meet at 1:30 p. m. Jan. 19 with Mrs. Robert Morgan, 4518 Guilford Ave.

ITSC to Meet

Mrs. E. C. Ruppier will be the speaker for the meeting of the Nancy Hanks Chapter, ITSC, Monday. Hostess for the 8 p. m. event will be Mrs. John L. Whitinger, 6103 Lowell Ave. Members of the Indiana Chapter will be guests.

COMMITTEE MEETING—Mesdames Merrill Wilson, E. M. Dill and B. Lynn Adams of the Youth Conservation Council.

Photos by Ruth Ann Hamilton, Times Staff Photographer.

By JEAN TABBERT

CO-ORDINATION

is just as important as action in any situation. The Youth Conservation Council, representative of all the groups in the state interested in furthering youth movements, has set out to see that strides already made won't ever back track.

Reins of the organization are in the capable hands of Mrs. E. M. Dill, vivacious as a teenager when she's talking about her big interest—youth people. When she was director of the Junior Red Cross Indianapolis Chapter, she joined the council as the group's representative.

But probably her real enthusiasm for the movement began during the time her husband was superintendent of the Indiana Boys' School in Plainfield. Her own children grew up in the 12 years Mr. Dill directed operations there.

SHE'S the mother of Virginia, now Mrs. Mendel McCarthy, and Bob, both of Indianapolis. Bob, the way the rest of the Dills did, is attending Indiana University. Like his sister, he's studying law, expects to enter law school in September. "Ginny" hopes to get her law degree next January.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Dill was a history teacher (she still relaxes by reading books on current events and biographies). When the 100 members of the council meet four times a year—the next session's Jan. 27—Mrs. Dill is well able to take charge. She is director of the 11th District, State Cancer Society, and a member of the state board.

The council will study children in institutions at its next meeting and already has reported its list of legislative changes for dependent children. Since its main power lies in stimulating its members to take back the "list" of the all-day sessions to their own organizations and back local youth movements, the council only co-ordinates the information gathered by other working groups, throughout the state. It's Mrs. Dill who manages to keep the agenda packed with vital facts.

BUT she's quick to share the glory. Mesdames Wayne Kimmel, Merrill Wilson and E. C. Ruppier, vice president, secretary-treasurer and parliamentarian, are invaluable to me, she says. Members like Mrs. B. Lynn Adams, chairman of the January meeting, also work hard during the time they serve.

Mrs. Dill draws her workers from the 20 organizations that send members to the council. They include the Indiana Federation of Clubs, Seventh District, IFC, State Teen Canteen, Indianapolis Woman's Department Club, Council of Church Women, Indianapolis Council of Women, Council of Social Agencies, Indiana and Indianapolis PTA's, Business and Professional Women, Council of Jewish Women, American Association of University Women, Council of Catholic Women, State Department of Conservation, YWCA, Junior Red Cross, Indiana Co-Operative Association, and the Indiana Screen Council.

When Mrs. Dill isn't involved in council business, she's "home-making" for her husband, head of the Dill Implement Co., and Bob, when she's home from school. They live in an apartment at 508 E. 29th St., where Mrs. Dill treasures her collection of old glass and precious family antiques.

Mrs. Ruppier and Mrs. Perry will discuss League administrative problems in detail at the regional conference. The result of these discussions will be taken to the AJLA board meeting in New York by Mrs. James McEvoy of Detroit, regional director.

The first 1949 swim of the Dolphins of the Indianapolis Athletic Club will be Wednesday. Mrs. Bernadine McAree is menu chairman for the luncheon which will follow.

Swimming awards will go to Mrs. Gordon Peck, first to complete the 30 mile marathon; Mrs. J. A. Burnside, first in the 15 mile race, and Mrs. James Esterline for finishing the 10 mile event. Mrs. Burnside also will receive her silver medal for completing 200 points on the merit board.

Decorations will be in charge of Mesdames C. Basil Fausset, B. E. Gavin and Robert Innes.

Mrs. Thomas C. McGuffey will be the speaker for the Irvington Chapter, D.A.R., Thursday. The 1 p. m. meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. George J. Connell Sr., 99 N. Irvington Ave.

Mrs. McGuffey will talk on "The National Road in Indiana," a continuation of the Chapter's program for the year on "Historic Indiana." Assistant hostesses include Mesdames John W. Stevens, E. E. Hamaker and A. N. Stevens.

Mrs. P. O. Power, 5895 Washington Blvd., will be hostess for the business meeting and luncheon of the St. Margaret's Hospital Guild at 12:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Luncheon Will Honor Wives of Officials

Mrs. Henry F. Schriener and Mrs. John A. Watkins will be honored at the spring luncheon of the State Assembly Woman's Club Friday. The husbands of the two women will take office Monday as Governor and Lieutenant Governor of Indiana, respectively.

The Indianapolis Branch, headed by Mrs. Russell J. Dean, will entertain the state group at 12:30 in the Riley Room of the Claypool Hotel.

Parliamentary Club To Meet Tuesday

"Odd or Even" will be the discussion topic for the Tuesday night meeting of the Longan Parliamentary Club. Mrs. Thad Clarke, 1836 N. Talbot Ave., will be hostess for the 7 o'clock event.

Mrs. Charles Douglas and Mrs. Anna May Scott will be in charge of the lesson.

Return From Trip

Dr. and Mrs. D. Hamilton Row, 5214 Grand View Drive, have returned from Washington where they were the guests of Adm. and Mrs. Clifford A. Swanson.

MME. PRESIDENT -- Youth Conservation Council

COMMITTEE MEETING—Mesdames Merrill Wilson, E. M. Dill and B. Lynn Adams of the Youth Conservation Council.

Photos by Ruth Ann Hamilton, Times Staff Photographer.

By JEAN TABBERT

CO-ORDINATION

is just as important as action in any situation. The Youth Conservation Council, representative of all the groups in the state interested in furthering youth movements, has set out to see that strides already made won't ever back track.

Reins of the organization are in the capable hands of Mrs. E. M. Dill, vivacious as a teenager when she's talking about her big interest—youth people. When she was director of the Junior Red Cross Indianapolis Chapter, she joined the council as the group's representative.

But probably her real enthusiasm for the movement began during the time her husband was superintendent of the Indiana Boys' School in Plainfield. Her own children grew up in the 12 years Mr. Dill directed operations there.

SHE'S the mother of Virginia, now Mrs. Mendel McCarthy, and Bob, both of Indianapolis. Bob, the way the rest of the Dills did, is attending Indiana University. Like his sister, he's studying law, expects to enter law school in September. "Ginny" hopes to get her law degree next January.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Dill was a history teacher (she still relaxes by reading books on current events and biographies). When the 100 members of the council meet four times a year—the next session's Jan. 27—Mrs. Dill is well able to take charge. She is director of the 11th District, State Cancer Society, and a member of the state board.

The council will study children in institutions at its next meeting and already has reported its list of legislative changes for dependent children. Since its main power lies in stimulating its members to take back the "list" of the all-day sessions to their own organizations and back local youth movements, the council only co-ordinates the information gathered by other working groups, throughout the state. It's Mrs. Dill who manages to keep the agenda packed with vital facts.

BUT she's quick to share the glory. Mesdames Wayne Kimmel, Merrill Wilson and E. C. Ruppier, vice president, secretary-treasurer and parliamentarian, are invaluable to me, she says. Members like Mrs. B. Lynn Adams, chairman of the January meeting, also work hard during the time they serve.

Mrs. Dill draws her workers from the 20 organizations that send members to the council. They include the Indiana Federation of Clubs, Seventh District, IFC, State Teen Canteen, Indianapolis Woman's Department Club, Council of Church Women, Indianapolis Council of Women, Council of Social Agencies, Indiana and Indianapolis PTA's, Business and Professional Women, Council of Jewish Women, American Association of University Women, Council of Catholic Women, State Department of Conservation, YWCA, Junior Red Cross, Indiana Co-Operative Association, and the Indiana Screen Council.

When Mrs. Dill isn't involved in council business, she's "home-making" for her husband, head of the Dill Implement Co., and Bob, when she's home from school. They live in an apartment at 508 E. 29th St., where Mrs. Dill treasures her collection of old glass and precious family antiques.

Mrs. Ruppier and Mrs. Perry will discuss League administrative problems in detail at the regional conference. The result of these discussions will be taken to the AJLA board meeting in New York by Mrs. James McEvoy of Detroit, regional director.

The first 1949 swim of the Dolphins of the Indianapolis Athletic Club will be Wednesday. Mrs. Bernadine McAree is menu chairman for the luncheon which will follow.

Swimming awards will go to Mrs. Gordon Peck, first to complete the 30 mile marathon; Mrs. J. A. Burnside, first in the 15 mile race, and Mrs. James Esterline for finishing the 10 mile event. Mrs. Burnside also will receive her silver medal for completing 200 points on the merit board.

Decorations will be in charge of Mesdames C. Basil Fausset, B. E. Gavin and Robert Innes.

Mrs. Thomas C. McGuffey will be the speaker for the Irvington Chapter, D.A.R., Thursday. The 1 p. m. meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. George J. Connell Sr., 99 N. Irvington Ave.

Mrs. McGuffey will talk on "The National Road in Indiana," a continuation of the Chapter's program for the year on "Historic Indiana." Assistant hostesses include Mesdames John W. Stevens, E. E. Hamaker and A. N. Stevens.

Mrs. P. O. Power, 5895 Washington Blvd., will be hostess for the business meeting and luncheon of the St. Margaret's Hospital Guild at 12:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Luncheon Will Honor Wives of Officials

Mrs. Henry F. Schriener and Mrs. John A. Watkins will be honored at the spring luncheon of the State Assembly Woman's Club Friday. The husbands of the two women will take office Monday as Governor and Lieutenant Governor of Indiana, respectively.

The Indianapolis Branch, headed by Mrs. Russell J. Dean, will entertain the state group at 12:30 in the Riley Room of the Claypool Hotel.

Parliamentary Club To Meet Tuesday

"Odd or Even" will be the discussion topic for the Tuesday night meeting of the Longan Parliamentary Club. Mrs. Thad Clarke, 1836 N. Talbot Ave., will be hostess for the 7 o'clock event.

Mrs. Charles Douglas and Mrs. Anna May Scott will be in charge of the lesson.

Return From Trip

Dr. and Mrs. D. Hamilton Row, 5214 Grand View Drive, have returned from Washington where they were the guests of Adm. and Mrs. Clifford A. Swanson.

PREPARING BREAKFAST—Kitchen duties come first on the day's program for Mrs. Dill, the Council's president.

Photos by Ruth Ann Hamilton, Times Staff Photographer.

By JEAN TABBERT

CO-ORDINATION

is just as important as action in any situation. The Youth Conservation Council, representative of all the groups in the state interested in furthering youth movements, has set out to see that strides already made won't ever back track.

Reins of the organization are in the capable hands of Mrs. E. M. Dill, vivacious as a teenager when she's talking about her big interest—youth people. When she was director of the Junior Red Cross Indianapolis Chapter, she joined the council as the group's representative.

But probably her real enthusiasm for the movement began during the time her husband was superintendent of the Indiana Boys' School in Plainfield. Her own children grew up in the 12 years Mr. Dill directed operations there.

SHE'S the mother of Virginia, now Mrs. Mendel McCarthy, and Bob, both of Indianapolis. Bob, the way the rest of the Dills did, is attending Indiana University. Like his sister, he's studying law, expects to enter law school in September. "Ginny" hopes to get her law degree next January.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Dill was a history teacher (she still relaxes by reading books on current events and biographies). When the 100 members of the council meet four times a year—the next session's Jan. 27—Mrs. Dill is well able to take charge. She is director of the 11th District, State Cancer Society, and a member of the state board.

The council will study children in institutions at its next meeting and already has reported its list of legislative changes for dependent children. Since its main power lies in stimulating its members to take back the "list" of the all-day sessions to their own organizations and back local youth movements, the council only co-ordinates the information gathered by other working groups, throughout the state. It's Mrs. Dill who manages to keep the agenda packed with vital facts.

BUT she's quick to share the glory. Mesdames Wayne Kimmel, Merrill Wilson and E. C. Ruppier, vice president, secretary-treasurer and parliamentarian, are invaluable to me, she says. Members like Mrs. B. Lynn Adams, chairman of the January meeting, also work hard during the time they serve.

Mrs. Dill draws her workers from the 20 organizations that send members to the council. They include the Indiana Federation of Clubs, Seventh District, IFC, State Teen Canteen, Indianapolis Woman's Department Club, Council of Church Women, Indianapolis Council of Women, Council of Social Agencies, Indiana and Indianapolis PTA's, Business and Professional Women, Council of Jewish Women, American Association of University Women, Council of Catholic Women, State Department of Conservation, YWCA, Junior Red Cross, Indiana Co-Operative Association, and the Indiana Screen Council.

When Mrs. Dill isn't involved in council business, she's "home-making" for her husband, head of the Dill Implement Co., and Bob, when she's home from school. They live in an apartment at 508 E. 29th St., where Mrs. Dill treasures her collection of old glass and precious family antiques.

Mrs. Ruppier and Mrs. Perry will discuss League administrative problems in detail at the regional conference. The result of these discussions will be taken to the AJLA board meeting in New York by Mrs. James McEvoy of Detroit, regional director.

The first 1949 swim of the Dolphins of the Indianapolis Athletic Club will be Wednesday. Mrs. Bernadine McAree is menu chairman for the luncheon which will follow.

Swimming awards will go to Mrs. Gordon Peck, first to complete the 30 mile marathon; Mrs. J. A. Burnside, first in the 15 mile race, and Mrs. James Esterline for finishing the 10 mile event. Mrs. Burnside also will receive her silver medal for completing 200 points on the merit board.

Decorations will be in charge of Mesdames C. Basil Fausset, B. E. Gavin and Robert Innes.

Mrs. Thomas C. McGuffey will be the speaker for the Irvington Chapter, D.A.R., Thursday. The 1 p. m. meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. George J. Connell Sr., 99 N. Irvington Ave.

Mrs. McGuffey will talk on "The National Road in Indiana," a continuation of the Chapter's program for the year on "Historic Indiana." Assistant hostesses include Mesdames John W. Stevens, E. E. Hamaker and A. N. Stevens.

Mrs. P. O. Power, 5895 Washington Blvd., will be hostess for the business meeting and luncheon of the St. Margaret's Hospital Guild at 12:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Luncheon Will Honor Wives of Officials

Mrs. Henry F. Schriener and Mrs. John A. Watkins will be honored at the spring luncheon of the State Assembly Woman's Club Friday. The husbands of the two women will take office Monday as Governor and Lieutenant Governor of Indiana, respectively.

The Indianapolis Branch, headed by Mrs. Russell J. Dean, will entertain the state group at 12:30 in the Riley Room of the Claypool Hotel.

Parliamentary Club To Meet Tuesday

"Odd or Even" will be the discussion topic for the Tuesday night meeting of the Longan Parliamentary Club. Mrs. Thad Clarke, 1836 N. Talbot Ave., will be hostess for the 7 o'clock event.

Mrs. Charles Douglas and Mrs. Anna May Scott will be in charge of the lesson.

Return From Trip

Dr. and Mrs. D. Hamilton Row, 5214 Grand View Drive, have returned from Washington where they were the guests of Adm. and Mrs. Clifford A. Swanson.

Henry Stickan, Miss Mellen Wed Today

Holy Cross Church Scene of Rite

In a double-ring ceremony at the Holy Cross Catholic Church at 10 o'clock this morning, Miss Cecelia Mellen became the bride of Henry F. Stickan Jr. Miss Mellen is the daughter of Mrs. Bernadette Mellen, 232 N. Randolph St., and Mr. Stickan's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stickan, 715 Hanna Ave. The Rev. Cornelius Mellen, uncle of the bride, officiated.

Miss Margie Mellen, who served her sister as maid of honor, wore a dress of aqua slipper satin with small rolled collar, molded bodice and bouffant skirt. She had a matching bonnet. She wore a corsage of American Beauty roses. Similar frocks were worn by Miss Margie Edrress, Evansville, and Miss Dorothy O'Brien, bridesmaids, and Nita Kay Degeer, flower girl.

Breakfast Follows Ceremony

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Leo F. Keller, wore a gown of candlelight satin with bouffant skirt, falling into a cathedral train. Its fitted bodice was accented by a square neckline with scalloped motif from shoulder to waist. Her fingertip veil was of imported Chantilly lace. She carried a white satin muf topped with a white orchid.

Charles Buennagel, Rushville, was the best man. Martin Weile and Arthur Line were ushers. A wedding breakfast at Buckley's restaurant for the bridal party and the immediate families followed. A reception at the home of the bride's parents was held this afternoon.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Los Angeles and Mexico City. The bride wore a dark green gabardine suit with topaz accessories. The couple will be at home after Jan. 22 in Greensburg.

The bride is a graduate of Marian College. Mr. Stickan, who was graduated from the Indianapolis College of Pharmacy, is a member of Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Players Book Two One-Act Plays Jan. 29

The Players will present two one-act plays at 9 p. m. Jan. 29 in the Civic Theatre. They are "Frankie and Albert," by Elizabeth Wilson Hughes, and "Ways and Means," by Noel Coward. Following the plays there will be a dance in the Woodstock Club.

Members of the committee for the Jan. 29 events are Dr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Rice, chairman, and Messrs. and Mesdames C. Severin Buschmann, Walter C. Hiser and C. L. Kirk Jr. Mrs. Howard B. Pelham is adviser for the productions.

Directing "Frankie and Albert" is Mrs. Kirk. Members of the cast include Mrs. J. K. Terison, Miss Heberton, Walter Robert Robinson, C. Larry Wilson, Alastair Stuart and Noble Rokpy.

Mrs. Harold Buell is the director for "Ways and Means." Mr. and Mrs. Paul Starrett, Mrs. Helen, Mrs. Joseph Hanna, Miss Buell Osborne, Walter G. Vonnegut, George Fotheringham and Mr. Pierson are in the cast.

ITSC Units To Meet

Two ITSC chapters will meet next week.

The Aloha Chapter will have a Christmas gift exchange at their meeting at 10:30 a. m. Thursday. Mrs. Dale Allison, 5530 Laurel St., is to be the hostess.

Mrs. Wiley Rhoads will be the assistant hostess and Mrs. Noble Reynolds is to be the guest speaker.

Mrs. Jules Zinter will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Alpina Chapter. The group will meet at 6 p. m. Tuesday in the YWCA.

Hebrew Group Sets Luncheon

The Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation Temple Sisterhood will have a luncheon meeting at 1 p. m. Monday in the Temple vestry room.

The program will commemorate the founding of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods 35 years ago. Speakers will be Mesdames Sidney James, Maurice Goldblatt and Louis Markum.

The meeting will mark the opening of National Uniongram Week—a philanthropic project of the sisterhood to provide scholarships to the Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati. Mrs. Marvin Sablosky is chairman of the project.

Card Party Planned

The Indianapolis Maennerchor Ladies Society will meet at 1:30 p. m. Friday in the Athenaeum clubrooms. Mrs. Clarence Elbert and Mrs. Fred Schmitt will be hostesses for the card party following the business session.

Plan Dinner

Members of Netherlands Chapter, ITSC, will have their annual dinner meeting Wednesday. It will be held at 6 p. m. in the Claypool Hotel. Mrs. Ada Lory will speak.

Rader-Cole Wedding Rite Read Today

The Rev. E. A. Boston officiated at the marriage at 2:30 p. m. today of Miss Ruth Beatrice Cole and John L. Rader. The wedding was in the East Park Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Eugene R. Cole, 516 N. Tacoma Ave., and Mr. Rader is the son of Mrs. Frank Rader, Noblesville.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Earl Cole. Mrs. Carl M. Cole, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gray dress made with jewel neckline, cap sleeves, fitted bodice and shirred girdle. Her white felt hat had a gray veil and she had a corsage of red roses.

The bride's blue crepe dress had beading on the neck and the sleeves. Her flowers were white roses and carnations.

Eugene Thompson was best man. Edward Rader, brother of the bridegroom, and Carl M. Cole, brother of the bride, were ushers. After a reception in the home of the bride's parents the couple left for a wedding trip in the North.

Legion Auxiliary Sets Meeting

Miss Susanne Bertell will be hostess to the junior members of the Robbison-Ragsdale unit, American Legion Auxiliary, at 1 p. m. next Saturday in her home, 3038 Guilford Ave. A short talk on the legislative program for 1949 will be given by Mrs. Russell Furr, department legislative chairman.

Plans will be made for making valentine favors for the tuberculosis and paraplegic patients in the Cold Spring Road Hospital. Mrs. Stewart Maxwell is group sponsor and Miss Bertell, president.

Bridge Results Announced

Three bridge groups announce the results of their play held this week. The Men's Duplicate Club met Monday night in the Marott Hotel. Its winners were: North and South—Harry J. Lett and Gordon H. Thompson; East and West—Mrs. E. C. McKinsey and George P. Ryan, first; C. H. Rowe and Carl E. Bruce, second.

The Marott Bridge Club results Tuesday night were: North and South—Miss Mary Crawford and Lawrence J. Welch, first; Mrs. Babs. Buck and George P. Ryan, second; Mrs. M. L. Thompson and Mrs. Joseph Brower, third; East and West—Mrs. Arthur Pratt and Mrs. Arch Palander, first; Mrs. E. C. Ball and Mrs. A. C. McKinsey, second; Dr. James Leeds and Robert Deutsche, third.

</