Polio Ranks Third As State Killer

Statistics on causes of death from childhood diseases in Indiana in 1948 showed today that polio ranked third as a killer.

Thirty deaths from polio last year ranked third to measles, which killed 37, and spinal meningitis, which took 33 lives, according to the Indiana State Health Board.

Rheumatic fever claimed 24 lives, whooping cough 21, diphtheria 16 and scarlet fever 2.

Heart disease was the greatest killer in the over-all death statistics, taking 12,366 lives in Indiana for the second highest toll in 10 years. Other deaths included 9,270 from cancer, 4,175 from cerebral hemorrhage, 2,817 from nephritis, 1,203 from pneumonia, 1,017 from diabetes mellitus and 914 from tuberculosis.

The figures showed that deaths among children under a year old dropped, but this was explained partly by a decrease in births of 3827 from 1947.

Business and Industry—
How New Store Will Look

An artist envisions the Palace Salon, 29 N. Pennsylvania St., after exterior remodeling.

Modernizing Palace Salon To Be Completed Nov. 1

Front Will Be Completely Changed With Structural Glass Material

Modernization of the Palace Salon, 29 N. Pennsylvania St., is expected to be completed Nov. 1.

The front will be completely changed. Made of a new structural glass material, its lower portion will be finished in black and its upper part will be a rich buff. New furnishings in a renovated interior will greet the eyes of customers who enter through two full-view glass doors.

Dressing rooms, formerly in the basement, will be on the main floor. An all-glass shoe-shine stand and new light fixtures will add sparkle.

All departments—hat, shoe and cleaning—will be enlarged. William G. Speropoulos, sole owner, moved to the present location in 1936 from the Lemcke Service Shop, where he had opened his business in 1924.

Engel Faces Trial On Swindle Count

CHICAGO, Oct. 24 (UP)—Accused love swindler Sigmund Engel goes on trial today on the complaint of a Chicago widow that he wooed her and then took off with her $3700 life's savings.

Engel, 73, was suffering from a slight cold as his trial opened but, natty and courtly as ever, he said he was confident he would be acquitted.

After SA hadn't returned all or most of Mrs. Rezeda Corigan's money? And it wasn't his fault that the 37-year-old red-haired widow tried to pursue him to New York.

Engel's "one and only true wife," Mrs. Pauline Langton Engel, also was confident that he would be released.
