

Coeds Frown On Schools For Girls

Believe Boys in Class Are Necessary

By JEAN MANEY

GOING TO an all girls' school may be tops with the teeners interviewed last week, but the three sub debbs and lone squire who voice their opinions this week are sure that coeducational classes are here to stay.

They disagree violently with the gals who stated that boys are unnecessary in the classroom. Lucille England, a junior in Manual High School, is convinced that a coeducational school is "lots better" than a school for girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert England, 1633 S. State Ave.

"I wouldn't like to go to a girls' school. I think that it's necessary to get used to being with boys all the time. After all when we get out into the business world we'll work with men and we should be able to be poised and at ease," Lucille says. She thinks that being in classes with squire keeps a sub deb well groomed and that it helps the boys develop better manners.

A member of the Booster business staff, Lucille is a member of the Student Assembly, PEP Club and Masoma. She wants to be a grade school teacher and plans to study at Concordia College.

A SOPHOMORE in Manual, Alice Buescher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buescher, 503 E. Southern Ave.

Alice is sure that she's happier enrolled in Manual than she would be in any other school. "Maybe the boys do distract you in class sometimes—especially if he's cute and you're dating him—but I think that it's good for us to get used to being with men in all situations. We become used to the situations we'll face in life outside of school," Alice states.

She's another member of the Booster's business staff and she sings in the choir and belongs to the PEP Club. Alice hopes to study engineering in the University of Illinois after graduation.

THE MALE viewpoint is expressed by Harold Laut Jr. He's a senior in Manual and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laut, 2656 Napoleon St.

"I like going to a coeducational school. I agree with the girls that we have more fun and it's more normal to be with boys and girls—more like real life after high school. Of course, the gals can be distracting sometimes, but I don't think they ever cause us to fail. In fact I think having girls in class brings a certain element of competition into your work," Harold says.

He's a member of the Booster sports staff, ROTC, PEP Club and Roines. Harold wants to study engineering in Purdue next fall.

"GOING TO a girls' school wouldn't be too bad, but I'm glad I'm enrolled in a school with both boys and girls," Betty Hawkins says. She's a senior in Manual and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ancil C. Hawkins, 17 E. Orange St.

Betty is sure that girls at Manual learn poise around boys that girls in an all-female atmosphere just can't acquire. She also believes that co-eds are better groomed—"we have to look as sharp as we can if our 'one and only' is around all the time," she states. Betty does admit, however, that boys can be distracting, but she thinks even that isn't too much of a drawback.

Betty is an editor of the Booster and a charter member of Manual Sports Appreciation Club. She also belongs to the PEP Club and the Student Assembly and hopes to study to be a high school teacher at Butler after graduation.

The Teen of the Week—

SKIP BOOHER is The Times' Teen of the Week. He's a senior in Manual High School and president of the Student Affairs Board, Manual's student governing unit.

Acting president of Roines, honorary for seniors, Skip is also photo editor of the yearbook, the "Ivian." He was student manager of last year's basketball team and is interested in baseball.

Skip plans to attend Butler University. He's interested in construction work. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Booher, 1608 Comer Ave.

Each Sunday The Times will announce the Teen of the Week. Fill out the coupon below and send it to Jean Maney, The Indianapolis Times, Indianapolis 9, for your nomination for the Teen of the Week before midnight Tuesday.

I nominate _____ (Name)
_____ of _____ (School)
_____ (and City)

for Teen of the Week. My reasons for the selection are given on a separate sheet of paper attached to this coupon.

My name _____ Address _____

Teen Problems—

Social 'Know How' Helps

By JEAN

SAVOIR-FAIRE is a gift—and a mighty useful one! The teeners with social know-how avoids those What'll-I-Do blues. But, fake poise and pseudo-sophistication are pitiful. And the antics of these fakers make folks see red.

Consider the over-confident guest. To show off his supposed poise, he takes the initiative in his host's home. He talks loud and long on every conceivable subject. He commandeers the man's car for personal errands. He borrows his golf clubs, his raincoat and fishing waders. Maybe he raids the refrigerator without a by-your-leave. Or demands special foods and drinks. Or makes dates without consulting his hostess, insisting on plans and places taboo by the family.

AND THIS character thinks he's being very suave and sophisticated. Actually, he's guilty of the worst sort of bad manners and boorishness.

Yes, it's always bad form to hijack a host's belongings. And

Irvington Club Sets President's Day

Mrs. R. B. Long, 222 S. Ritter Ave., will be hostess for the President's Day luncheon of the Irvington Woman's Club. It will be at 1 p. m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Albert Holman will talk on "Shadow Habits." The committee in charge includes Mesdames Walter H. Montgomery, Louis W. Bruck and Jane H. Gable and Miss Ann Hall.

Howe High Clubs Form New Group

Organizations Unite Under One Name

The Alpha Kappas and the Chi Rho Omegas of Howe High School have united their clubs. The new name is the Alpha Kappa Chi Club.

The officers are Dick deLanglade, president; Keith Newman, vice president; Bill Fox, secretary; Grant McBroom, treasurer, and Jim Billingsly, sergeant-at-arms.

There will be a rush tea at 2 p. m. today given by the members of the Ofa-Afo Club. Katie Thompson is to be the hostess.

The rushers will be Toni Klien, Marty Hill, Rosemary Lakmar, Mary Jane Crider, Nancy Glass, Jody McCahe and Barbara Smithson.

Golden Girl Candidate

Nancy Johns, senior sponsor of the DREAMS Club, is a candidate for Golden Girl at Howe. The members are planning a hayride for Oct. 14 in the Grandview Riding Academy.

There was a joint meeting recently with the TORQUES Club at Marilyn Fuller's home. New officers have also been elected. They are Janet Linzie, president; Nancy Costin, vice president; Norma Doak, treasurer, and Marilyn Fuller, sergeant-at-arms.

Actually, effective card-reading is not often subject to such hazards.

Blackwood on Bridge—

'Reading' Hand Is Dangerous But Effective

READING YOUR opponents' hands is not an exact science. And by "reading" I do not mean peeking, but rather the attempt to determine the placement of outstanding high cards and the distribution of the enemy's hands through logical inferences furnished by the bidding and the play.

Usually when an opponent leads

South dealer

East-West vulnerable

NORTH

S—J 10 7 5

D—Q 7 5

C—A 8 7 5 4

WEST EAST

S—K 5 2 S—A 10 4

H—Q 9 3 2 H—8 6 4

D—9 2 D—J 8 4 3

C—K Q J 10 C—9 6 3

SOUTH

S—Q 8 7 6 3

H—A K

D—A K 10 6

C—2

The bidding:

SOUTH WEST NORTH EAST

1 S Pass 1 N T Pass

2 S Pass 2 N T Pass

4 S All Pass

East now played his last club, the nine, and South ruffed again.

Another trump lead followed and East was in with the ace. The defenders had won three tricks and needed only one more to defeat the contract.

East made his best return, the eight of hearts. South won with the ace and noted that West played the nine. He laid down the king of hearts and watched West play the deuce and East the six.

Then he played his last trump. West discarded the trey of hearts and East the four of hearts.

Played High-Low

South had now compiled all the information he could get. It was practically certain that West had started with four clubs. It was absolutely certain he had started with three spades. And West had played high-low on the hearts, indicating possession of the queen.

He also had discarded a low heart on the last trump lead, so he must have had four hearts in all. On this reasoning West could not have more than two diamonds.

Accordingly South cashed the ace of diamonds, led a low diamond to the queen and returned another diamond, finessing his 10 spot. When this won, as expected, the contract was home.

Send questions on bridge to Mr. Blackwood, The Indianapolis Times, Indianapolis 9.

Wins With King

West opened the king of clubs and dummy's ace won. The jack of spades was led. East ducked and West won with the king. He came out with the 10 of clubs and South ruffed. Hoping for an even division of the spade suit, South led another trump which East won with the 10.

East now played his last club, the nine, and South ruffed again.

Another trump lead followed and East was in with the ace. The defenders had won three tricks and needed only one more to defeat the contract.

East made his best return, the eight of hearts. South won with the ace and noted that West played the nine. He laid down the king of hearts and watched West play the deuce and East the six.

Then he played his last trump. West discarded the trey of hearts and East the four of hearts.

Played High-Low

South had now compiled all the information he could get. It was practically certain that West had started with four clubs. It was absolutely certain he had started with three spades. And West had played high-low on the hearts, indicating possession of the queen.

He also had discarded a low heart on the last trump lead, so he must have had four hearts in all. On this reasoning West could not have more than two diamonds.

Accordingly South cashed the ace of diamonds, led a low diamond to the queen and returned another diamond, finessing his 10 spot. When this won, as expected, the contract was home.

Send questions on bridge to Mr. Blackwood, The Indianapolis Times, Indianapolis 9.

Mrs. M. O. Ross Is Hostess

Mrs. M. O. Ross, 250 W. Hampton Drive, will be hostess for the "get acquainted" tea of the Butler University Newcomer's Club.

It will be at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Club officers will assist.

Officers and committee chairmen are Mrs. John Best, president; Miss Jane Urhan, vice president; Mrs. Peter Shiland, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. Hart, social, and Mrs. P. W. Nicely, publicity.

Hairdressers Set Sessions In Hotel

Convention to Be Held Here

The Indiana Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association will hold its 12th annual convention Oct. 30, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 in the Hotel Lincoln. Guest artist will be Charles Budas of Oak Park, Ill.

Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Terre Haute, association president, has named Mrs. Ethel Brenton, general chairman, and Mrs. Ruth M. Oesterle, co-chairman. Mrs. Mildred Rotlier is convention secretary and Mrs. Mary Koerner, Marion, treasurer.

Other committee appointments are: Hair styling contest—Mrs. Mabel Thoms, chairman, Elmer Schwelzler, Crawfordsville, and Mrs. Gwendolyn Small, Kokomo; style show—Mrs. Murt Craig, chairman, Mrs. Louise Reece, Terre Haute; physical properties—Viron Moore, advertising—Mrs. Beattie Shelburne, program—Mrs. Oesterle and Miss Pauline Durnell, Marion.

Spotting Sox a four-hammered fore a howl in the crisis Stadium as Lindell's w lower left

Two wen and the l long since big Californ one of Jo into the stu sent the pe to tomorrow these two

It seems Red Sox arrive. Th the last tw finished in and blew American they came only this go to the mas

Ho The Bos three inni that four Allie Rey Cherokee in only two For Mel l lefty from baseball's year with down those ent ease

But the confidence lief pitchin who was t in six ar They foug a tie whic Big John' eighth.

The Red the first it on two hit Dom DM bopper in forced by Williams s off Tomm when Rey Pesky went to second.

Pesky the game deep to li liams wen wild pitch out to end the Sox

The co three mor five wall Reynolds With one and Steph the bases single to and Page

(Continue)

Bas N

Brooklyn St. Louis Philadelphia Boston New York Pittsburgh Cincinnati Chicago

Al

Boston New York Cleveland Detroit Philadelphia Chicago St. Louis Washington

Sirko

68

Em B. Rehn giving t

BANNER WHITEHILL

31 S. Meridian—Daily Store Hours, 5:30 to 5

These Are Unusual Values

DESKS

Choice of Lime Oak Veneers, Bleached Mahogany Veneers, or Walnut Veneers.

79⁰⁰

Low Terms

Handsome, modern, beautifully finished on all four sides—may be placed anywhere in a room! Good construction, highlighted with brass drawer pulls. Large writing surface, 44x21 inches.

—3rd floor

★ Special Group of 9x12 ft.

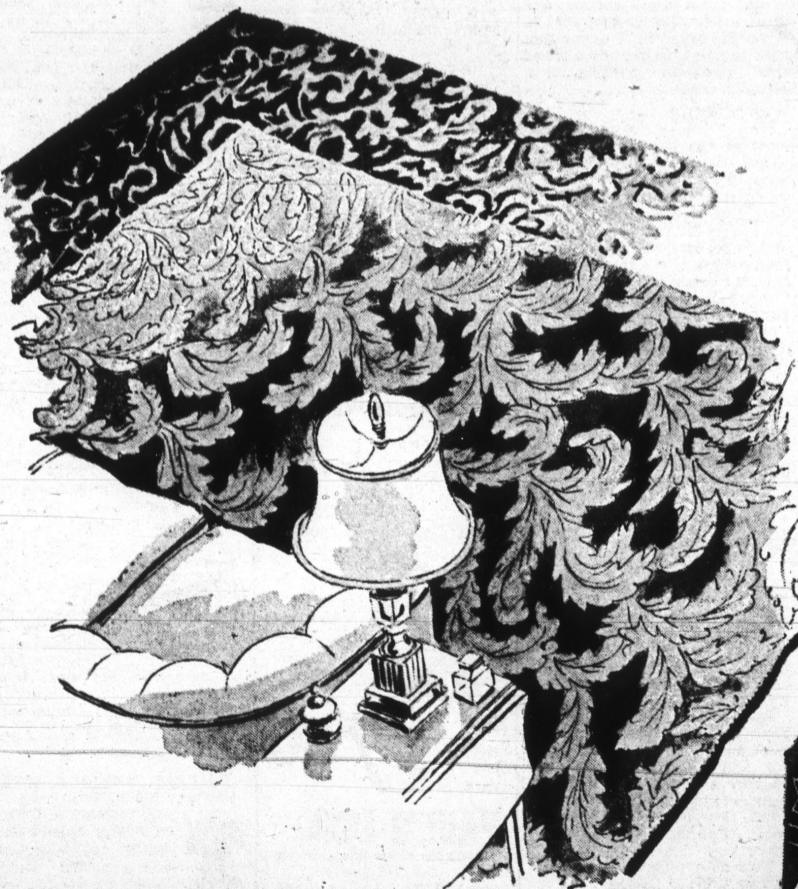

RUGS

All Wool Face Axminsters —many new patterns! 59⁰⁰

Low Terms

Smart, colorful, all-over patterns in a wide selection of colors... all are exceptional values, all specially grouped. Suitable for living room, dining room, bedroom.

—2nd floor

Duo Therm Oil

HEATERS

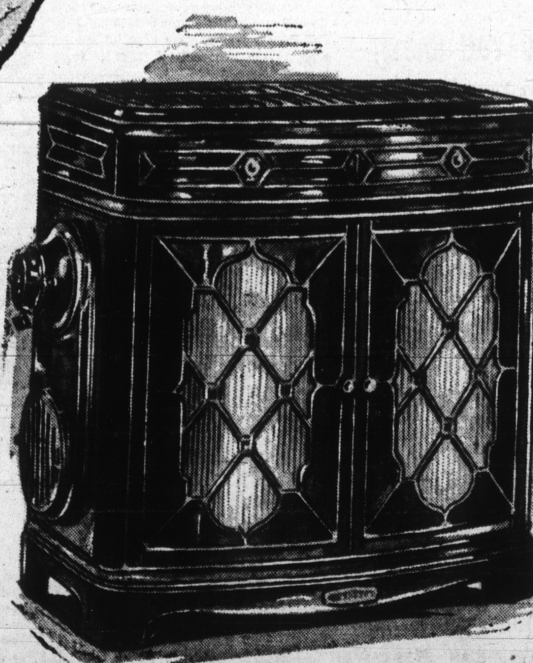

Bring Radiant Winter-Long Comfort To Your Home Without Work, Dirt—Just Turn a Dial!

Attractive brown porcelain enamel finish; equipped with the two great fuel savers—the Power Air Blower, Dual Chamber Burner. Consult our sales personnel as to the model suitable for your home!

Mode 954, complete with tank and blower. 159⁹⁵

Low Terms

7th floor

If It's New!
If It's in Style!
If It's Smart!
You'll find it

$895

$895

Gillman SHOES

27 Monument Circle, LI. 8124

Mail Orders and Phone Orders Given Prompt Attention

Store Open Until 5:25

Matching Bag As Illustrated, For Only $10.00, Plus Tax

Brown Suede Black Suede with Tooled Leather Trim

Black Suede Brown Suede with Tooled Leather Trim