

Woman, 50, Badly Injured In Car Crash

Cyclist, Pedestrian Recovering From Week-end Accidents

Mrs. Maude Sherwood, 50, of 2508 Prospect St., was critically injured early today in an automobile crash as a pedestrian and a motorcycle were recovering from injuries received Sunday.

Mrs. Sherwood received injuries to her right side and right arm while a passenger in the car of Kenneth Holland, 21, of 2506 Prospect St., which collided with another car operated by Raymond Staper, 28, of RFD 5, Indianapolis, at Road 29 and Pleasant Pkwy., at 8:30 a. m. today.

Mrs. Sherwood was taken to General Hospital and Holland was slated for operating an automobile without a license.

Man, 76, Injured

Elmer Markham, 76, of 2167 Dexter Ave., was said to be in "fair" condition in Methodist Hospital, where he was taken after being struck by a car operated by Warren Beatty, 26, of 425 N. California St. The accident occurred at Indiana Ave. and North St., police said.

Carl R. Green, 27, of 3701 E. 34th St., received lacerations of the face, head and hands and possible internal injuries, after the motorcycle he was operating struck a car at 38th St. and Winthrop Ave., which police said was being driven by Paul J. Day, 50, Dover, O.

Mr. Green was removed to Veterans Hospital, and John McDonald, 16, of 4370 E. 34th St., who was riding with Mr. Green, was released from General Hospital after being treated for an injured left shoulder.

Mrs. Charles Brown

Services for Mrs. Mary E. Brown, native of Boone County and Indianapolis resident 47 years who died yesterday in her home, 4618 Caven Ave., will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday in the Gonville Street Funeral Home. Burial will be in the Old Union Cemetery near Jamestown. She was 80.

Surviving are her husband Charles D. Brown; two sons, George and Frank Lindsey; a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Richardson; a sister, Mrs. Stella Sellers; and six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, all of Indiana.

Ary Davenport

Services for Ary (Harry) Davenport, native of Greenacastle, who died Saturday in his home, 714 Congress Ave., will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in the Harry W. Moore Peace Chapel. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Mr. Davenport had lived in Indianapolis more than 40 years. He was 76.

Surviving are his wife, Baca; brother, Charles Davenport; a sister, Mrs. Frank Lane; and a grandson, John B. Marsh, all of Indianapolis.

You Should Know...

Winners in Times Puppy Contest

Arnold F. Spencer Rites Wednesday Dies Here at 69

Long Prominent In Music Circles

Arnold F. Spencer, Indianapolis organist, composer, singer and music teacher for the past 45 years, died yesterday in his home, 318 E. 24th St., after an illness of one year. He was 69.

A lifelong Indianapolis resident, Mr. Spencer was a tenor soloist for many years. He studied music abroad in the Royal Academy of Music in Berlin for three years and in Italy for a year.

Mr. Spencer assisted the late Oliver Willard Pierce in founding the old Indiana College of Music and Art. During the last war, he conducted the Women's and Men's Glee Clubs as the Lucas-Harold Naval Ordnance Plant.

Active Mason

Active in Masonic activities, Mr. Spencer was a member of Capital City Lodge, F. & A. M. Keystone Chapter, OES; DeMolay Commander of Indianapolis Council No. 1, and the Murat Shrine.

Former national president of the Masonic Canters, he was the founder of the Murat Shrine in Indianapolis.

Services at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Christ Episcopal Church, where he was a member, will be followed by burial in Crown Hill.

Members of the Capital City Masonic Lodge will hold graveside services and provide the pallbearers.

Friends may call at Shirley Brothers' Central Chapel from 7 p. m. today to noon, Wednesday.

Surviving are his wife, Elmira L.; two brothers, Albert Spencer, Jacksonville, Fla., and Herbert M. Spencer, Indianapolis.

LOOT POLICEMAN'S CAR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (UP)—Rookie Policeman Michael Flores shamefacedly reported to headquarters today that somebody broke into his parked car and stole his blue uniform blouse and his badge.

Following the break, the two men cut a wide swath of robbery and terror across Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin.

The gun battle which resulted in Lieb's capture occurred as the bandits were caught in the act of robbing John L. Smith Jr., a Mayfield shop operator.

Martin W. Gerlach

Rites Wednesday

Requiem mass for Martin W. Gerlach, who died yesterday in his home, 5335 E. Hill St., will be sung at 10 a. m. Wednesday in Our Lady of Lourdes Church after services at 9:30 a. m. in the Blackwell Irvington Funeral Home. He was 71.

He was a retired salesman for General Mills, Inc. Born in Washington, Ind., he lived in Indianapolis 50 years. He was in Our Lady of Lourdes parish and a member of the United Commercial Travelers.

Survivors include his wife, Nellie; a brother, a son, a daughter, and two sisters. Mrs. John Thale and Mrs. Mary Gerlach, all of Indianapolis.

Judge Oral S. Barnett set the stage for trial of all four at the same time when he overruled Saturday a defense motion for separate trials.

Mrs. Nettie Grimes

Services for Mrs. Nettie T. Grimes, 118 W. 38th St., who died Saturday in her home, will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in Shirley Brothers' Central Chapel. Burial will be in Crown Hill. She was 84.

She was native of Germantown, O. She taught in public schools there several years. A resident of Indianapolis 50 years, she was a member of the Meridian Street Methodist Church and a charter member of the Department Club of the Public Health Nursing Auxiliary.

A son, Herbert T. Grimes, Indianapolis, survives.

Ismom Radcliff

Ismom W. Radcliff, custodian of the First Baptist Church here for 16 years, died yesterday in his home, 514 S. Kappel St. He was 80.

A native of Shelby County, Mr. Radcliff had lived in Indianapolis 29 years. He was a member of the Eagles Lodge in Greenfield. Mr. Radcliff retired in 1939.

Services at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Conkle West Sixteenth Street Funeral Home will be followed by burial in Flat Rock, Ind.

Surviving are his wife, Nellie G.; two sons, Samuel E. Radcliff, Indianapolis, and Leon W. Radcliff Jr., Greenfield; five daughters, Mrs. Mary Galoway, Greenfield; Mrs. Ruth Cantrell, Indianapolis; Mrs. Elizabeth McCausley, Salem, Mass.; Mrs. Joan Miller, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Mabel Pfaff, Norwood, O.; and 17 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

And Homer says, "Tomorrow I will be carrying a feature item, Omar's Raisin Bread for only 17¢. Get to know your Omar man! Call Imperial 3344 in Indianapolis."

I MARINE BAND TO PLAY

TERRE HAUTE, Oct. 3 (UP)—

The United States Marine Band will give two performances here Nov. 4.

In

Indianapolis

EVENTS TODAY

Dinner-dance—American Revolution Celebration—through Thursday, Lincoln Hotel.

Living Room Display—Sponsored by Indianapolis Power & Light Co. and Corp. Homes, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. daily through Oct. 22. Thrift, 4404 Evanston Ave., Indianapolis.

Employ the Physically Handicapped Week in Indiana, by Governor's proclamation

Safety Forum and Joint Dinner Meeting of American Legion, Sons of American Legion, and Sons of American Legion Auxiliary—Central Christian Church, Marion County—7 p. m. World War

Present-day Living Forum—8 p. m. today and at successive Monday, Caleb Mills High School.

Scientific Club Noon Luncheon Meeting—American Society of Safety Engineers—3 p. m. April Grill, 139 E. 16th St.

Brightwood Chapter 38, OES, Initiation of Freshmen Program—6 p. m. Veritas Masonic Temple.

Providence Chapter, OES, Initiation Meeting—7:45 p. m. Providence Masonic Temple.

SWISS CLEANERS

for Your FINER

Dresses

Call Us for PROMPT Pick-Up Service

LINCOLN 3805

Swiss

CLEANERS

Call Us for PROMPT Pick-Up Service

LINCOLN 3805

MAKES IRONING

EASY

FAULTLESS

STARCH

NOT HOT OR COLD STARCH

MAKES IRONING A JOY

—Not A Job!

CLOSED MONDAYS

SHOP THURSDAY SATURDAY

9:00 TO 5:25

TRAVERSE RODS

6-WAY DRAPERY CRANES AND ORNAMENTAL CRANES

ADJUSTABLE BRACKETS OF ALL TYPES

REGULAR FLAT CURTAIN RODS, many styles and lengths, 40¢ to 80¢ ea.

SCALLOPED WOOD CORNICES, 1.69 and 2.69

COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF BRACKETS, SOCKETS, RINGS, PINS, ETC.

Ayres' Curtains and Draperies, Seventh Floor

MONDAY, OCT. 3, 1949

Mrs. H. G. Stratton Dies in Her Home

Mrs. Hazel A. Stratton, organist

of the Seymour First Baptist Church for many years, died today in her home, 402 N. Meridian

St. She was 61.

A native of Seymour and daughter of pioneer Seymour residents, Mrs. Stratton attended

Ward Belmont College and the Chicago Musical College.

Services at 10 a. m. Wednesday in Flanner & Buchanan Mortuary will be followed by burial in the Riverview Cemetery, Seymour.

Surviving are her husband, Herman G. Stratton, and a daughter,

Miss Jerry Stratton, both of Indianapolis.

Harrison E. Gill

Services for Harrison Ellsworth

Gill, 22 N. Richland St., who with his wife, Alice Earline Gill, was killed in a head-on automobile collision yesterday four miles south of Cave City, Ky., will be held at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Conkle Funeral Home. Burial will be in Floral Park.

Top-United

pointed out to

Roman Cathoslavia would

in Marshal for nearly all learned today.

Several Uni-

tions already unofficially of tator's impending consequences

Tito is assiduous.

TWO: It

Marshals Tito

held in a for strong anti-

United States

now an anti-

can citizen, w-