Woodmen Circle Convention Set

Supreme Forest Event Begins Tomorrow

The Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle will hold its biennial convention in conjunction with Tau Phi Lambda Sorority tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday in the Lincoln Hotel.

Mrs. Anna Wells, president, will open the three-day session at 10 a. m. The meetings will include junior graduation, pledge services, initiation, memorial and election, and installation of national and state officers.

A combined state luncheon will be held tomorrow noon. Drill teams from throughout the state will take part in a drill pageant tomorrow night led by Louie Mills, state captain.

Mrs. Myrtle Turpin, state secretary, will have charge of junior ritualistic ceremonies. Mrs. Edith Sostack, past state sorority president, and Mrs. Ruth Thompson, will install officers. Miss Helen Heck will be crowned as Miss Tau Phi Lambda. Hostesses will be Romona Grove, Beta Iota and Theta Rho chapters.

National officers attending the sessions will be Mrs. Clara B. Cassidy, Omaha, Neb., secretary; Mrs. Jennie Miller, Gary, representative; Mrs. Evelyn Joyce, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Lucille Swafford, officers; Mrs. May Beaver, committee member and state manager, and Mrs. Ruth Thompson, committee member.

Today's Weather Fotocast

TODAY AND TOMORROW—The cool arrows at the top right of the fotocast tell the weather story for the northeast. The Weather Bureau is calling for rainy weather from the Gulf States to Maine and along the Great Lakes, and government forecasters add it doesn't look like any "April Fool" forecast either.

Suit Against Flynn Settled Out of Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 31 (UP)—A court today approved a $3000 settlement arranged between Errol Flynn and Wallace Berry Jr., 19-year-old seaman who filed a $35,000 damage suit against the actor.

Mr. Berry charged he received inadequate medical care after he was hurt in an accident off the coast of Mexico while serving aboard Mr. Flynn's yacht, the Zaca.

Vandals Take Revenge On Principal's Desk

Vandals who broke into School 52, of 551 N. King Ave., left an example of a queer sense of humor today.

Although only a few pencils and rubber bands were found to be missing, the desk of the principal was covered with a layer of sugar and grass seed. The materials of the mixture were found by the vandals in rooms of the building.
