Alemite, son of Volomite and Alema Guy, yesterday set a new track record for the Indiana State Fair, when he paced the mile in 1:58 4/5 to win the $5000 14-Class Pace, Big Five Stake. He took his first heat in 1:59 3/5, the first mile under 2 minutes run at the Fairgrounds track this week. The time for the mile was also a new record for Alemite, who's previous mark was 1:59.

It's a Big One-derful World Famous Pacer To Be Retired

Hal and Russ Both Just Miss No-Hitters; Cards and Dodgers Keep Up Torrid Paces

By STAN OPOWOSKY, United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—It was a great, big, one-derful world for Hal Newhouse and Russ Meyer today.

Not wonderful as when you pitch a no-hitter, to be sure. Just one-derful as when you pitch a one-hitter. The Detroit Tiger lefty, Newhouse, and the Philadelphia Phillies' lanky, Meyer, pulled the unique stunt of coupling their near-perfect games within the period of a few hours.

And, oddly enough, today is the anniversary of the last no-hitter in major league baseball. Rex Barney hurled one, against the Giants at the Polo Grounds Sept. 9, 1948.

Newhouse did a little second guessing of his own performance and insisted that he could have had a no-hitter himself yesterday had he been fielding his position correctly when Lou Boudreau sent a 3-and-1 pitch bounding through the infield into center field in the seventh inning for the only hit of the ball game.

Not Mournful Much
"But I don't feel too bad about missing a no-hit game," Hal added. "The important thing is that we won."

Win the Tigers did, with a vengeance. They blasted 12 hits of their own for a 10-to-0 victory and they came back for the night-time half of the doubleheader to clip the Indians again, 4 to 1, on Ted Gray's fourth.

Races Unchanged
It was the second major league one-hitter for each. Newhouse did the job in 1945 when Vern Stephens, then with the St. Louis Browns, got a single off him in an otherwise hitless performance.

Indians Win, Cling To Race for Pennant

Full House Likely Tonight as Tribe Stays in Fight; Jittery Saints Lose

By EDDIE ASH, Times Sports Editor
Big things are on tap at Victory Field tonight. With the Indians still fighting to keep their pennant hopes alive as time grows short, the series finale with the Louisville Colonels is expected to attract a full house.

It will be the last ladies' night of the season and several player presentations are to be made. By scoring another shutout last night, 2 to 0, at the jittery league-leading St. Paul Saints again bowed to the Blues in Kansas City, the Hoosier Redskins pulled within two and one-half games of first place with only four games to go. St. Paul also has four to go.

Nanny Fernandez, Tribe third sacker, is to receive his awards tonight for winning the "most valuable" player citation for 1949 in the American Association.

Special for Fleming Savings Bond from the league and a fat check from Tribe President Owen J. Bush, Les Fleming, Tribe first sacker, also will receive a check from Prexy Bush. Fleming won the "most valuable" award and gifts last year, but Bush and other Indianapolis club officials decided to reward him again to pair up with Fernandez.

The Indianapolis club is very proud of the fact that the league's "most valuable" honor came to the Indians in consecutive seasons.

Also on the agenda tonight will be the presentation of souvenirs to the four Tribe players who were selected on the American Association's 1949 mythical All-Star team. Fernandez, Mel Queen, Earl Turner, and Les Fleming will also be ringed by Manager Al Lopez, manager of the "mythicals."

Since Walsh is with the parent Pittsburgh Pirates, Lopez will pick up the pitcher's ring and mail it to him. Jim won 15 games for the Indians before the Pirates snatched him. He had four defeats.

Queen Spins Two-Hitter
The veteran Mel Queen was the toast of Victory Field fans today. He spun a two-hitter last night before a crowd of 8268. He was his 21st victory and sixth shutout of the year, the second at Louisville. He has nine defeats.

It also was his 23d complete game. The right hander rolled up nine strikeouts for a season's total of 171. It was Mel's last appearance before the American Association's post-season playoffs unless the Indians still are in the pennant running on the last day, Sunday.

If mound help is needed on the Sabbath, the ace has volunteered to work with only two days' rest. In the third skirmish with the Kentucky Colonels tonight, Elmer Riddle probably will receive the call to the Tribe mound. If his arm feels all right, otherwise, Royce Litt will be sent against the Derbytown pastimers.

First Hit in Fourth
Queen retired the first 11 Colonels in order last night before he issued a walk to Mel Hoderlein after two away in the fourth. Tom Wright, the league's leading hitter, then singled for Louisville's first hit and Hoderlein raced to third. But Ken Chapman forced Wright for the third out.

Queen also erased the Colonels in order in the fifth, sixth and seventh. He struck out one in the first, two in the second, one in the fourth, two in the fifth and one in the sixth.

Louisville was retired on three fly balls in the seventh. In the eighth, Jim Piersall led off with a single for the Colonels' second hit. Queen fanned Chuck Harrington but walked Bob Scherbarth.

Johnny Barrett, a left-handed swinger, batted for Pitcher Jack Griffore and was retired on a fly to Dom Dallesandro in center.

Jack Cassini cut off Jack Douglas' bid for a hit by making a fine stop-back-of-second. He tossed to Russ Peters to force Scherbarth to end the threat.

Queen retired the side in order again in the ninth and fanned Wright for the second time during the game for the last out.

The Indians won on six hits. Jerry Scala belted a homer over the right field wall as first up in the second inning. He scored again in the fourth. Jerry led off again and bounced a double off the right field wall. A single by Peters put Scala on third, whence he tallied after the catch on Clyde Klutts' line drive to Piersall in right center.

Piersall made a running catch and his throw to Douglas at first doubled up Peters before the Tribe shortstopper could scramble back to base.

Along with Scala, Les Fleming also got two blows, both singles, and also drew a walk. Scala

Mel Hansen Critically Hurt

Midget Race Car Rolls End Over End

DETROIT, Sept. 9 (UP)—Mel Hansen, veteran Indianapolis Speedway racer, was in "critical" condition today with back injuries suffered in a crash at Motor City Speedway.

Hospital authorities said that they would determine with X-rays whether Hansen's back was broken when he cracked into a retaining wall at the midget car track.

The car went out of control when Hansen was in ninth place in an Australian pursuit race.

"The race car hit the wall and tumbled and over end before settling on its side."

Hansen had been scheduled to return to big car racing Sunday in a 100-mile grind at the Michigan State fair here. He is a veteran of seven Speedway races and ranked as one of the leading midget drivers in the country.

Gavilan-Castellani Tilt Opens Garden

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 (UP)—Under the new regime of James D. Norris and his International Boxing Club, Madison Square Garden opens its fall-winter fight season tonight with a 10-round bout between Kid Gavilan and Rocky Castellani.

Gavilan, Cuban welterweight contender, was favored at 14-5 to beat the aggressive young middleweight from Luzerne, Pa., despite the latter's expected advantage of about five pounds.

Brown-skinned Gavilan will be making his first start since July when he lost the decision to Sugar Ray Robinson in their welterweight title fight at Philadelphia.

Phillies to Recall 2

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9 (UP)—The Philadelphia Phillies announced today that outfielder Johnny Blatnik and pitcher Jocko Thompson would be recalled from Toronto as soon as the farm club's season ends.

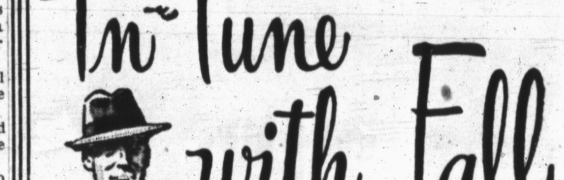

Blatnik, with the Phils last season, is batting .306 for the International League team. Thompson, a southpaw, won 14 and lost 3 through the season.

WHY DO SO MANY BEER DRINKERS SWITCH TO OLD CROWN ALE?
BECAUSE IT HAS NO SMOKY FLAVOR

... IT'S Especially BREWED FOR BEER DRINKERS!

There just seems to be no end to the demand for "lazy-aged" Old Crown ale. Much of that demand comes from beer drinkers who order Old Crown ale for a pleasant change. That's a big reason why it's so tremendously popular everywhere.
