School News— Warren Central Choir to Sing

Spring Concert
To Be Given Mar. 11

The choir of Warren Central High School will present a spring concert at 8 p.m. Mar. 11 in the school gymnasium. Love lyrics, square dancing, solos and choir singing will be included in the program.

Mrs. Myrtle Rodden, dean of girls in Warren Central, will speak on the topic "To Help the Women of Today Accept the Opportunities for the Preparation of her Career of Tomorrow" at 11:15 a.m. Saturday over radio station WISH.

Miss Katherine Khin Khin, vice president of the Rangoon YMCA, Burma, recently spoke to the eighth and ninth grades in Warren Central gymnasium.

Heads Club

Gloria McGahan, senior in Warren Central, recently tied for second place in the 11th district speech contest held in Broad Ripple High School with William Haine from Washington High School. Gordon Smith of Broad Ripple High School won first place.

Etiemae Bottema has been elected president of the school's new 4-H Leadership Club. Others are Jean Thompson, vice president; Margaret Reilly, secretary; Jean Ferguson, treasurer, and Marilyn Bruns, reporter. Mrs. Lourene Dodson is director.

Students who won first place in the State Solo and Ensemble contest Feb. 19 in Terre Haute are:

sextet, boys quartet III and William Hilton, Warren Central senior, won a savings bond as first prize in Marion County division of the "Save Hoosier Soil" essay contest.
