

Demand Jail or Else
And So They Get Jail

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 7 (UP)—Two men who demanded to be sent to jail got their wish today. Witter D. Hahn, 38, angrily insisted on a jail term after Judge Oliver Youngs refused to release him from probation for another offense so he could go deer hunting. Judge Youngs obliged with a 30-day sentence.

Sidney K. Ray, 48, charged with drunkenness, asked for and got a 30-day term to sober him up.

Nursing Association Sets Conference

The American Association of Nursing Homes will be organized at a conference in Toledo, O., Sept. 15 and 16, as the result of plans conceived in Indianapolis last January.

The Indiana Association of Licensed Nursing Homes, composed of those operating homes for the care of older people, has a membership of more than 200. They have been in contact with nursing homes in other sections of the nation and the idea of a national group was discussed.

Mrs. Mary R. Frame of Indianapolis is general chairman of the group scheduled to assemble in Toledo to organize the American Association of Nursing Homes.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UP)—Last year's disastrous floods in the Northwest caused damage totaling $25,807,338 to Washington, Oregon and Idaho agriculture, final figures show.

Warn Canada Widows
Of Picture-Selling Racket

TORONTO, Ontario (UP)—The old picture selling racket is back again.

Police warned widows to beware of a slick salesman who offers to do enlarged photographs of their late husbands for $4, but when the package arrives COD, it comes in a frame—total cost, $18. "You can usually buy such a frame for a quarter," police said.

Rat Poison Tempts
Toddler's Palate

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—For 2-year-old Charles Matthews, rat poison is strictly a plate of hors d'oeuvres. His mother distributed several portions of it around the house but the rats never got a smell of it. Backtracking her steps, Mrs. Matthews found young Charlie was one jump behind her, gobbling it up. The boy was pumped out at an emergency hospital and sent home sadder and wiser.
