

Governor's Parley Fails To End Rail Strike

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7 (UPI)—A conference by four governors with representatives of the Missouri Pacific Railroad and its striking brotherhoods broke up early today with no decision for ending the 29-day-old strike. Gov. Forrest C. Smith of Missouri, who called the conference, said another meeting would be held later today.

In addition to Gov. Smith, the conference was attended by the governors of Colorado, Arkansas and Kansas, plus executive representatives from Oklahoma, Nebraska, Illinois and Louisiana.

Striking brotherhoods broke up early today with no decision for ending the walkout which has ended 25,000 workers and cost $20 million in wages and lost business.

Fireman Charges Shift In Wife's Affections

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 7 (UPI)—County fireman Frederick Naranjo, 31, charged today that while he was working his wife entertained another fireman who worked a different shift.

His attorney, Maurice Hindin, charged in a divorce suit yesterday that while Mr. Naranjo did his 24-hour stint at the firehouse, another man from the same station was spending his time with pretty blonde Mrs. Terry Naranjo. He identified the other man as Paul Fox, 30.

"Some of the neighbors thought he was a boarder and were amazed when they found that Mr. Naranjo didn't know about it," Mr. Hindin said. "The Naranjo children even called Fox 'Daddy.'"

Teamsters Suggest Moving Labor Day

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 7 (UPI)—A truck drivers' union here thinks Labor Day should be observed on Wednesday, instead of Monday, to help end "the unchecked slaughter of innocent people in holiday traffic accidents."

Local 90 of the AFL Teamsters passed a resolution calling for Labor Day to be observed on the first Wednesday in September. The union hoped the action would start a national trend.
