Philip Willkie to Run for House Again

Times Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, Apr. 2—Philip H. Willkie will run again next year for his present seat in the Indiana House of Representatives.

That is the extent of his present political plans, Mr. Willkie de-clared.

The son of the late Wendell L. Willkie, a Rushville attorney won elected to the state legislature to his second term on the Republican side, as "a very fine man."

"I will run again for the Indiana legislature, period," Mr. Willkie declared.

He pointed out that he is not unmindful of the attention which comes to him as the son of the 1940 Republican presidential can-didate. His plans, however, are to climb the political ladder by his own efforts, he indicated.
