Church Plans Visitation Campaign

"This is our church at work" say Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fiedderjohn (standing) as they show a special Presbyterian booklet to Mr. and Mrs. Seth Williams and sons, Danny (left) and Gary.

Teams to Explain Work of Presbyterians Here, Abroad

By EMMA RIVERS MILNER, Times Church Editor

Sutherland Presbyterian Church is conducting a visitation on the theory that knowledge opens both the mind and the purse.

Tomorrow, teams of two persons each will visit the residences of church members and explain the work of Presbyterians in Indianapolis, the United States and overseas.

They will illustrate what they tell with pictures and stories in a special book titled "Our Church at Work." It is published and distributed by the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

The visitors will speak of the missionary outreach of the church into 16 foreign countries and in the United States. They will describe schools, churches, Sunday schools and neighborhood houses for Indians, Eskimos, Spanish speaking people and others in this

Ground-Breaking Set Tomorrow

Dr. Dallas L. Browning, pastor, and his associate, Dr. W. C. Hartinger, will direct the ground breaking for the new unit of the North Methodist Church.

Two hundred boys and girls of the North Methodist Church School will hold miniature spades to break ground for a new educational building tomorrow at 8:30 a. m. and Meridian St.

Actual construction of the $400,000 unit will begin Monday.

A parade of 700 Sunday school pupils will precede the novel ground breaking. Mrs. John A. Clark, school superintendent, will lead the parade from "The Little White Church," in 38th St. to the new building site. The Sherid High School Brass Ensemble will play directed by Robert Shultz.

Dr. Dallas L. Browning, pastor, and his associate, Dr. W. C. Hartinger, will direct the ground breaking in the new mobile unit of the Indianapolis Methodist District. Those present will be invited to inspect the mobile unit.

Officials who will attend the ground breaking in addition to those mentioned are: Dr. Sumner L. Martin, district superintendent.

Will Speak About
Being Minister's Wife

Mrs. Herbert Wilson of Harrison, O., will speak on "The Art of Being a Minister's Wife" in the meeting of the Zelotai Club of Butler University Tuesday afternoon.

The club will meet at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. O. L. Shelton, 445 Blue Ridge Rd. A tea honoring new members will follow the meeting. Mrs. Kermit Pugh is club president.

60th Year
Observed
By Church

Roosevelt Temple Lists Program

The Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church will conduct a full year of fellowship evangelism following its 60th anniversary celebration this week-end.

The 60th anniversary festivities began last night with a banquet honoring three charter members. It will close Sunday night. The Rev. Van Ness Chapel, pastor, will be in charge.

The charter members recognized at the anniversary banquet are Mrs. Jessie Haverstick and the Misses Ida and Bertie Sample. Dr. Robert Pierce, pastor of the Broadway Methodist Church, spoke on "Not Good If Detached." The Community Achievement Class served the dinner.

Mobile Unit to Appear

The new Methodist mobile unit will entertain the neighborhood tonight at 8 o'clock from the church lawn with recordings, announcements and the use of television and other audio-visual aids. Afterward, members and guests will go inside the sanctuary for a sacred concert at 7:30 p. m. presented by the Second Moravian Church Choir, Dr. Sumner L. Martin, district superintendent, will speak.

Tomorrow will be a busy day of events from Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. through the closing evangelistic service. Dr. Frank Greer of Rushville, Ind., a former pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m. on "Stand Up and Be Counted." The community noon dinner will be served by the Woman's Society of Christian Service following worship.

Recall Old Days

Members and former members are expected to have a great time reminiscing during the climactic service at 2:30 p. m. Old photographs and a quilt embroidered with the names of charter members will be on display. A prepared history will be read.

Another former pastor, the Rev. C. A. McCullough, will give the talk for the youth fellowship at 6:30 p. m.

The Rev. Mr. Van Ness not only will bring the anniversary services to a close at 7:30 p. m. but he will chart a year of activity. The Edgewood Methodist Quartet will sing and assist with the service.

All next week, evangelistic teams will visit in the homes of the neighborhood and prepare the way for a preaching mission to be given by the pastor. The teams will continue the weekly visits throughout the year.

The congregation was first organized as the Oak Hill Methodist Church. It changed its name first to the Fountain Street Church and later, to Roosevelt Temple. The present edifice was erected in 1924.

Young Baptists to Conduct Revival

Young Baptists of Indianapolis and the state will conduct a youth revival Nov. 15 to 18 in the Exeter Avenue Baptist Church.

Gordon Johnston, secretary of the Indianapolis Baptist Youth Fellowship Council, and Ralph Beatty of Franklin College, are arranging the revival. Mr. Beatty is serving as pastor of Exeter Avenue Church. Robert Manier will direct the music for the sessions at 7:30 p. m.

Speakers in addition to Mr. Beatty are Pete Carr, John Honeney, Paul Madinger and John Francia, all youth leaders in local Baptist churches.

A three-day training and outreach program will precede the revival services. The program will be directed by the Youth Fellowship of the Indiana Baptist Convention, Ray Spencer of Plainfield, a Purdue University student, heads the fellowship.

Local Girl Takes
Vows in Order

An Indianapolis girl with three other young women took her first vows as a member of the Catholic Order of the White Sisters of Our Lady of Africa this week in the newly-established novitiate center in Belleville, Ill.

The local person is Sister Mary Grace, the former Miss Maureen Junker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Junker, 3401 E. Washington St. Since the center is new, Sister Grace becomes a charter member. The mother house is in Algiers, Africa.
