Return to Air

Amos 'n' Andy return to the air tonight at 8:30 p. m. over WFBM-CBS to begin their 23d year of broadcasting. All of the upper Lenox Ave. set will be on hand for the opening program when the Kingfish summons them to the lodge hall of the Mystic Knights of the Sea.

Amos 'n' Andy Play All 160 Parts in Radio Show

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—In their first decade on the air, Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, known to most people as Amos 'n' Andy, played all the parts. It is estimated that during that period they appeared as more than 160 different characters.

Judge Minton to Go Before Senate Critic

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (UP)—The Supreme Court goes back to work Monday, its old alignments broken up by the death during vacation of two liberal members. One new member, former Attorney General Tom C. Clark, is expected to be sworn in. As successor to the late Justice Frank Murphy, he will file into court with seven other justices at noon for the opening formalities.

TV Firm Opens

TV Specialists, Inc., television sales and service store, recently was opened at 649 Fairfield Ave. Brunson Motley is firm president and Donald Christenson is engineering manager.

On the Air Today

INVITATION TO LEARNING—Whitney J. Oats, professor of classics at Princeton, will join Quincy Howe, CBS news analyst, and Mark Van Doren in a discussion of Homer's "Odyssey." . . . WFBM, 11 a. m.

SALUTE THE SHOW—Rise Stevens and Dennis Morgan will sing the favorites from Franz Lehar's operetta "The Merry Widow." . . . WXLW, 11:30 a. m.

CHORALERS—Lehar's "Yours Is My Heart Alone" and "Cloths of Heaven" by Dunhill, are the solos to be offered by tenor Nino Sautera. Eugene Lowell directs the chorus in "Sweethearts of Sigma Chi." "Girl of My Dreams" and the "Soldiers Chorus" from "Faust." . . . WFBM, 1 p. m.

BASEBALL—The Yankees play the Boston Red Sox in the last regularly scheduled game of the season in the American League. . . . WXLW, 1:15 p. m.

COLUMBIA SYMPHONY—The orchestra, under the direction of Bernard Herrmann, will present the first radio performance of Vladimir Dukelsky's "Ode to the Milky Way." Other selections on the program include "Im Walde" by Joachim Raff, Faure's "Pavane" and the "Venus and Adonis" suite by John Blow. . . . WFBM, 2 p. m.

Victor Borge on IU Program for Oct. 19

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 1.—Victor Borge, radio pianist and comedian, will appear in the Indiana University auditorium Wednesday, Oct. 19, at 8:15 p. m. Borge's appearance at Indiana University will be the first of a series of attractions sponsored by the Indiana Union.

Since his guest appearance with Bing Crosby on the radio in 1941, Borge has steadily risen in fame as a radio and night club entertainer.

Palestine Group to Hear Mrs. Goodman—Mrs. Jack Goodman of Indianapolis, who recently returned from a trip to Israel, will address the luncheon meeting of the American Christian Palestine Committee Wednesday noon in the Columbia Club.

Reservations should be telephoned to HL 7568. Dr. Sumner L. Martin is committee chairman.

SYMPHONETTE—Two Tschakovsky pieces, the adagio from the "Sleeping Beauty" ballet and "None But the Lonely Heart," will be the featured works of the broadcast. . . . WFBM, 4:30 p. m.

HARVEST OF STARS—Genevieve Rowe, soprano, will be the guest soloist with James Melton and Frank Black's orchestra. She will sing Rossini's "La Danza" and, in duet with Melton, "I Follow My Secret Heart." . . . WIRE-WLW, 4:30 p. m.

GREATEST STORY—"The Second Great Commandment," dramatization of the Biblical theme "Thou Shalt Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself," will be presented. . . . WISH, 4:30 p. m.

FAMILY HOUR OF STARS—Irene Dunne will recreate her original role in the 1939 film "Love Affair." . . . WFBM, 5 p. m.

CHARLIE MCCARTHY—After more than nine months off the air, Edgar Bergen returns with his two wooden-heads, Charlie and Mortimer Snerd. Dinah Shore will be the first guest. . . . WFBM, 7 p. m.

THEATER GUILD ON THE AIR—James Cagney will star as a criminal lawyer faced with disbarment at the height of his career in "Counselor-at-Law." . . . WIRE-WLW, 7:30 p. m.
