THE THOMAS

Things to Consider

In choosing a funeral director certain factors must be considered: The character of the service, the cost, and the reputation of the establishment in the community.

Shirley Brothers' reputation, over the past fifty-one years, has been built by understanding that sorrow cannot be measured by dollars, by making sure that price has no bearing on the quality of a Shirley service.

When you choose Shirley Brothers you will receive the careful attention to details and the many little courtesies that go into the making of "truly a remembered service."

Butler Plans Journalism Field Day

Twenty Students Named to Assist With Activities

Twenty Butler University journalism students have been named to assist with activities of the 16th annual journalism field day Saturday on the Butler campus.

Jack Adams, Indianapolis junior, will serve as student chairman of registration which begins at 9 a. m. in the Fieldhouse. At the opening assembly at 10 a. m., George Leammon, Zionsville senior, will act as student chairman.

E. C. Gorrell, editor of the Pulaski County Democrat, Winamac, will speak on "Social Values in Community Journalism" at the opening assembly.

Set Clinic Sessions

Four clinic sessions will be directed by Butler journalism department faculty members and student assistants from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Student assistants include:

Lester Nagley Jr. of Indianapolis, advertising; Dale Hall of Indianapolis, radio; William Lesh of Indianapolis, publicity and the school news bureau, and Robert Braun of Indianapolis, mechanical.

Miss Molly O'Dell, Indianapolis senior, will be in charge of the entertainment program to be given at a picnic luncheon at 1 p. m. Assistants will be George Melton, Whiteland; Miss Alice Robertson, Indianapolis; Miss Pat Donnelly, Indianapolis, and Mr. Nagley.

Will Be Chairman

Miss Joanna Heiney of Anderson will be chairman of a contest for high school newspapers, assisted by William Pace of Blackwell and Fred Odlet of Indianapolis. City editors of the three Indianapolis newspapers will serve as contest judges.

High school writers selected as contest winners will form the staff of a special field day edition of the Butler Collegian, campus daily newspaper. Student assistants include Mr. Leammon, Miss O'Dell, James Vawter, Hans Stelberger, and Miss Marjean McKay of Indianapolis.

Other student committee appointments include Howard Jackson and Richard H. Cassidy of Indianapolis, room assignments, and Miss Jean Bancroft of Anderson, discussion for high school faculty sponsors.

Sets Mother-Daughter Banquet Here Friday

The Memorial Presbyterian Church will present a varied program following the mother-daughter banquet Friday at 3:30 p. m. in the church building. Margaret Cooper Garner, teacher of drama and speech of Butler University, will direct the program. The School 62 Mothers' Chorus will sing and Hilda Hines Diamantoff, vocalist, will give a group of songs. Miss Alma McNeal will play piano numbers.

MOM'S A HONEY

When We Kids Need A Laxative, She Gives Us Syrup of Black-Draught

Wouldn't you rather have your children smile than cry when you have to give them a laxative? SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT was designed to put a smile on a child's lips instead of tears in his eyes. You see, SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT is so delicious, so easy-to-take, that most children actually like its sweet, spicy flavor. And you'll like SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT's usually prompt results when given according to directions. What a comfort it is to know that the purity and quality of your child's laxative is safeguarded by the care and manufacturing skill for which the makers of BLACK-DRAUGHT have so long been famous! Society to Meet

Mr. Taylor Dr. Covalt

Dr. Donald A. Covalt, New York physician, and Eugene J. Taylor, of the New York Times, will give a joint lecture-demonstration before the Indiana Society for Crippled Children May 17 at IU Medical Center. Dr. Covalt also will address the Marion County Medical Society.

Defendant's 'Insanity' Fails to Convince Judge

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 17 (UPI)—Joseph Stepka, 44, stared glumly into space at his bank robbery trial today after failing to convince the judge that he was insane.

Stepka broke away from his two guards yesterday and threw himself on the floor. He banged his head against the courtroom furniture. He said he didn't know what an oath meant. He shouted meaningless phrases at judge and jury.

"You honor," and John J. O'Brien, assistant district attorney, "this is just a performance." Judge John P. Donohoe ordered the trial to continue.

SAND DUNES MOVE
