Purse Snatchers Get $43 in Cash

Rob Women Motorists At Traffic Light

A double purse snatching in which $43 was stolen and a reckless shooting escapade in which pot shots were taken at a bakery truck driver were attributed by police today to Indianapolis 'teen-age boys.

Mrs. Florence Coyle, of 115 E. 22d St., and Mrs. Alberta Spiegel, of 252 Berkeley Rd., told police two youths, about 14, grabbed their purses when they stopped their car for a red light last night at Illinois and 24th Sts.

When the women looked in the other direction the boys suddenly appeared on each side of their car and grabbed purses from their laps. Mrs. Coyle said she lost $1 in change and valuable papers. Mrs. Spiegel said she had $42 in currency, cosmetics and a driver's license in her purse.

Reports Second Incident Jack Cook, 19-year-old driver for the Bond Baking Co., 318 W. Vermont St., reported to police that a group of boys had been taking pot shots at him with a rifle while he loaded his truck.

Mr. Cook, who resides at 1222 Congress St., said last night's shooting was the second time bullets had whizzed dangerously near as he loaded the truck. Police were investigating both cases.

1st Post-War Price Cut In Bourbon Announced

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (UP)—Potatoes and tomatoes may not be any cheaper this fall but bonded bourbon whiskey will be. The Glenmore Distilleries announced today a reduction of about $1 a bottle for its premium bonded bourbon, the first such price cut since the war. The price cut, from about $7 to $6, will be effective in some states on Oct. 1, the company said.

Woman Driver Socked On Jaw by Cabbie

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 8 (UP)—An unidentified woman driver, who parked her car in front of a taxi on a downtown street, was slow to move. The cabbie hopped out, hit her on the jaw, climbed back into his cab and drove off.
