

2 Boys and 2 Girls Take Top Honors In The Times Puppy Contest

4 Valuable Canines To Be Awarded

By ART WRIGHT
Winners in The Times Puppy Contest were:

FIRST PRIZE—For girls, Sue Bogan, 12, of Centerville; for boys, Edward Gravens, 12, of 536 N. Gray St.

SECOND PRIZE—For girls, Barbara Jean Tungate, 11, of 3701 E. 34th St.; for boys, Billy Faucett, 818 Tecumseh Pl.

First prize winners will be king and queen of the 34th annual All-Breed Dog Show presented by the Hoosier Kennel Club today in the Manufacturers Building at the State Fairgrounds. Each will receive a $100 pedigree puppy at 7 p. m.

Second prize winners of $50 puppies were guests of The Times yesterday at the Fourth Annual Specialty Dog Show presented at the Associated Specialty Clubs of Indianapolis.

CONTESTANTS were required to identify a dog breed from a picture published each day last week in The Times. They also were required to write some background about the breed and submit a statement about their favorite breed. The pictures are reproduced again today with the proper identification of each breed.

The winners identified all breed correctly. Because of other excellent entries, the judges designated the following as honorable mention:

Larry Lokamp, Batesville; Jackie Camden, R. R. 3, Box 523, Indianapolis; Jerry Eversole, 409 N. Beville Ave.; Mary Martha Curd, 564 West Drive, Woodruff Pl.; Raymond Manford, 3019 Euclid Ave.; Judi Barney, 3058 Fall Creek Blvd.; Susie Grant, 8204 Westfield Rd.; Malcolm Biggs Jr., 628 Marion Ave.; Joanne Archer, 5801 E. 17th St.; Clifford Oiler, no address given; Barbara Dailey, 3426 Salem St.; Barbara Ann Hess, 3901 N. Police Clean Out Stolen Property

LISTEN to the chanting of the kitchen sink, it has no home—what am I offered?

"Ladies and gentlemen, it is a bargain at $24. It will be a giveaway at $15... who'll give me two bucks for this fine bicycle?"

While an estimated 400 persons crowded the street at the south side of police headquarters yesterday afternoon, Jim Vaughn, auctioneer, sold the summer's accumulation of unclaimed stolen goods in Indianapolis.

More than 40 bicycles—some good, some bad—were sold for a few dollars. Automobile batteries, tires, spotlights and other accessories went for a song.

"Look, ladies and gentlemen, here's a slightly used and stolen April.
