Probe Shooting Of Boy, 10

Deputy sheriffs today continued their investigation into the shooting of a 10-year-old Mars Hill boy yesterday on a railroad near his home.
John William Lowe, who lives at 645 S. Lyons Ave., was home in bed today, after he was treated in General Hospital yesterday for a wound from a rifle bullet believed inflicted by a playmate. Although the other youth, 11, denies shooting him in the back, the wounded lad said it was his playmate who shot him.

Bellboy Catches Ohio Fugitive

Chases Hotel Guest Over Short Change
A fugitive from a grand larceny charge in Toledo, O., was under arrest here today, captured by a bellboy who said the man tried to short change him of $100.
The suspect, Roy McDonald, 40, Roosevelt Hotel, was taken into custody after police were called to the hotel and told that Bellboy George Crutchfield had captured a guest who tried to run away with the bellboy's money.
The bellboy said he made change for $100 bill for McDonald and that McDonald then refused to hand over the bill. When the bellboy went to the desk to report the incident, McDonald ran out of the hotel. The bellboy pursued him more than a block and caught him.
Police found a $100 bill and $12 in change in McDonald's pocket. In his room they found $80 hidden under a carpet.
McDonald was charged with vagrancy and later held as a fugitive when a check showed he was wanted in Toledo.
