Jenner to Fire Another Salvo At ERP 'Flop'

Senator Cites UN Report as Proof of Failure

By DAN KIDNEY

WASHINGTON, May 7—Another salvo in his verbal barrage against U. S. foreign policy will be fired by Sen. William E. Jenner (R. Ind.) on the "Report to the People" program of radio station WMAQ, Chicago, at 10:15 p. m. (CDT) tomorrow.

Since his appearance on the television "Meet the Press" program here Wednesday night, Indiana's junior Senator has been provided with some new ammunition, he pointed out.

It is a report of a United Nations commission, composed of members from both sides of the Iron Curtain, which declares that the European Recovery Program is hurting Europe's economy more than it helps.

This conclusion is based on commission findings that the Economic Co-Operation Administration has fostered increased nationalism among the Marshall Plan countries, rather than aided economic integration of western Europe.

Everything Falls

Senator Jenner, who opposed ERP and its implementation through ECA, said that the United Nations report supports his contention that all administration aid plans have failed of their objective and provide no way to solve the problems except continued U. S. appropriations.

The United Nations Commission recommended that a long-term program of American capital investment, such as the British financed overseas in the 19th Century, be substituted for the continued gifts of billions under ECA.

Only one of such measures which Senator Jenner supported was the Greek-Turkish plan, which was the first step taken under the Truman Doctrine before the Marshall plan was set up.

The Hoosier salon now takes a dim view of that venture.

"We have been pouring billions into Greece, but the civil war is not ended," Senator Jenner said. "Dwight Griswold, who was over there trying to help, told me that they now estimate the number of guerrillas has been reduced from 25,000 to 22,000. That makes each guerrilla come at a price of many thousands of dollars. In my opinion we cannot afford to pay that much per guerrilla."

He "Filibustered"

Senator Jenner said he will take every opportunity to talk against the present bipartisan foreign policy. He did so at the Town Meeting program broadcast from Des Moines and recently at Purdue University. On May 16 he will address New Hampshire Republicans on the subject.

Citing his votes on the Senate housing and federal aid for education bills, both of which he supported, Senator Jenner said:

"So long as we are pouring billions down the rathole of European recovery, I feel we can use a few millions to help our own folks here at home."

One of Senator Jenner's questioners on the TV broadcast was Anthony Leviero of the New York Times. Asked for his reaction, Mr. Leviero said:

"The senator filibustered us."

300 High School Journalists Attend Butler Field Day

Outstanding Pupils Receive Awards For Excellence in Editorial Activity

Nearly 300 high school journalists attended the 16th annual Butler University Field Day held yesterday on the university campus.

During the full day's program, the delegates heard discussions on advertising, publicity, radio news and newspaper make-up. They were welcomed to the campus by Dr. DeForest O'Dell, head of the university journalism department, and George Leammon, editor of the Collegian, student daily newspaper. Annual contest winners were announced during the picnic luncheon which concluded the program.

E. C. Gorrell, editor and publisher of the Pulaski County Democrat, told the young journalists that "newspapers enter a contract with a subscriber to furnish the news, and when the paper fails to perform this duty it violates the contract."

Prof. Rosamond R. Jones, member of the university journalism faculty, presided at the advertising clinic, introducing speakers L. T. Sogard, vice president of Keeling & Co., and Miss Katherine Cleaver, advertising manager of Continental Optical Co. Mrs. Naomi A. Whitesell, faculty member, was general chairman of the field day program.

Richard T. Hill was faculty chairman of the radio clinic.

Speakers included Evan B. Walker, executive assistant to the president of Indianapolis Railways, Inc.; Charles Temple, of the Indianapolis Star; Philip C. Allen, of A. B. Dick Co., and Donald Bruce, WIRE.

U. S. Voice Breaks Red Airways Jam

British Also Crack Russ 'Iron Curtain'

NEW YORK, May 7 (UPI)—Britain and the United States broke through the Soviet jamming of the airwaves today in a full-scale technological "war" to capture the attention of Russian radio listeners.

The battle of words and static began when the State Department's "Voice of America," the British Broadcasting Corp. and the U. S. Armed Forces network in Europe threw all available equipment into action in an effort to carry the West's version of the Berlin blockade to the Russian public for the first time in two weeks.

The Western broadcasters took the occasion of National Radio Day in Russia to start the offensive of the ether. The "voice" and BBC beamed 61 short-wave transmitters, all on different channels, at Russia.

Russ Retailate

The Soviets, who had been jamming Western programs with 60 stations since April 24, retaliated by putting at least 100 jamming transmitters to work, a "Voice of America" official said.

The official said a report from Britain monitors indicated that possibly a far greater number of Russian transmitters were jamming.

Despite Russian counter-measures, the official said, the "voice" apparently got through on six channels and BBC on five. At Frankfurt, Germany, Army officials said the powerful Armed Forces network definitely broke through the barrage to tell Russian listeners that the lifting of the Berlin blockade marked a setback for the Soviet Union.

Russ Assail 'Voice' As 'Amusing, Pathetic'

MOSCOW, May 7 (UPI)—Russia celebrated national radio day today. Broadcasting stations and newspapers throughout the country acclaimed Soviet achievements in radio and blasted "The Voice of America" as "amusing, pathetic" and "barbaric."

The occasion marked what the Russians claim is the 54th anniversary of the demonstration of the world's first radio received by Soviet Physicist Alexander Popov.

All newspapers carried lengthy articles and editorials which claimed that Soviet radio superiority is being maintained because Russia has the world's most powerful and most truthful broadcasting stations equipped with the world's best, Soviet-made inventions.

Authorities were mystified over the presence of so large a sum of money in Mrs. Willys' unoccupied 14-room mansion.

Strack helped himself to the bonanza, much of which was in $500 bills. Without counting it, he wrapped it in a towel, throwing in 40 cents of his own. He helped himself also to a diamond ring and two diamond clips which Mrs. Willys had left behind.

The officers returned his 40 cents to him and then put Mrs. Willys' nest egg in the station-house safe.

Blame Poor Diets In Deaths of 29

Epidemic Ruled Out At Ft. Wayne Home

A thorough inspection of the Allen County Home where 29 persons have died in the past 34 days disclosed no evidence of epidemic or unsanitary conditions, it was reported last night at Ft. Wayne.

"It's a case of malnutrition because of low budgets combined with unskilled help," declared Dr. Noah Zehr, county-appointed doctor for the home, after the inspection by state health officials.

"It is nobody's fault in particular—it is just the result of the traditional manner in which all of our institutions are operated. Conditions in the Allen County Home are no different than in other county home in the state," Dr. Zehr said.

People Forget What happened in Ft. Wayne," he added, "should awaken our legislators to the realization that the whole system of our institutions need correction—the operation should be placed in professional hands."

"But in a week or two people will forget..."

Earlier in the day, frank, outspoken Dr. Zehr, who is 66, deplored the political methods of picking employees for institutions. People get key jobs because of their qualifications, he said.

Enlow Dissler, superintendent of the home, has held the post four months. He was a farmer.

A Democrat, he was appointed by county commissioners when the Democrats took over county offices from the Republicans.

The Republican incumbent, an ex-deputy sheriff who had two years more in the superintendent's office, resigned as a gesture of "courtesy" when the Democrats won the November election.

The Allen County poorhouse is a modern building and was constructed about 12 years ago.

"The patients were just nutritionally starved," said Dr. Zehr.

All of the persons who died in the past 34 days were 65 years of age or older. Many of them were ill when admitted to the home.

A complete investigation of the circumstances of the deaths will be made in the Allen County Grand Jury May 23.
