

Connally Calls Hearings on Dean Acheson

2 Points Raised On Marshall Successor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (UP)—Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R. Mich.), and other leading Republicans today demanded a full investigation of Dean Acheson before Senate approves his nomination as the new Secretary of State.

Though there appeared no immediate threat to Senate confirmation of Gen. George C. Marshall's successor, Senators demanded full disclosures of these points:

ONE: Mr. Acheson's attitude toward Soviet Russia and the East-West "cold war," plus his viewpoint on State Department officials described by some critics as "bad security risks."

TWO: His law firm's connections with the Communist government of Poland, and Mr. Acheson's personal relations with Alger and Donald Hiss, who have been charged with membership in a pre-war undercover Communist ring.

Chairman Tom Connally (D. Tex.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee immediately moved to comply with these requests and tentatively planned public hearings for next week. Mr. Connally predicted that Mr. Acheson will be confirmed without much opposition.

Personal Choice

Both President Truman and close friends of Mr. Acheson insisted the appointment will not mean a milder policy toward the Soviets. Mr. Acheson was among the first to advocate a "firm but patient attitude toward Russia."

Meanwhile, Sen. Homer Capehart (R. Ind.) asserted that the Acheson appointment proved the bi-partisan foreign policy is dead. He said the fact that no Republicans were consulted about the appointment in advance was "another slap" at bi-partisanship.

"We'll look the Acheson appointment over very, very carefully," Mr. Capehart said.

The same view was voiced by Sen. Owen Brewster (R. Me.). Mr. Brewster said Mr. Acheson was an able man, but he wondered whether the appointment meant that U. S. "cold war" policy toward Russia was "now going to get soft."

Rites Tuesday For Kelly Barnes

Services for Kelly Barnes, resident of Indianapolis 42 years, will be at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at Moore Mortuaries Northeast Chapel. Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery.

Surviving are two sons, Hobart and John Barnes, both of Indianapolis; a daughter, Mrs. Vivian Holderman, California; a brother, Robert Barnes, Jeffersonville, Ky.; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, Stanton, Ky.; seven grand-children and four great-grandchildren.

High School Students Bid Today For Ice-O-Rama Parts

Tryouts at Fairgrounds Coliseum Set For Skaters Hoping to Participate in Show

By ART WRIGHT

Junior and senior high school students will get their chance to bid for parts in the annual Times Ice-O-Rama.

They will report to the Fairgrounds Coliseum at 5:30 p. m. today to register and display their skating skills. All skaters will get a place in the annual benefit show which will be staged at the Coliseum Feb. 24. Those reporting for the tryouts today will enter the Coliseum by the south doors.

Still to be registered will be the college students and adults. They will be notified when to report for tryouts after their registration blank—which appears in The Times—is received.

As a result of yesterday's turnout of more than 200 children at the first registration session, it was estimated that more than 400 skaters again will take part in this year's show.

Pre-school children and pupils failed to report for tryouts yesterday will be given another chance to register at the Coliseum next Saturday at 8 a. m.

There will be places for skaters of all ages and every degree of skill, including the beginners. There are no entry fees and no admission charges for the skaters at tryouts and rehearsal. Those who registered yesterday will be notified when to return to the Coliseum for rehearsal. All the participants are given instruction sheets which explain to their parents all the details of their participation in the show. Each registrant also is given a parent-consent form which must be signed and returned to the show committee at the next rehearsal.

The Ice-O-Rama again will be a two-hour show. It will include solo numbers, pair routines and huge production numbers to provide places for all who seek parts. Again the skaters will be dressed in colorful costumes show night and they will perform under spotlights and to the accompaniment of a professional orchestra.

Church to Hear Dr. Gaines Cook

The Third Christian Church will present Dr. Gaines M. Cook in an address titled "We Intend to Stay Together" at the annual dinner Thursday at 6:30 p. m. in the church.

Dr. Cook is the executive secretary of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ with headquarters here. He attended the recent assembly of the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. The Rev. A. C. Brooks, pastor of the Third Church, will report the church activities of the year and make his annual statement. Special music and prayers will conclude the program.

POOL FULL OF MULE

SYLVIA, N. C., Jan. 8 (UP)—A sheriff in this Great Smoky foothills town today announced proudly that he threw out the makings of enough white lightning whiskey last year to fill a good-sized swimming pool. Sheriff Griffin Middleton said he captured about 40 copper moonshine factories in 1948.

Truman Condoles Taggart Family

Miss Lucy Taggart, sister of former Democratic National committeeman, Thomas D. Taggart, who died Friday in his home in French Lick, has received a telegram of condolence from President Harry S. Truman.

"I am shocked and saddened by the news of the death of your brother who bore worthily the name of a great father. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you and to all who mourn with you."

John Snyder, Secretary of the Treasury, has notified the Taggart family he will be present for the funeral Monday.

Services will be conducted in Mr. Taggart's Indianapolis home, 1331 N. Delaware St. tomorrow at 2 p. m. by the Rt. Rev. Richard Ainslie Kirchhoffer, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Indianapolis. Burial will be in the family plot in Crown Hill cemetery.

Fallbearers will be James S. Rogan, Dr. Carleton E. McCulloch, Frank M. McHale, G. B. Moxley, Reginald L. Sullivan, William H. Stafford, Elmer W. Stout, Charles Mayer and Charles Sumner, all of Indianapolis; Howard Stevens, St. Louis, Mo.; Henry Knight and Howard Wells, Lexington, Ky.; Paul V. hear in Secret with MAICO'S SECRET-EAR

There is a new thrill to hearing... the thrill of hearing clearly though no one notices you wear a hearing aid. Maico's amazing Secret-Ear makes the usual signs of a hearing aid almost invisible as it tucks out of sight in the natural folds of your ear. It's a remarkable new invention for both men and women... developed especially for the powerful, midget Maico Atomer hearing aid. Learn how you can hear better (though few will ever notice you wear a hearing correction).

I would like to know how the Secret-Ear conceals my hearing loss as the Maico Atomer conceals it.
