

Convention To Honor Two On Butler Staff

Disciples of Christ To Meet Oct. 25-30 In Cincinnati

The centennial session of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ will honor two Butler School of Religion faculty members among the organization's past presidents this month in Cincinnati.

The centennial convention will meet Oct. 25 to 30 with approximately 10,000 delegates in attendance. The two local men to be honored are Dr. Frederick D. Kershner, dean emeritus of the Butler School of Religion who was chairman of the International Convention in 1935; and Dr. A. E. Cory, school of religion missions department head. Dr. Cory served as convention president in 1924.

The 10,000 delegates will include a large group from Indianapolis since this city is the location of a large list of Disciples' national boards.

List of Sessions

Wednesday morning, Oct. 26, the board of higher education will hold its annual business meeting. Included on the board are President M. O. Ross, Dean O. L. Shelton of the School of Religion, and Dr. Kershner.

Wednesday noon the commission on restudy of the International Convention will hold its annual meeting. Butler personnel included on the commission are Dean Shelton, Dr. Dean E. Walker, treasurer of the commission; Dr. Cory, and Dr. Kershner.

Thursday, Oct. 27, the Butler School of Religion will hold a convention luncheon at the YWCA. Robert Morris, pastor of the First Christian Church, Tippecanoe (Ind.), and president of the Butler School of Religion Alumni Association, will preside. Gladys Burton, Washington, D. C., will speak. Music will be furnished by the chapel quartet and Dean Shelton will present a report.

Dr. A. C. Watters, professor of missions of the local School of Religion, will speak on behalf of the British churches also on Thursday. Dr. Watters has been honored by being elected the fraternal delegate of the British churches to the International Convention and will represent that group.

Forty-one colleges and universities including Butler University will participate in the Thursday evening session devoted to the cause of Christian education. President Ross, Dean Shelton and other members of the university staff will participate.

Jaycee Forum To Accent Selling

The accent will be on selling in the leadership forum of the Junior Chamber of Commerce this fall.

Speakers listed for the five meetings, which the Jaycees call "sales packages," include J. R. O'Connell, merchandising counsel, Oct. 20 and Nov. 10; John C. Milton, sales and service, American Meat Institute, Oct. 27; George Seas, advertising, Nov. 3; and E. C. von Treas, manager of "Holiday," a travel magazine, Nov. 17. The Jaycees have offered the course for $10. Meetings will be in Hotel Antlers.

NEHRU IN TRUMAN PLANE

LONDON, Oct. 5 (UP)—President Truman will send his personal plane to London to fly Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India to Washington on Oct. 10, the U. S. Embassy announced today. He arrives in London from New Delhi Oct. 8.

STRAUSS SAYS:

TWEEDS FOR ME-TOO

ME-TOO'S tweed coats are "Fashion in a Small Way."—Stylish with details becoming to little ladies—in fall shades—in a tweed that's warm—durable and adorable on ME-TOO'S.

The set above is one of many ME-TOO'S can choose from.

Other styles include coats with velvet touches—hoods—single or double breasted. Sizes 3 to 6x $25 to 37.50.

Big Sister styles (without leggings) Sizes 7 to 14 $25 to 37.50.

L. STRAUSS & CO.
ME-TOO SHOP, SIXTH FLOOR

STRAUSS SAYS:

TRUMAN PLANE

STRAUSS SAYS:

TRUMAN PLANE

STRAUSS SAYS:

TRUMAN PLANE

STRAUSS SAYS:

TRUMAN PLANE

STRAUSS SAYS:

TRUMAN PLANE

STRAUSS SAYS:

TRUMAN PLANE

STRAUSS SAYS:

Noblesville High School Students Institute Date Fund

Lads, Lassies Can Get Fast Buck

By CARL HENN

The Staff Writer

NOBLESVILLE, Oct. 5.—Noblesville High School students are in need of a fast buck now have a way to get it, thanks to Principal J. B. Stephens and the student council.

The money is theirs for the asking this fall. It comes out of a special date fund. The only requirement asked by the council is that the money must go back into the fund within 10 days.

The sky is not the limit, however. The limit is $2. At 2 1/2 percent interest, that means a total of $2.05 due back to the fund within the time set.

How It Works

Here's how it works: Pee-wee Butts, a little guy with a big smile, needs money to take a girl to the football game Saturday. Along about Thursday at 1 p. m. he approaches the secretary of the student council, asks for, receives, and fills out a slip requesting any amount up to $2.

The next day, at the same hour, he goes back to the secretary and gets the money, for which he signs a receipt. He's all set—for 10 days.

A Good Lesson

If the money isn't repaid within that time, he's out of luck on future loans. But he'll be sure the loan is repaid in time. There's sure to be another occasion when he'll be fresh out of that fondly held green stuff.

Pat Souders, senior at Noblesville High School and student council member, keeps books and money for the date fund, from which financially embarrassed students can borrow up to $2.

Mr. Stephens got the idea for the fund while attending a summer seminar at Indiana University to solve adolescent finance problems and teach his students to be responsible about money matters.

The date fund is backed by $50 borrowed from the profits of pencils and paper sales at the school. If it works out—fine. If it doesn't—a lot of young men and women are going to spend unnecessarily lonely evenings in Noblesville.

Services Friday

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

The date fund in action. Gene (Pee-wee) Butts, junior, his two bucks backing him up, asks Sue Stephens, junior, "How's about going to the football game with me Saturday?"

problems and teach his students to be responsible about money matters.

The date fund is backed by $50 borrowed from the profits of pencils and paper sales at the school. If it works out—fine. If it doesn't—a lot of young men and women are going to spend unnecessarily lonely evenings in Noblesville.

Services Friday

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Says Mrs. Harden Accuses Farmers

Don Newcombe Faces Reynolds

Haymaker Blasts Congresswoman

Series Makes New York Just Another Hick Town

(Continued From Page One)

Salaries to ball players when true worth goes unrewarded.

Those Smug Yankee Fans

In all the excitement, there is, naturally, a kind of smug restraint among the customers in the Yankee cheering section. This is not entirely due to the fact that most Yankee fans are night club heroes who will take their series diluted from the radio in the Stadium Club bar. It's more a kind of genteel tradition which says that in any athletic unpleasantness the Yanks are considered a shoo-in until proven otherwise, and that is both vulgar and soporific to go about beating your breast vicariously.

This genteel code keeps any animal spirits—especially in Manhattan—pretty well in check, although it is ineffectual in the case of the Greenwich St. bartender.

He was serving a stein of lager to a transient who dropped a casually nasty remark about a Yankee pitcher named Allie

Reynolds being unable to feed himself without the assistance of a relief pitcher named Joe Page. Whereupon the publican tossed the lager in the customer's face and drove him screaming from the premises.

Such an incident might go unnoticed in Brooklyn, which takes its baseball raw. It is surely socially significant that the only parade yesterday was that held across the river in the Borough of Churches. The heroic Dodgers were paraded from Ebbets Field to Borough Hall, through streets hung with Yanks in effigy. Manhattan smiled tolerantly at these boyish antics.

Philosophical shopkeepers who deal in such wares also are preparing treatises on the fact that three of the players in this series are Negroes. All are Dodgers—Roy Campanella, Jackie Robinson and Don Newcombe—and they get in without tickets by dint of being, respectively, the best catcher, the best second baseman, and the best pitcher in the National League.

More in keeping with hoary series tradition, however, is the fact that one local newspaper, besides its battery of sports writers, has assigned to the games two saloon correspondents, one political pundit and a lone comedian.

Also, the emissaries of room service have started routing expeditions by way of Bangkok.

Council Fails to Act On Rent Recoil

Time State Service BLOOMINGTON, Oct. 5—The rent recoil question was still hanging fire here today after a City Council session on the issue last night.

Council chambers were filled and the crowd overflowed into the hall as landlords and tenants came to voice opinions for and against decontrol.

R. F. Elliott, representing the Federal Housing Expediter's office in Cleveland, reported on his findings in a survey of housing in Bloomington. He said the survey showed rent control should be retained here.

However, the Landlords' Association presented to councilmen a petition with 200 signatures requesting decontrol.

Councilmen took no action but set a public hearing Oct. 18.

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

Series Makes New York Just Another Hick Town

(Continued From Page One)

Salaries to ball players when true worth goes unrewarded.

Those Smug Yankee Fans

In all the excitement, there is, naturally, a kind of smug restraint among the customers in the Yankee cheering section. This is not entirely due to the fact that most Yankee fans are night club heroes who will take their series diluted from the radio in the Stadium Club bar. It's more a kind of genteel tradition which says that in any athletic unpleasantness the Yanks are considered a shoo-in until proven otherwise, and that is both vulgar and soporific to go about beating your breast vicariously.

This genteel code keeps any animal spirits—especially in Manhattan—pretty well in check, although it is ineffectual in the case of the Greenwich St. bartender.

He was serving a stein of lager to a transient who dropped a casually nasty remark about a Yankee pitcher named Allie

Reynolds being unable to feed himself without the assistance of a relief pitcher named Joe Page. Whereupon the publican tossed the lager in the customer's face and drove him screaming from the premises.

Such an incident might go unnoticed in Brooklyn, which takes its baseball raw. It is surely socially significant that the only parade yesterday was that held across the river in the Borough of Churches. The heroic Dodgers were paraded from Ebbets Field to Borough Hall, through streets hung with Yanks in effigy. Manhattan smiled tolerantly at these boyish antics.

Philosophical shopkeepers who deal in such wares also are preparing treatises on the fact that three of the players in this series are Negroes. All are Dodgers—Roy Campanella, Jackie Robinson and Don Newcombe—and they get in without tickets by dint of being, respectively, the best catcher, the best second baseman, and the best pitcher in the National League.

More in keeping with hoary series tradition, however, is the fact that one local newspaper, besides its battery of sports writers, has assigned to the games two saloon correspondents, one political pundit and a lone comedian.

Also, the emissaries of room service have started routing expeditions by way of Bangkok.

Council Fails to Act On Rent Recoil

Time State Service BLOOMINGTON, Oct. 5—The rent recoil question was still hanging fire here today after a City Council session on the issue last night.

Council chambers were filled and the crowd overflowed into the hall as landlords and tenants came to voice opinions for and against decontrol.

R. F. Elliott, representing the Federal Housing Expediter's office in Cleveland, reported on his findings in a survey of housing in Bloomington. He said the survey showed rent control should be retained here.

However, the Landlords' Association presented to councilmen a petition with 200 signatures requesting decontrol.

Councilmen took no action but set a public hearing Oct. 18.

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

Mrs. Thane Hauser Rites Tomorrow

Mother of '500' Driver Dies in Hospital

Services for Mrs. Thane Hauser, mother of Norman Hauser, driver in the Speedway 500-Mile classic, will be held at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Second Friends Church. Burial will be in Beaublossom Cemetery. She was 54.

A resident of Columbus, Ind., for 15 years, she died Saturday in Methodist Hospital. Born in Park County, she was the daughter of John and Flora South.

In 1912 she married Thane Hauser and they lived in Indianapolis until they moved to Columbus. Mr. Hauser is general foreman of Cummins Engine Co., Columbus.

A former member of the Mothers Club of School 46, she was a member of the Second Friends Church and the Bartholomew County St. John's Church Ladies Aid.

Survivors in addition to her husband and son include two daughters, Mrs. Naomi Harrison, Indianapolis; Mrs. Charlette Logan, San Diego, and three grandchildren.

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

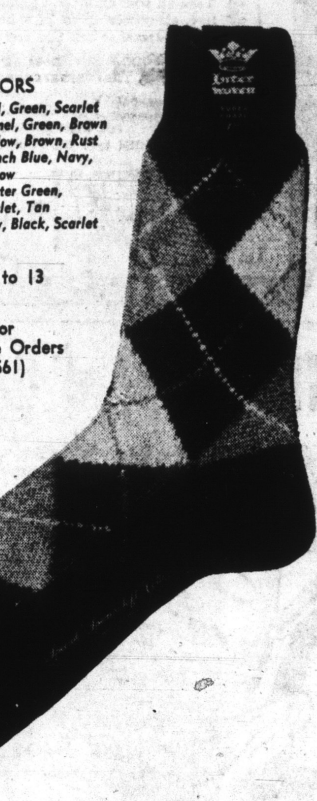

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

STRAUSS SAYS:

MEN'S COTTON ARGYLES--INTERWOVEN!

They have the heft and weight of wool—but they are soft cotton—that washes well—that shrinks not!

The traditional Argyle design—in some of the nicest colorings you ever saw on an ankle!

They are Interwoven's Super Grade—and they are a great buy!

1.50

L. STRAUSS & COMPANY

THE MAN'S STORE

L. STRAUSS & CO.

SIXTH FLOOR

L. STRAUSS & CO.