

Federation Of Clubs Sets Convention

59th Annual Event
To Be May 26-28

Questions ranging from "What is the Communist Challenge?" to "Can We Afford Free Medicine?" will be discussed at the 59th annual Indiana Federation of Clubs convention May 26-28 in South Bend.

"Every club in each community working for a better America" is the convention theme. The keynote, "My Community," will be discussed by Mrs. Cogley G. Cole, Vevay, state president, when she presents the federation project, the Community Planning contest, on Thursday morning, May 26.

Mrs. Cole, assisted by the first two vice presidents, Mrs. George Baum of Rochester and Mrs. Arnold Ulbrich of East Chicago, will preside at all sessions.

Three GFWC officers also will attend the convention as counselors for the various discussions. They are Mrs. Hiram Houghton, Red Oak, Ia.; Mrs. Oscar Ahlgren, Whiting, and Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, Baltimore, Md.

Hostess Clubs Named

Hostess clubs for the convention are from the 10th, 11th 12th and 13th federated club districts. Presidents of the districts are Mrs. John Haurf, Valparaiso; Mrs. Arthur Ridenour, Wabash; Mrs. E. W. Longfellow, Fort Wayne, and Mrs. C. R. Graham, Bourbon.

All business sessions will be held in the Progress Clubhouse, 601 W. Colfax Ave., in South Bend, and the formal dinners will be held in the Indiana Club. Mrs. George L. Miller, South Bend, is general chairman of arrangements, and Mrs. Frederick G. Balz is program chairman.

Vice chairman with Mrs. Balz are Mrs. Robert Stewart, West Lafayette; Mrs. Edmund B. Ball, Muncie; Mrs. Ahlgren; Miss Ruth Morrell, Bloomington; Mrs. Harry Lee Bashore, Marion; Mrs. George C. Baum, Rochester; Mrs. Ralph F. Gates, Columbia City, and Mrs. W. D. Keenan of here.

Tour Arranged

Mrs. Fred B. Bell, Rushville, is financial chairman, assisted by the following: Dean Mary L. Matthews, West Lafayette; Mrs. R. F. Hardin, Covington; Mrs. Harriette K. Sparks, Frankfort; Mrs. Robert A. Hicks, Cambridge City; Mrs. Mary P. Holmstead, Bloomington; Mrs. Glen Swartz, Crawfordsville; Mrs. Edwin B. Dietrich, Lawrenceburg; Mrs. John E. Scott, Rising Sun, and Mesdames Elmer Dolzall, Henry E. Ostrom and Claude Jacquart, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Cecil Harden, Indiana's congresswoman of Covington, will be honored at the dinner May 27. She and the Hon. Karl E. Mundt, U. S. senator, will be guest speakers that evening.

A tour to St. Mary's of the Lakes is being arranged Saturday morning for visiting delegates. The convention officially closes with a luncheon that noon featuring eight GI brides from seven foreign countries, now living in Kokomo.

In Charge of Garden Club Breakfast at Fairgrounds

Mrs. William E. Dinsmore (left) and Mrs. Paul Boardman are in charge of the Garden Club breakfast to be held at 10 a. m. Tuesday at the Home Show in the Manufacturers' Building at the State Fairgrounds. Two hundred members of the garden clubs in the Central West District will attend.

Charity Ball Plans Made

Spring foliage and cherry blossoms will be used in decorations for the annual Charity Ball of St. Francis Hospital Guild Saturday night in the K. of C. Hall. Carl Klefers' orchestra will play.

Mrs. Roy N. Boyd, general chairman, is assisted by Mesdames Walter Stumpf, John O'Connell and John Gedig, co-chairmen.

Reservations chairman, Mrs. Albert Seyfried, has Mesdames Louis Groh, I. G. Boyd, Edward Schneider, Frank Lutz, Edward Schneider, Frank Oberting, Harry Cook and Edward Hansing on her committee.

Mrs. Edward Trimpe is decorations chairman with Mesdames George Graber, Orval Hayworth and Amos Huegels, co-chairmen. Mrs. Stumpf heads the ticket committee with Mesdames Thomas Quill, Gedig, Robert Heiskel, Nicholas Volz, Henry Denk and Bernard Weimer and Miss Olivia Weimer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy will be on the door. Hostesses include Mesdames Anthony Fritz, Carl Klefers, Harry Funk, Katherine Alsmeyer, Stella Warrenburg, Thomas McCormick and Caroline Oberting. Mrs. Leo Lucid is handling publicity.
