

Mrs. Vandaworker Services Friday

Mrs. Laura Marie Vandaworker, wife of the founder and conductor of the Indianapolis Newsboys' Band, died yesterday in her home, 2915 Guilford Ave.

A native of Noblesville, she lived in Indianapolis since her marriage to J. B. Vandaworker in 1900. She was a member of Second Presbyterian Church 49 years.

Mrs. Vandaworker was also active in club work. She was a member of the Vandaworker Club, consisting of band members and their wives; Butler Faculty Club, Daughters of the Union, Woman's Department Club, Magazine Club and Juvenile Center Auxiliary.

Rites will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday in Flanner & Buchanan Mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Vandaworker is survived by a daughter, Mrs. René F. Muller, Indianapolis, Md.; three sisters, Mrs. Charles E. Williams, Miss Bessie

Jackson and Mrs. E. J. Churchill, Chicago, Ill.; a grandson and a great-granddaughter.

Miss Ella King

Services for Miss Ella King, 1919 Hillside Ave., who died Saturday in her home, were to be held at 1 p.m. today in King & King Funeral Home. Burial will be in New Grove.

Born in Princeton, Ky., she lived in Indianapolis nine years. Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Beulah Johnson; three sisters, Mrs. Dolie Burrow, Mrs. Ivory Harris and Mrs. Gustavus Emerson; and two brothers, Grandville King and Leonard Johnson, all of Indianapolis.

Neckers

LONDON, Nov. 2 (UPI)—The Overseas Food Corp. complained today that pirates of the Malayan coast are intercepting telephone and telegraph service in eastern Africa by knocking down the lines with their necks.

Capt. Ruckelshaus Reburied in Indiana*Air Force Officer Killed in India Crash

Capt. Thomas F. Ruckelshaus came home to Indiana soil yesterday.

The Air Force officer killed in a World War II airplane crash in India was reburied in the National Cemetery at New Albany, his family announced.

The body of the former Red

Neckers

LONDON, Nov. 2 (UPI)—The Overseas Food Corp. complained today that pirates of the Malayan coast are intercepting telephone and telegraph service in eastern Africa by knocking down the lines with their necks.

Played Under Rockne

The craft was believed to have crashed on the rugged mountain slope while on a mission investigating Japanese beacons.

Capt. Ruckelshaus was captain of the 1922 Cathedral High School grid team and later played football at South Bend under the late Knute Rockne. He was also a better-than-average polo player.

The captain was a member of the University Club, Woodstock Club, Dramatic Club, Rotary Club, St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church and Sigma Chi social fraternity.

Besides his wife, Capt. Ruckelshaus is survived by two brothers, John K. and Conrad.

Mrs. Clarence Dickman

Services for Mrs. Lucille Dickman, 1101 N. Keystone Ave., will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in Jordan Funeral Home.

Mrs. Dickman died Monday in her home after an illness of eight months. She was 46. Burial will be in Washington Park Cemetery.

A native of Indianapolis, Mrs. Dickman was employed by the Indianapolis Glove Co. more than 20 years.

She is survived by her husband, Clarence; a daughter, Mrs. Ross E. Moore; a son, Thomas; her mother, Mrs. Edna Willner; two brothers, Charles and Henry Willner, and four sisters, Mrs. Mary Blume, Mrs. Rose McElfresh, Mrs. Edna Gunyon and Mrs. Henrietta Horscroft, all of Indianapolis.

Cletus Ray Mann

The funeral of Cletus Ray Mann of Cicero, Ind., was to be held at 2 p.m. today in Victory Chapel, Cicero.

Mr. Mann, who died Monday in a Rockville sanatorium, formerly lived in Indianapolis and attended school at Beech Grove. He was 19. Burial will be at Sheridan.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mann, Cicero, three sisters and three brothers.

Speakers Announced

"How Can Our City Provide the Services We Need" will be the discussion topic at the Indianapolis Unitarian Forum at 7:30 p.m., Sunday. Speakers will be Phillip Bayt, John B. Barnett and Mrs. Alfred W. Noing.

L.S. Ayres & Co. FRanklin 4411

Step Right Up! Don't Miss It!

The A.A.U.W.
Hoosier Book and Toy Fair

Tuesday through Saturday
November 1 through November 5
Ayers' Auditorium, Eighth Floor

Enter the Big Tent and See:
Red, white and blue awnings and flags
Kiddieland rides
Have your fortune told
A wonderful puppet show
Rustic sports arena
Unusual Nature Exhibit

There's a myriad of excitement, fun and color all this week in Ayres' Auditorium, Eighth Floor.
ADMISSION FREE
American Association of University Women,
Indianapolis Branch

THE INDIANAPOLIS TIMES*Mrs. Herbert Hunt Rites Tomorrow

Services for Mrs. Catherine Hunt, 37 Kenmore Road, who died yesterday in her home, will be at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in Shirley Brothers Irving Hill Chapel. Burial will be in Memorial Park. She was 61.

Born in Richmond, she lived in Indianapolis 50 years. She was a member of the Downey Avenue Christian Church, the Women's Christian Temperance Union and the Red Cross.

Survivors include her husband, Herbert L. Hunt, two sons, Herbert L. Hunt Jr., Indianapolis, and James Gilbert Hunt, Irvington, N. Y.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Dawson and Miss Elizabeth Moore, a brother, Herbert Moore, all of Indianapolis, and two granddaughters.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Isabelle Bolt, and five sons, Douglass Bolt, Indianapolis; John and Menzie Bolt, Long Island, N. Y.; Joseph Bolt, Renfrew, Scotland; and Robert Bolt, London, England.

Services for Mrs. Sarah J. Lawler

Services for Mrs. Sarah J. Lawler, 3914 N. Drexel Ave., who died yesterday in her home, will be at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in Flanner & Buchanan Mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill. She was 86.

Born in Aberdeen, O., she lived in Indianapolis 30 years. She was a member of the East Tenth Street Methodist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Glenn Lawler, Indianapolis, and Lee Lawler, Monticello; four daughters, Mrs. Linnie McCreight, Mrs. Maude Watson, Mrs. Merle Hollis and Mrs. Eva Werking, all of Indianapolis; 10 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Joseph E. Lancaster

Services for Joseph Edgar Lancaster, who died yesterday in his home, 3936 Carson Ave., will be at 3 p.m. tomorrow in Wilson Chapel of the Chimes. Burial will be in Memorial Park. He was 53.

Born in Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

A baker, Mr. Lancaster lived in Indianapolis most of his life. He was a native of Kentucky. His wife, Mrs. Ada E. Lancaster, and several nieces and nephews survive.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

William G. Bolt Rites Tomorrow*P. R. Mallory Co. Supervisor Dies at 53

Services for William G. Bolt, a supervisor in P. R. Mallory Co., Inc., who died yesterday in his home, 6720 E. Washington St., will be at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in Shirley Brothers Irving Hill Chapel. He was 53.

Born in Scotland, he lived in Indianapolis 20 years. He came to the United States in 1928. He was a member of the Irvington Presbyterian Church, Irvington Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Isabelle Bolt, and five sons, Douglass Bolt, Indianapolis; John and Menzie Bolt, Long Island, N. Y.; Joseph Bolt, Renfrew, Scotland; and Robert Bolt, London, England.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Louise Harris; a sister, Mrs. Willie James, Chicago, and two brothers, Edgar and Curtis Harris, Indianapolis.

Services will be held for George H. Harris, 305 Harvard Pl., at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the United Wetherspoon Presbyterian Church.

A Monon Railroad dining car waiter and owner of an Indiana Avenue liquor store, Mr. Harris died yesterday in his home. He was 53. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A native of Forrest, Miss., he lived here 29 years and was a member of the United Wetherspoon Church.