

Lambda Chi Alpha 14 Local Servicemen To Note Founding Among War Dead Being Returned to U. S.

Group En Route From Western Europe Aboard Transport Haiti Victory

Fraternity Members Celebrate Tomorrow Founders' Day for members of eight undergraduate Indiana chapters and alumni members of Lambda Chi Alpha, social fraternity, will be observed tomorrow with a full day of activities, arranged by the Indianapolis alumni group.

Marion County Circuit Court Judge Lloyd D. Claycombe, a past national president of the fraternity, will speak at a luncheon in the Hotel Lincoln opening celebration of the organization's 40th anniversary.

Dance in Evening

Purdue, Butler, DePauw and Indiana Universities, Franklin, Wabash and Hanover Colleges, and Rose Polytechnic Institute chapters will compete in a song contest.

The winning chapter will be announced at an evening dance in the Murat Temple, during which an "Indiana Sweetheart" of the fraternity will be honored.

Clownish Kibitzer Kiboshes Cards

Card-playing women at the Shrine Women's card party last night in the Murat Temple found it difficult to concentrate on their games when Mrs. Cecil Byrne, playing the clown, came around to kibitz. Here she puts a hand between Mrs. Edward V. Mitchell and Mrs. George C. Spiegel as Mrs. Harry Geisel, mistress of ceremonies, attempts to persuade her away.

Study Animals In Arctic Cold

Navy Seeks Clue For Service Garb

PASADENA, Cal., Mar. 18 (UPI)—Alaska may be a battle ground if another war comes and science is seeking to learn a secret from the Arctic animals.

The secret is: How do the animals stand the extreme cold?

The Navy has given a contract to the California Institute of Technology to investigate the blood chemistry of Arctic animals. Out of the study, the Navy hopes, may come some answers to how soldiers can live in the Arctic.

One CAL Tech scientist assigned to the job is Dr. Dan H. Campbell, a chemist, who already has made one trip to the Arctic and is preparing another for late in the summer.

He wants to learn how birds with their thin insulation can stand zero weather. He also wants to study the blood chemistry of hibernating animals.

A recent report from Alaska said that the caribou, for instance, has little fat under the hide covering his legs. The answer could be, according to Dr. Campbell, that there may be a type of tissue in or under the skin that gives the animal super insulation against cold.

Report Mindszenty Lives in Clean Room

BUDAPEST, Mar. 18 (UPI)—Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, Hungarian primate who was sentenced to life imprisonment on treason and other charges, is in good health and living in a "clean, well-heated furnished room," a government source said today.

The source emphasized that the Roman Catholic prelate was not serving his sentence in a prison cell. But he did not disclose location of the room, except to say that it was in Budapest.

MILLIONS NOW USE CHEWING-GUM LAXATIVE

Amazing Laxative Action Detours the Stomach

Medical authorities say that one reason why laxatives may upset you is that they irritate the stomach.

But FEEN-A-MINT, the delicious chewing-gum laxative, works in an entirely different way! The secret is in the special medicine contained in the gum.

It's the "FEEN-A-MINT" that does not irritate the stomach.

And scientists say chewing gum makes FEEN-A-MINT more effective—"readies" it so it flows gently, gradually into the system. You feel wonderful again quickly!
