St. John's Academy Girls Set Rites to Honor Virgin Mary

Girls of St. John's Academy... pin up tiny hearts as symbols of devotion honoring the Blessed Virgin on St. Valentine's Day.

By EMMA RIVERS MILNER, Times Church Editor

The 135 young girls in St. John's Academy will pay tribute to the Blessed Virgin Mary as a St. Valentine's Day celebration. The Valentine's Day always falls on Feb. 14 which this year is Monday. The girls, by that time, will have said 150 prayers and fulfilled other spiritual requirements. As a token of their devotion, a little red bow will be affixed to each of the white paper hearts, bearing the names of the girls, mounted on a bulletin board in the school corridor.

A good deal of work has gone into the cutting and mounting of the picturesque hearts. This was done by the Eucharistic Our Lady Committee of the Sodality which sponsors the Valentine observance.

Mark All Feasts

Mary Ellen Molloy is chairman of the E. O. L. Committee and Patricia Burkhard is prefect of the sodality. The committee celebrates all feasts of the Blessed Virgin and Our Lord with some special project.

The sodality is a very old society of St. John's. It fosters the spiritual growth of individual persons and help for one's neighbors. It conducts drives for food for the indigent aged, clothes for needy children, provides regulation apparel for children about to receive their first Holy Communion, does Legion of Decency work and distributes Catholic literature.

Girls completing the Valentine tribute to Our Lady will say a complete Rosary which includes

Recounts Legends

Many legends have grown up around the day. St. Valentine was believed to choose his mates on Valentine's in England and France. Thus the day became dedicated to lovers who exchanged notes and tokens. Each addressed the other as his or her Valentine.

The story also goes that one of the martyred Valentines felt so keenly the urge to spread the Gospel that he wrote little notes about God in his prison cell. These he fastened about the necks of birds that flew upon the prison window ledge. The birds are said to have carried the religious messages far and wide.

101 Men's Class To Honor Legion

The 101 Men's Class will honor the American Legion during its program beginning at 9:15 a. m. tomorrow in the Broadway Baptist Church.

Every Gold Star Mother present will receive a rose from the Junior Girls' Unit of the Wayne Unit Auxiliary. Joseph F. Lutes, state commander, will speak on the "American Legion Motto" and the Irvington Post Junior Band will play directed by Robert Buford. C. E. Sipt will direct the Riverside Methodist Church Choir. The Rev. R. M. Dordill, teacher, will give a talk.
