

GOP Coalition Groups To Map Ingles Ouster Moves Here Tonight

Three Factions to Frame Petitions To Fire Chairman From County Post.

The coalition of three Republican Party factions will convene tonight to complete plans for their move to oust James W. Ingles from the GOP county chairmanship.

Ouster petitions to be signed by a majority of the precinct committeemen were to be drawn up tonight for distribution to all the party workers tomorrow and Friday.

The petitions, which signed, will be presented to the Indiana Republican Committee which, under the law, has the power to remove a county chairman for cause.

A formal demand for Chairman Ingles' removal was made to the state committee last Saturday. The demand contained a series of charges against Chairman Ingles' management of the party's campaign last fall.

Leaders of the ouster group predicted that 14 of the 22 members of the state committee will vote to remove Mr. Ingles.

Meanwhile, three more of Chairman Ingles' ward chairmen resigned last night, bringing the total resignations to seven since the three factions agreed on the ouster move last week.

The ward chairmen who resigned last night were Carl Wilking of the 24th ward; Joe Shinn of the 11th ward and Roscoe J. Wittman of the 19th ward.

Others Resigned
Other chairmen who resigned last week were Samuel Blum, of the 12th ward; Edwin McClure, Washington Township; John Goodnight, 7th ward and Jack Ennis, Franklin Township.

The three factions working together in the ouster move include Republicans United, headed by Eugene Fife Jr., United Republican Precinct Committeemen Association and the Republican Veterans of World War II.

Support Ennis
Leaders in these three groups agreed to support Mr. Ennis for the chairmanship.

Joe Rand Beckett, chairman of the newly formed Republican Citizens Advisory Committee, appointed by Chairman Ingles to draft a party program, said yesterday that his committee would not be affected by any change in the party chairmanship.

"We will continue to carry on this work regardless of who is chairman," he said.

Hoosier Beauty, Baby Are 'All Right,' Sheriff Told

Disappearance Still Clouded by Mystery

Times State Service

NORTH JUDSON, Mar. 23—

The disappearance of a former high school beauty queen and her 18-month-old daughter was still shrouded in mystery today, although authorities have been informed both are safe.

Mrs. Blanche Deckman told Sheriff Jesse Werner that her daughter, Mrs. Betty Teallow, 21, and her baby girl, Judy, were "all right."

She declined to give their whereabouts, however, and the sheriff continued working on the case.

The young mother, who was crowned queen of the Northern Indiana Muck Crops show several years ago, and her daughter had been reported missing since last Saturday night.

The young woman's husband, Marshall, who operates a general store with his father near here, reported the matter to authorities on Sunday after searching for them 24 hours.

Yesterday Sheriff Werner expressed fear that the mother and daughter had met with foul play. The car which Mrs. Teallow was driving when last seen, has been found at Kewanna, about 30 miles southeast of here. It was undamaged.

Mrs. Teallow's husband said he and his wife were high school sweethearts and were happily married. He told officers he could give no reason for her disappearance.

Two Drown in Atlantic
PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 23 (UP)—Two men were drowned here yesterday when they became trapped in a strong undertow while swimming in the Atlantic Ocean. Neither was a Hoosier.

KARR TO PRESIDE
Byron Karr will act as moderator in a round table discussion of hotel and greater problems when the local chapter of Hotel Greeters of America meets at 8 p. m. on Friday in the Claypool Hotel.

If Mrs. Rogers were in town, she said, her husband tried her cruelly refusing to "cohabit" with her and leaving her to visit the Congresswoman's suite "late in the night."

Finally, Mrs. Latta-Lawrence said, her husband forced her to take her belongings out of his apartment. She stayed on at the hotel, however, feeling her own bills until July 26. On Aug. 6, she said, she returned to her Los Angeles home, intending to return to Washington on Sept. 15.

Her husband subsequently informed her, she said, that he was going on submarine maneuvers for three or four days. With characteristic wifely suspicion, she checked his statement and found that he was staying at the time in Saco, Me. She said Mrs. Rogers was there, too.

Fireman Dismissed By Safety Board

An Indianapolis fireman who had been suspended since Jan. 15 on a charge of being drunk on duty was dismissed today by the Board of Safety.

The fireman, Clifford Duffy, 34, of 3430 Kenwood Ave., had been a member of the department for more than 10 years. He was attached to Fire Station No. 16.

The board's action followed testimony by Fire Chief McKinney and Capt. Daniel O'Donnell.

PUPILS PRESENT PLAYLET
Pupils of the University Heights grade school, 1351 Hanna Ave., will present a playlet on Abraham Lincoln at 7:30 p. m. today in the school auditorium. The play will be directed by Mrs. George Voss, fifth grade teacher.

Get Entry Blank in Early For Times Spelling Bee

Contestants Advised to 'Bone Up' On Eighth Grade, High School Words

By ART WRIGHT

Here are two important tips for grammar school pupils who want to compete for the Indianapolis Spelling Bee Champion's title: ONE: Get that entry blank in the mail now. Then you will be in the contest officially.

TWO: Study your regular school work and also study the eighth grade and high school words. You see, when the contest gets down to the semifinals it will be necessary to use high school words to produce a champion.

If you win the Indianapolis title and some boy or girl will in Washington, D. C. with all expenses paid by The Times. You'll see all the sights of Washington and have fun every day. One day of the week you will compete in the National Spelling Bee for the U. S. champion's title and $500 in cash.

The City Park and Recreation Department is co-operating with The Times in staging the Spelling Bee.

The following schedule lists the dates of contests at the centers and the schools that compete there:
