Flyers Stop Providence, Tie Playoffs

Tomorrow's Winner Will Meet Hershey In 7-Game Finals

ST. LOUIS, Apr. 4 (UP)—A confident band of St. Louis Flyers, who tied the American Hockey League's playoff series at three games apiece last night, entrained for Providence, R. I. today for the deciding game against the Providence Reds tomorrow night.

Winner of Tuesday's game will meet the Hershey Bears in a seven-game series for the circuit championship.

Facing elimination here last night, the Flyers scored once in each period to defeat the Reds, 3 to 1. Red Almas, tending goal for St. Louis, was the game's individual hero as he turned aside every shot except the one angled at him by Danny Summers at 8:32 of the third period.

The American League's largest crowd of all time—13,321 fans—watched Vic Griggs tally for St. Louis at 14:11 of the first stanza to give the Missourians a lead they never relinquished. Lloyd Doran scored the second St. Louis goal late in the middle stanza and Hec Pozzo added an insurance marker at 6:14 of the third period after taking relays from Doran and Barry Sullivan.

Wings, Canadiens In Finale Tuesday

MONTREAL, Apr. 4 (UP)—Two bone-tired hockey teams headed for Detroit today to decide in one more game which will meet the Toronto Maple Leafs for the Stanley Cup.

The semi-final series between the Detroit Red Wings and Montreal Canadiens was all even at the end of six games, leaving everything up to that seventh game in Detroit tomorrow.

The Canadiens, given little chance to get past the Red Wings, pulled even here Saturday with a 3-1 victory in a rugged, hard-fought contest.

Both Dick Irvin and General Manager Frank Selke were known to be dissatisfied with the performance of some of their high-salaried players. Prominent in this group was "Rocket" Richard, still under a cloud despite his tally last night.

On the ice, Detroit called up a group of rookies from Indianapolis of the American League, but at the last minute Manager Jack Adams decided not to use them. He was close-mouthed about his lineup for Tuesday's game when he left here yesterday.

Training Camp Briefs—

Cards' First Base Problem Unsolved; DiMaggio Hitless in 13 Trips to Plate

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Apr. 4—Manager Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cardinals admitted today that his first-base problem has not been solved and may remain unsettled all season.

Dyer is trying to choose between Vern (Nippy) Jones, who held the position last year, and Rookie Glenn Nelson, up from Rochester where he hit .303. The Card skipper says he thinks Nelson, a left-hander, is better defensively but Jones, a right-hander, is a better hitter.

"I don't expect to make a choice until some time after the season opens," said Dyer. "I will probably keep both boys all season."

Nelson may have boosted his hitting stock yesterday when his single drove in the first two runs of the first inning.

The Cardinals clashed today with the Boston Red Sox.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Apr. 4—The New York Yankees, who play host to the Cincinnati Reds today, are still waiting for Joe DiMaggio's big bat to start booming.

The Yankee Clipper played six innings yesterday as the Cards beat the Reds, 5 to 1, but failed to hit in three of the last four innings.

The Yankees have optioned Pitcher Don Johnson to Sacramento.

SARASOTA, Fla., Apr. 4—The Boston Red Sox, who have trained here since 1933, will be here again next spring, it was announced today.

The Sox, who play the Cardinals here today, also announced they have optioned Rookie Pitcher Maurice McDermott, Willard Nixon, and Mike Palm to Louisville.

Yesterday the Sox beat the Boston Braves, 7 to 6, with Birdie Tebbets driving in the tying run and scoring the winning run in the ninth inning.

TAMPA, Fla., Apr. 4—Ray LaManno, who was the Cincinnati Reds' regular catcher last year, was on his way to the Syracuse farm team of the International League in a surprise move.

Manager Bucky Walters optioned the 29-year-old receiver, who has had a sore arm this spring, and indicated he would use Ray Mueller as the regular catcher with Homer Howell and John Frances in reserve.

ST. LOUIS, Apr. 4 (UP)—The Cardinals today, lost to the Cardinals "B" team yesterday, 2 to 1.

EL PASO, Tex., Apr. 4—The New York Giants were set to test their home run power today against the World Champion Cleveland Indians, whose pitching is in mid-season tune.

The Giants, trailing by one run in the last of the 10th, beat the Chicago White Sox yesterday, 6 to 4, when Sid Gordon homered with two on Cleveland, on the other hand, beat Pittsburgh, 3 to 0, as Bob Feller and Early Wynn combined to toss a four-hitter.

For the Pirates, who got three hits off Feller in six innings and one off Wynn in three, it was only the fourth loss in 16 games.

DALLAS, Tex., Apr. 4—Rex Barney was still the No. 1 "problem child" of the Brooklyn Dodgers today as they clashed with the Dallas Rebels of the Texas League.

Barney, the fireballer who tossed a no-hitter last year but has been wild this spring, had another berserk session yesterday as the Dodgers beat Ft. Worth, 16 to 0, at Ft. Worth. He started by lasting only until the second inning when the Cats got five runs as he dished out four walks, two hits, a wild pitch and a throwing error in the field.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Apr. 4—The Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Browns, who have clashed seven times during the spring training season, were slated to meet again here today.

Yesterday the Cubs registered their fifth win in the series, 3 to 1, as southpaw Johnny Schmitz and Dewey Adkins held the Browns to seven hits, three of them by Paul Lehner.

ORLANDO, Fla., Apr. 4—The Washington Senators, who lost to the Philadelphia A's here yesterday, 9 to 7, were slated to clash with the Chattanooga Lookouts today at Winter Garden.

The Senators bowed to the A's as pitchers Ray Scarborough, Mickey Haefner and Paul Calvert yielded 13 hits, 11 walks and one wild pitch and the defense made three errors.

ATLANTA, Ga., Apr. 4—The Detroit Tigers were scheduled to meet the Atlanta Crackers here in a night game tonight. The Tigers beat the Crackers yesterday, 5 to 4, on the strength of Johnny Groth's grand-slam home run.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Apr. 4—The Philadelphia Phils and Montgomery of the Southeastern League were slated to clash here today. Yesterday the Phils beat Birmingham of the Southern Association, 5 to 2, as Russ Meyer pitched six innings and Ed Watkins hit a three-run homer.

NEW YORK, Apr. 4 (UP)—Still and perhaps forever a sick man, Mike Jacobs today was being edged back to the helm of his boxing promotion empire lest it crumble into extinction.

Jacobs began a series of conferences with executives of Madison Square Garden in a campaign apparently aimed at combatting the inroads rival organizations are making into a sport once tightly controlled by Jacobs' 20th Century Club and its Garden landlords.

Uncle Mike himself said he was "ordered" to New York for the confab by Garden President John Reed Kilpatrick. One minute he was running himself at his Miami home, the next he received a telephone summons, Jacobs explained.

"I'm not sure I know," Uncle Mike said. "I have an idea, but I don't know whether it's a good idea or not."

Along Jacobs Beach, where the sunshine is strictly neon, the managers and fighters were sure they knew what was cooking. Jacobs would be ordered by the Garden either to take over active direction of his organization or sell out, they said.

The question, of course, is whether Jacobs can, should or will take over.

For a while he seemed the Jacobs of yore, the man who rose from the garbage-littered streets of the East Side to a landscaped Rumson, N. J., estate, a home in Florida, a domination of every big-time boxing championship.

But whether he is the Mike Jacobs of old or only a too old Mike Jacobs will be determined shortly.

Osley, San Antonio Baseball Head, Dies

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Apr. 4 (UP)—William Osley, 51, president of the San Antonio Club of the Texas League, died last night of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Osley had spent the evening with a baseball group, including president Bill Dewitt and vice president Charley Dewitt of the St. Louis Browns, owners of the San Antonio club.

He complained of a pain in his head as he was driving home and stopped the car. Then he slumped over the wheel.
