

Truman Due to Sign Rent Control Bill

Measure Falls Far Short of His Requests

President Held Unlikely to Let Curbs Lapse

WASHINGTON, Mar. 30 (UPI)—Administration leaders predicted today that President Truman would sign the compromise rent control bill, even though it falls far short of his original request.

They pointed out that with the present rent law expiring at midnight tomorrow, it is unlikely Mr. Truman would be willing to let controls lapse—even temporarily—on the chance that Congress might pass a stronger law.

Gives 'Local Option'
The new bill, approved yesterday by the House and Senate, would extend federal controls for 15 months.

But it would give states and municipalities a chance to get out from under rent ceilings, and would guarantee landlords a "fair net operating income."

The new measure was worked out by a joint conference committee as a compromise between earlier Senate and House rent bills.

Labor Act

Southern Democratic leaders forecast today that a majority of the House will support their drive to block outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

One influential Southerner said Taft-Hartley supporters will be able to defeat the administration on this issue "by about 20 votes all along the line."

The administration's labor bill, which would repeal the present law and re-enact a "modified" Wagner Act, is now before the House Rules Committee. Labor Committee Chairman John L. Rankin (D. Mich.) has asked the committee to bar amendments to the measure on the House floor.

But there appeared little chance that the rules group would grant Mr. Rankin's request.

Foreign Aid

SENATE leaders are fearful that the drive to trim Marshall Plan spending may mean trouble ahead for the North Atlantic Security Pact and its arms-for-Europe companion measure.

They foresaw plenty of difficulty in trying to halt a drive by Sen. Robert A. Taft (R. O.) to trim some 10 per cent from the $5,350,000,000 requested by the administration for the European Recovery Program's operation in the next 15 months. A bill to grant the administration's request has been before the Senate since last week.

Taxes

TROUBLE between President Truman and Congress was deepening in Chicago today, that his higher tax program might bring about a sizable 1949 business depression.

Republican and Democratic forces were forming to reject the administration tax program and force the government to exercise "greater economy."

Chairman Walter F. George (D. Ga.) of the Senate Finance Committee told the Senate yesterday that the administration's tax proposal would threaten the country with a "sizable depression."

Ike Rests Out of Reach Of Bright Florida Sun

KEY WEST, Fla., Mar. 30 (UPI)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower rested indoors out of reach of Key West's brilliant sun today after spending a "very comfortable" first night at the U. S. Naval Base here.

Mr. Robert E. Schulz, his aide said Gen. Ike still was tired from the four-hour plane ride from Washington, but he says he's feeling pretty good.

Entry List Closes Friday For Times Spelling Bee

Contestants Registering by Mail to Get Preferred Positions in Spelldown Line

By ART WRIGHT

Entries mailed for The Times Spelling Bee must be sent by midnight Friday.

Grammar school pupils who send in their entries by mail will get the front line positions in the spelldowns at the 18 centers throughout the city. That means that when you are at the front of the line you will get the easier words, for the words become progressively more difficult.

The staff of the City Park and Recreation Department will be in charge of the spelldowns when they start next Monday at five centers. Schools have been assigned to centers in their locality.

Finals May 6

The Indianapolis champion, who will be determined in the finals on May 6, will go to Washington, D. C., with all expenses paid by The Times. If the Indianapolis champion wins the national title he, or she, will receive $500 in cash. The smallest cash prize to win the national finals is $40.

There also are prizes and medals for the contest here in Indianapolis.

Here is schedule of preliminary spelldowns:
