

10th Anniversary Sale
Biggest Sale of the Year
99 Guaranteed Used Cars
FRED WILLIAMS Jr.
550 N. MERIDIAN AT 9TH

Soft Drinks Stolen
Employees of North Methodist Church, 38th and N. Meridian Sts., today reported file cabinets had been ransacked and soft drinks stolen from a machine in the basement of the church building last night. Except for the drinks, nothing was missing, police learned.

Admiration Does It Again SENSATIONAL SPECIAL!

Three Sisters
17 N. ILLINOIS ST.
INDIANAPOLIS

DOWNSTAIRS STORE BANNER-WHITEHILL

* Low Terms for your convenience

Henry G. Dressel Rites Tomorrow

Services for Henry G. Dressel, 558 Fletcher Ave., will be at 3 p. m. tomorrow in Moore Mortuaries Peace Chapel. Burial will be in Washington Park. He was 58.

Mr. Dressel died Tuesday in Cold Spring Road Veterans Hospital. A native of St. Jacob, Ill., he was an Indianapolis resident for 30 years. He was a member of Robinson-Ragsdale American Legion Post.

Survivors include his wife Jessie; a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Stitich, of St. Louis, Mo.; a stepson, Harry A. Tipp, Phoenix, Ariz.; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Rochelle and Mrs. Mary Diefenbach, Lebanon, Ill.; and two brothers, Herman Dressel, Lebanon, Ill., and William Dressel, O'Fallon, Ill.

Mrs. Earl Shook

Services for Mrs. Fannie E. Shook, former Indianapolis resident, who died yesterday in Methodist Hospital, will be at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in Conkle Funeral Home. Burial will be in Floral Park. She was 44.

A native of Knox County, Mrs. Shook lived in Indianapolis 20 years before moving to Spencer two years ago.

Survivors include her husband, Earl Shook; a son, Walter E. Shook, Indianapolis; three brothers, George Curtis, Oakton; Delbert Curtis, Rockville, and Claude Curtis, Indianapolis, and two sisters, Mrs. Nora Taylor, Seymour, and Mrs. Mabel Roberts, Indianapolis.

John T. Moore

Services for John T. Moore, 1708 W. Michigan St., who died yesterday, will be at 3 p. m. tomorrow in Conkle Funeral Home. Burial will be in Floral Park. He was 77.

A native of Indianapolis, Mr. Moore was employed as a parking lot attendant at the Circle Motor Inn, Inc.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Vera E. Fox and Mrs. Florence Bright, and two sons, Arthur and Eugene Moore, all of Indianapolis.

Rounds Out 30 Years As Telephone Worker

Miss Henrietta Bockweg, 811 N. Hamilton Ave., celebrated her 30th anniversary in telephone work today, and will receive a service emblem from the Indiana Bell Telephone Co. She is a company operator.

Miss Bockweg was first employed here as a student by the former Central Union Telephone Co., and has been a member of Telephone Pioneers of America since July, 1943. The organization is composed of men and women who have been in the telephone business at least 21 years.

Rebekah Unit to Meet

Fidelity Rebekah Lodge 227 will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday for lodge and drill practice. Mrs. Ruby Stucker is presiding officer and Mrs. Ethel Johnston is drill captain.

Local Psychiatrist Addresses Luncheon

Dr. Philip B. Reed of Norway Clinic, Indianapolis psychiatric hospital, was guest speaker at a luncheon today during the West Central Regional Meeting of the State Conference on Social Work in the Purdue University Union Bidg.

Dr. Reed's subject, "The Family Team," was designed to correlate discussions of speakers who preceded him.

They were Maurice Hunt of the State Welfare Department on "The Family Responsibility"; Dr. E. E. Franklin, district superintendent of Methodist churches on "Religion and Family Living" and F. L. McReynolds of Purdue University 4-H Club leaders, on "Recreation and Leisure Activities of the Family." Joseph A. Andrews, Lafayette attorney, was panel moderator.

Butler Groups Hold Spring Awards Feast

Members of the Butler University chapters of Alpha Delta Sigma and Gamma Alpha Chi, national advertising honoraries, will hold their annual spring awards banquet at 6:30 p. m. today in the Claypool Hotel.

Guest speaker will be George Maden, publicity director for Wm. H. Block Co. and vice president of the Indianapolis Advertising Club.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

8 Charges Against Laundry Dismissed

Eight counts against the Star Laundry and Dry Cleaners, Inc., 1251 Roosevelt Ave., charging violation of the City smoke ordinance of 1945, were dismissed by Judge Alex Clark in Municipal Court 4 today.

The City charged that illegal amounts of smoke were emitted by the laundry stack at various times between June 9, 1948, and Feb. 7 of this year.

Judge Clark dismissed the actions on recommendation of Milton Craig, City prosecutor, who said there is no saving clause in the new smoke ordinance permitting prosecution of old ordinance violations. Attorneys for the laundry added that improvements had been made to reduce the amount of smoke from the plant.

Store's Entire Supply Of Narcotics Taken

The entire narcotics supply of the Haag Drug Co. store at 120 E. 22d St., was missing today, stolen by persons who forced their way into the establishment during the night.

Norbert Franz, manager, said he discovered the thefts when he opened the store early today. The lock on the front door had been forced open.

Local Psychiatrist Addresses Luncheon

Dr. Philip B. Reed of Norway Clinic, Indianapolis psychiatric hospital, was guest speaker at a luncheon today during the West Central Regional Meeting of the State Conference on Social Work in the Purdue University Union Bidg.

Dr. Reed's subject, "The Family Team," was designed to correlate discussions of speakers who preceded him.

They were Maurice Hunt of the State Welfare Department on "The Family Responsibility"; Dr. E. E. Franklin, district superintendent of Methodist churches on "Religion and Family Living" and F. L. McReynolds of Purdue University 4-H Club leaders, on "Recreation and Leisure Activities of the Family." Joseph A. Andrews, Lafayette attorney, was panel moderator.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

8 Charges Against Laundry Dismissed

Eight counts against the Star Laundry and Dry Cleaners, Inc., 1251 Roosevelt Ave., charging violation of the City smoke ordinance of 1945, were dismissed by Judge Alex Clark in Municipal Court 4 today.

The City charged that illegal amounts of smoke were emitted by the laundry stack at various times between June 9, 1948, and Feb. 7 of this year.

Judge Clark dismissed the actions on recommendation of Milton Craig, City prosecutor, who said there is no saving clause in the new smoke ordinance permitting prosecution of old ordinance violations. Attorneys for the laundry added that improvements had been made to reduce the amount of smoke from the plant.

Store's Entire Supply Of Narcotics Taken

The entire narcotics supply of the Haag Drug Co. store at 120 E. 22d St., was missing today, stolen by persons who forced their way into the establishment during the night.

Norbert Franz, manager, said he discovered the thefts when he opened the store early today. The lock on the front door had been forced open.

Local Psychiatrist Addresses Luncheon

Dr. Philip B. Reed of Norway Clinic, Indianapolis psychiatric hospital, was guest speaker at a luncheon today during the West Central Regional Meeting of the State Conference on Social Work in the Purdue University Union Bidg.

Dr. Reed's subject, "The Family Team," was designed to correlate discussions of speakers who preceded him.

They were Maurice Hunt of the State Welfare Department on "The Family Responsibility"; Dr. E. E. Franklin, district superintendent of Methodist churches on "Religion and Family Living" and F. L. McReynolds of Purdue University 4-H Club leaders, on "Recreation and Leisure Activities of the Family." Joseph A. Andrews, Lafayette attorney, was panel moderator.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

8 Charges Against Laundry Dismissed

Eight counts against the Star Laundry and Dry Cleaners, Inc., 1251 Roosevelt Ave., charging violation of the City smoke ordinance of 1945, were dismissed by Judge Alex Clark in Municipal Court 4 today.

The City charged that illegal amounts of smoke were emitted by the laundry stack at various times between June 9, 1948, and Feb. 7 of this year.

Judge Clark dismissed the actions on recommendation of Milton Craig, City prosecutor, who said there is no saving clause in the new smoke ordinance permitting prosecution of old ordinance violations. Attorneys for the laundry added that improvements had been made to reduce the amount of smoke from the plant.

Store's Entire Supply Of Narcotics Taken

The entire narcotics supply of the Haag Drug Co. store at 120 E. 22d St., was missing today, stolen by persons who forced their way into the establishment during the night.

Norbert Franz, manager, said he discovered the thefts when he opened the store early today. The lock on the front door had been forced open.

Local Psychiatrist Addresses Luncheon

Dr. Philip B. Reed of Norway Clinic, Indianapolis psychiatric hospital, was guest speaker at a luncheon today during the West Central Regional Meeting of the State Conference on Social Work in the Purdue University Union Bidg.

Dr. Reed's subject, "The Family Team," was designed to correlate discussions of speakers who preceded him.

They were Maurice Hunt of the State Welfare Department on "The Family Responsibility"; Dr. E. E. Franklin, district superintendent of Methodist churches on "Religion and Family Living" and F. L. McReynolds of Purdue University 4-H Club leaders, on "Recreation and Leisure Activities of the Family." Joseph A. Andrews, Lafayette attorney, was panel moderator.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

8 Charges Against Laundry Dismissed

Eight counts against the Star Laundry and Dry Cleaners, Inc., 1251 Roosevelt Ave., charging violation of the City smoke ordinance of 1945, were dismissed by Judge Alex Clark in Municipal Court 4 today.

The City charged that illegal amounts of smoke were emitted by the laundry stack at various times between June 9, 1948, and Feb. 7 of this year.

Judge Clark dismissed the actions on recommendation of Milton Craig, City prosecutor, who said there is no saving clause in the new smoke ordinance permitting prosecution of old ordinance violations. Attorneys for the laundry added that improvements had been made to reduce the amount of smoke from the plant.

Store's Entire Supply Of Narcotics Taken

The entire narcotics supply of the Haag Drug Co. store at 120 E. 22d St., was missing today, stolen by persons who forced their way into the establishment during the night.

Norbert Franz, manager, said he discovered the thefts when he opened the store early today. The lock on the front door had been forced open.

Local Psychiatrist Addresses Luncheon

Dr. Philip B. Reed of Norway Clinic, Indianapolis psychiatric hospital, was guest speaker at a luncheon today during the West Central Regional Meeting of the State Conference on Social Work in the Purdue University Union Bidg.

Dr. Reed's subject, "The Family Team," was designed to correlate discussions of speakers who preceded him.

They were Maurice Hunt of the State Welfare Department on "The Family Responsibility"; Dr. E. E. Franklin, district superintendent of Methodist churches on "Religion and Family Living" and F. L. McReynolds of Purdue University 4-H Club leaders, on "Recreation and Leisure Activities of the Family." Joseph A. Andrews, Lafayette attorney, was panel moderator.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

8 Charges Against Laundry Dismissed

Eight counts against the Star Laundry and Dry Cleaners, Inc., 1251 Roosevelt Ave., charging violation of the City smoke ordinance of 1945, were dismissed by Judge Alex Clark in Municipal Court 4 today.

The City charged that illegal amounts of smoke were emitted by the laundry stack at various times between June 9, 1948, and Feb. 7 of this year.

Judge Clark dismissed the actions on recommendation of Milton Craig, City prosecutor, who said there is no saving clause in the new smoke ordinance permitting prosecution of old ordinance violations. Attorneys for the laundry added that improvements had been made to reduce the amount of smoke from the plant.

Store's Entire Supply Of Narcotics Taken

The entire narcotics supply of the Haag Drug Co. store at 120 E. 22d St., was missing today, stolen by persons who forced their way into the establishment during the night.

Norbert Franz, manager, said he discovered the thefts when he opened the store early today. The lock on the front door had been forced open.

Local Psychiatrist Addresses Luncheon

Dr. Philip B. Reed of Norway Clinic, Indianapolis psychiatric hospital, was guest speaker at a luncheon today during the West Central Regional Meeting of the State Conference on Social Work in the Purdue University Union Bidg.

Dr. Reed's subject, "The Family Team," was designed to correlate discussions of speakers who preceded him.

They were Maurice Hunt of the State Welfare Department on "The Family Responsibility"; Dr. E. E. Franklin, district superintendent of Methodist churches on "Religion and Family Living" and F. L. McReynolds of Purdue University 4-H Club leaders, on "Recreation and Leisure Activities of the Family." Joseph A. Andrews, Lafayette attorney, was panel moderator.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of service awards by Alpha Delta Sigma to the member who has done the most for the organization during the past year, and by Gamma Alpha Chi, to the outstanding woman senior in advertising.

Miss Patti Donnelly, and Lester Nagley Jr., president of the organizations, will officiate during the banquet.

8 Charges Against Laundry Dismissed

</