Still Wows 'Em At Age of 83.

Georgianna Carhart Tells Joke That Are Well Be-Whiskered

By Earl Wilson

NEW YORK, May 2—Eighty-three-year-old glamour girl Georgianna Carhart was frank. Sticking out her hand, she said, "I'm not going to say 'Pleased to meet you' because I may not be."

She's the marathon-talking comedienne who'd been retired from a singing career for almost 50 years when Jack Barry gave her new fame by making her mistress of ceremonies of the radio show, "Life Begins at 80."

We'd just begun talking about it when the suave Barbery Room captain said: "Would you like frog's legs?"

"No, I'm satisfied with my own," she said. "Would it shock you, she asked, 'If I took a drink?'"

"Yes," she said. "Well, I'm going to shock you. Bring me a daiquiri," she said. Then she added, "I never took a drink till I was 60."

I was amazed at her glibness and her memory of old jokes. And to think that back about '96, she was engaged to Author James Gibbons Huneker, who's been dead for 28 years.

"I'm just a fat, waddly old woman now," she said, "and when I get around men, I talk. Women don't excite me. They're so darned dull."

She bought a hat from milliner Walter Florell—a hat named "Romantic."

"Do you mind if I change that to 'Rheumatic'?" she asked him. She noticed it cost $65.

"This is the greatest price that has ever been set on my head," she told him.

HER chatter is full of these personal experiences that are borrowed from the routines of vaudeville stars of yesterday.

"I got on a crowded bus," she told me, "and the bus driver said, 'Lady, have you got a seat?' I told him yes, but I haven't got any place to put it."

"I went into Bergdorf-Goodman's and a clerk said, 'Madam, your pleasure?'"

"Men," I said, "but I came in to buy a hat. So he took me up to the second floor and got me a sailor."

"I WENT to a zoo and the keeper was showing off the laughing hyena. He said, 'This animal eats once a week, sleeps once a month and sees his girl once a year. What the heck he's got to laugh about, I don't know.'"

Yes, it's a little startling to hear these jokes come from a woman of 83, and yet she's so pleased about it that she wants to do a night club act, and will be the oldest performer who ever cracked jokes.

She's the widow of Carrington Carhart, a Kansas City newspaperman.

"I'll never get married again," she says. "There are so many nice men around a girl doesn't like to be tied down."

Georgianna raised her glass. "I don't know where I got it," she said, "but here's my toast. Here's champagne to my real friends and real pain to my sham friends."

Today's Best Laugh

FRED ALLEN, when approached for a touch by old showmen, stops them before they get their hardluck spiels well started and helps them without listening. "I'm afraid the story may be a lie and I'm saving them from having a sin on their souls," says Fred.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Al Schacht has named Manhattan's German settlement, "Gazund Heights."

Earl's Pearls...

Mae West's broken ankle has caused such a pause in the profitable "Diamond Lil" show that somebody new calls the show "Diamond Lull"... We favor Oliver Herford's definition of diplomacy. He called it "lying in state."

The Midnight Earl

OUR TOWN: The Street's newest and wackiest mania, bop, really came into its own at the opening of Bop City. The flavor of the affair was kept fresh with such reminders as bopetizers, bop suey, bop-cue sauce, bop-tails and a fellow who pushed publicity at the fourth estate in the form of song, his name—Lucius Bop. For 90 cents a head admission, the biggest cafe opening night crowd in years swarmed in to drink at the bar, lap up gooey delights at the ice cream bar, sample Chinese dishes bop-bo and finally dig the entertainment.

Artie Shaw's 40-piece orchestra did a rather unconvincing job of selling "progressive," bifonol and just plain modern music to the crowd despite the amusing program notes by Irving Kolodin. Said one patron, "It sounds like the Budapest String Quartet on Savoy Records." The orderly mob sailed off at the conclusion of Ella Fitzgerald's stint. Elaine Ross is the pianist at the Hickory House.

Don't Be Discouraged; Clean System, Stomach Acids Away; Feel Fine!

inner-Aid Sweeps the Poisonous Acids From Your System and Then Headaches, Sleepless Nights and Constipation Vanish and Worn Out People Quickly Feel Better All Over.

Don't be discouraged! Even though you have tried EVERYTHING for bowel and stomach trouble, DON'T GIVE UP. You may have Bowel and Stomach Acid! A Nation-Wide fight on this "Modern Scourge" is being started. Read this announcement.

VICTIMS OF Bowel and Stomach acid scarcely know what is wrong with them. They can't digest food properly, swell with gas after meals, have skin eruptions, coated tongue, thick, bad taste, foul breath, can't sleep right, are headachy, worn out and ALWAYS CONSTIPATED. They appear to have all the symptoms of common "bowel and stomach disorders." For bowel and stomach disorder seldom brings heartache, because ordinary bowel and stomach medicines do not reach the acidous root of this trouble, so these discouraged, forlorn people continue to suffer—wondering why all medicines fail them—why they have to be sick all the time—why they can't feel strong and well like normal men and women.

WORKS WITH FOOD Such suffering people will now find in INNER-AID a REAL measure of relief. This medicine is taken shortly before meals; thus it works with your food and neutralizes acids. At once there is an easier feeling in the stomach and chest. Within 10 minutes the gas starts leaving you. Distressing bloated and painful gas swelling are relieved. This benefit comes quickly, usually from one dose! Often a single bottle organizes your system and restores normal function. If you are a victim of even long-standing indigestion, gas, evening bloated, upset stomach, etc., you should, by all means, have this medicine.

A GREAT LAXATIVE INNER-AID also is a laxative. It contains a combination of cleansing ingredients not often found even in high-priced "bowel" compounds. The laxative power of this medicine cleanses both the intestines and the bowels and makes them REALLY CLEAN, bringing out old, black, acidous substance that may have been the real cause all along of your suffering. These headaches, eruptions, worn out feeling and sleepless nights, come from this old, acidous substance—comes to quick relief.

SUFFERERS! Don't go on feeling worn out, headachy, miserable. Get Inner-AID TODAY! Cost of the medicine for only a few cents a day for the large 8-ounce bottle, and by leading drug stores throughout this entire section—adv.

Fear New Forest Fires As Rainfall Stops

DULUTH, Minn., May 2 (UP)—Rainfall stopped today and smoldering forest fires threatened to spread again through the north woods of Minnesota. Strong winds from 15 to 20 miles an hour were predicted by weathermen for the northern quarter of the state. Hundreds of men fought nearly a week against blazing forests, brush and peat to protect towns, farms and summer resorts. No losses of life have been reported.

Theft Ring Uses Canal As Loot 'Storage Depot'

MIAMI, Fla., May 2 (UP)—Police today dragged a 40-mile stretch of canal here, searching for scores of dismantled motorcycles and motor-scooters stolen and "stored" there by teenage thieves. Officers announced yesterday that they had rounded up 45 high school youngsters, members of two gangs that specialized in the motorbike thefts. Detective P. A. Nichols said the youths dismantled the stolen vehicles and dropped the parts into the Coral Gables waterway. Then when they "had an order" for a specific part, all they had to do was dive for it, he said.
