

Pollom Improves; Will See Action

Tom Pollom, Tech's No. 1 point-getter who was in bed with the touch of the flu yesterday, is expected to be available for duty Saturday when Tech meets Summitville in the regionals Saturday afternoon, his mother, Mrs. Matthea Pollom, said today.

The Tech athlete was seized with a touch of the flu early this week following Tech's sectional triumph over Southport last Saturday. Early treatment and prompt care by a physician yesterday helped reduce Pollom's fever of 102.

The Greencard scoring ace was reported to have lost five pounds over the week end and lowering of his resistance in Tech's rugged late yesterday afternoon.

Yale to Represent District 1 in NCAA Basketball Tournament in Garden

Total Entrants So Far Up to Five; Lavelli-Ties Mikan's Collegiate Mark

By TIM MORIARTY, United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Mar. 3—Yale, poised to grab off the Ivy League championship, today was named to represent District 1 in the eastern semifinals of the NCAA college basketball tournament.

The Yales were the second of the semifinals, Kentucky having been selected from District 2, the East, and District 4, the Midwest, have leading his Eli mates to a 71 to 55 victory over Connecticut.

Lavelli reached Mikan's mark by tallying 32 points, Mikkan, now a member of the Minneapolis Lakers in the Basketball Association of America, set the record while playing at DePaul University.

Lavelli, the nation's leading scorer, reached the record with a basket in the last five minutes of the game at Storrs, Conn., but failed to eclipse the mark although he got four more shots for the final whistle.

Another Chance
The dark-haired star from Somerville, Mass., gets another crack at establishing a new record when Yale faces Harvard at New Haven Saturday night.

Columbia missed a chance to tie Yale for the Ivy League leadership by dropping a 48-to-45 decision to Princeton. Instead, the loss sent Columbia into a tie with the Tigers for second place.

The Lions, playing on their home court, led at the half, 19 to 12. But Princeton, behind Bernie Adams' sharp-shooting, deadlocked the game at 33-all midway through the second half. Adams, who scored 22 points, gave the Tigers a 45-to-44 edge by connecting on five straight free throws with two minutes to go. In the final minutes, Princeton converted three more free throws while Columbia netted only one point.

In their only meeting this season the Boilmakers and the Illini ended in a 12 to 12 tie. The strong contenders for the team title are Iowa and Minnesota.
