Muncie Slaying Suspect Gives Up

Times State Service

MUNCIE, Sept. 2.—James Thompson, 32, of Muncie, who had been sought in connection with the fatal shooting here last night of James Williams, 32, gave himself up at police headquarters early today.

Williams was killed by a shotgun blast at a residence occupied by his estranged wife, Beatrice, 22, and their two children. Officers were told the shooting occurred after the couple engaged in an altercation and Mrs. Williams, pursued by her husband, ran into Williams' apartment, in the same building.

Police said Thompson admitted he fired the fatal shot after struggling with Williams over a shotgun.

Harry Slattery Dies, Former REA Head

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (UP)

Funeral services will be held Monday in Greenville, S. C., for Harry Slattery, former head of the Rural Electrification Administration and a key figure in uncovering the "Teapot Dome" scandal.

Mr. Slattery, 62, died here yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was stricken Monday with what appeared to be a stomach disorder, his physician said, and he suffered a stroke that afternoon.

A native of Greenville, Mr. Slattery first entered government service with the Inland Watersway Commission. He joined the Interior Department in 1918 as special assistant to then Secretary Franklin K. Lane. Twenty years later, he became Undersecretary of Interior.

Spurn Pay Boost

RED WING, Minn., Sept. 2 (UP)

AFL employees of the Red Wing Public Works announced today that they don't want a pay raise. "Most of us are taxpayers," they said. "This is our contribution to fight higher taxes."
