In Hollywood—
Benny Will Get Television Spot
Comedy Star Registers Well on New Medium
By Erskine Johnson
HOLLYWOOD, Mar. 18.—Television will have a new comedy star in the fall and it's none other than your old friend Jack Benny.
Jack's successful debut on TV here convinced him and everyone else that his personality comes over as well on video as on radio, if not better.
He's already discussed plans for a monthly live show, which will be kinescoped for release in the East, starting in October or November.
As a master of ceremonies who tried to get into most of the acts, Jack kept both the live audience and home viewers howling. He lamented Fred Allen's future on TV. "With those bags under his eyes," Jack said, "Allen will look like a short butcher peeping over two pounds of liver."

He apologized for donning glasses. "But really," he said, "I only use them for seeing."
HE KIDDED himself about not having a reputation for ad libbing. "Fred Allen once said I couldn't ad lib a belch after a Hungarian dinner."
Talking about the Academy Awards, he said the only way to win an Oscar was to make a picture without a single laugh. Then he added quickly: "My last one almost made it."
Aside to Bing Crosby, Fred Astaire and Charles Boyer: Gene Autry is about to join your Dome Dolly Set. He's being fitted for a toupee.
ERROL FLYNN finds gal friends in the strangest places. He first saw Nora Eddington behind the counter of a cigar store in the Los Angeles Hall of Justice. Now he's dating a Hollywood night club waitress.
Admission to the concert will be free to patrons of the fund drive upon presentation of their "share" or fraction of a share coupon. The theater doors will close at 1:45 p.m. to allow time for the audience to be seated before the orchestra goes on the air.
