

Dairy Show Set to Open Tomorrow

2300 Head of Cattle to Vie for $61,000 in Prizes

Preparations were complete today for the first International Dairy Exposition, which will open an eight-day program at 7 a. m. tomorrow at the State Fairgrounds.

Competing for $61,000 in prizes in the "World's Fair of the Dairy Industry" will be 2300 head of the nation's top cattle.

Dick Deubner of RFD 2, Columbia City, and Miss Jacqueline DuPont, Plant City, Fla., named winners today of pure-bred heifers in the American Ayrshire Breeders' Association essay contest, will receive their awards Thursday.

Schricker to Present Awards

The heifers, valued at $500 each, will be presented by Governor Schricker during the Ayrshire judging at the International Exposition.

Gates of the exposition open at 7 a. m. daily to the many attractions, including nightly hippodrome shows, midway, dairy manufacturing exhibits and demonstrations.

The 4-H Club and Future farmers of America dairy cattle show will open at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow. Beatrice Cook, home economist, will present demonstrations and lectures at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. in the Festival of Dairy Foods building.

Thrill Show Set

Jimmy Lynch Death Dodgers thrill show will be featured at 2 p. m. in front of the Grandstand and the L. S. Ayres & Co. style show will be held at 3:15 p. m. in the Festival of Dairy Foods building.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police musical ride will be presented during the International Revue at 8:30 p. m. in the Coliseum, followed by the Founder Fund dinner.

Gate admission is 60 cents. Admission to the grounds will be free after 7 p. m. daily.

Hoosier Dentists Set Conference

Four-Day Session To Open Oct. 17

Twenty-eight Indiana dentists will participate in the 50th annual four-day conference of the American Dental Association opening Oct. 17 in San Francisco.

Dr. J. B. Carr, Indiana's trustee in the national group, said some will join special train and plane parties in Chicago and others are motoring.

Among the Indianapolis delegates are Dr. Maynard K. Hine, dean of the Indiana University School of Dentistry, Dr. John H. Yates, Dr. J. Frank Hall, Dr. Donald H. Draper, Dr. E. K. Westfall and Dr. Frank Denny.

Papers to Be Presented

Several Indianapolis dentists will present papers before various sessions and panels of the association, among them Dr. J. William Adams, and Dr. Frank C. Hughes. A paper by Prof. Ralph Phillips of the I. U. Dental School will be read.

Dr. Glenn J. Pell, examiner for the American Board of Oral Surgery, will leave early for the West Coast for special preliminary work. He and Dr. G. T. Gregory will attend sessions of the American Society of Oral Surgeons.

Others going from Indianapolis are Dr. Herbert W. Mason, past president of the state association; Dr. Roy D. Smiley, director of the dental division of the Indiana State Board of Health; Dr. John Geller, Dr. O. E. Simmons, Dr. J. Conley Robinson, Dr. Richard H. Howard and Dr. M. V. Stevenson.

State delegates in addition to the Indianapolis men are Dr. Frank H. O'Halloran, Evansville, president of the state association; Dr. C. T. Mayfield, Kokomo; Dr. E. E. Ebanks, Kingman; Dr. Frederick C. Baker, Hammond; Dr. Wilbur P. McNulty, Ft. Wayne, and Dr. Walter A. Crum, Richmond.

Beer Distributors Announce Change

Personnel changes in the organization of Beer Distributors of Indiana, Inc., were announced today by Alfred C. Brown, president.

Leo A. Meagher of Evansville was named executive manager, replacing Henry E. Siebenmark, Indianapolis, who was elevated to a newly created position of director of public relations.

Mr. Meagher, a state representative in the 1939, '41, '45 and '49 sessions of the General Assembly, is an engineer for the Chicago & Eastern Railroad.

Mr. Siebenmark, former Indiana State Commander of the American Legion, is a former field representative of Bendix Aviation Corp. and the Indiana Manufacturers' Association.
