WIBC Official to Head Women Broadcasters

Jane Flaherty, promotion director for radio station WIBC, has been appointed state chairman of the Association of Women Broadcasters. The association is composed of women announcers or women who hold an executive position with a radio station.

Miss Flaherty indicated the AWB would become an affiliate of the National Association of Broadcasters later this month.

Dave Beck Speaks

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Apr. 2 (UPI)—Dave Beck, teamsters union executive, said today that unless the Taft-Hartley Law is repealed, or certainly watered down, the CIO and the AFL undoubtedly would combine forces to "see that Con-gressmen toe the line."

Association in Hotel Seville next Saturday and Sunday.

Gen. McLain, the first National Guard officer to be commissioned a brigadier general in the regular Army, will speak to 200 reserve officers from 62 WIBC ROA chapters.

Gen. McLain participated in the Champagne and Meuse-Arronne offensives in World War I and the Sicilian, Italian, French and German campaigns during the last war.
