William F. Jones Dies in His Home

Democratic Leader's Rites to Be Friday

William F. Jones, Democratic precinct committeeman, 11th Ward, died yesterday in his home, 416 E. Michigan St. He was 56.

Formerly a clerk for the New York Central Railroad, Mr. Jones was a native of Seeleyville, Ind., and had lived in Indianapolis 20 years.

He leaves his wife, Mildred; a daughter, Miss Mary Jones, Los Angeles; a son, Bylthe Jones, Kimberly, Nev.; two stepsons, Jack Poynter, Indianapolis, and Richard Poynter, Los Angeles; a brother, Elmer Jones, Ragsdale, Ind.; a sister, Mrs. Florence Hoskins, Seeleyville, Ind.; a half-brother, C. E. Brooks, British Columbia.

Rites at 10 a.m. Friday in the George W. Usher Funeral Home will be followed by burial in Crown Hill.

Mrs. Dora McHugh

Mrs. Dora McHugh, 1245 N. Shadeland Ave., lifelong Indianapolis resident and wife of the late William McHugh, died here yesterday. She was 85.

Rites at 3 p.m. tomorrow in Shirley Brothers West Chapel will be followed by burial in Crown Hill.

Surviving are two sons, Harry and Clyde McHugh, Indianapolis; a sister, Mrs. Nola Hollingsworth, Indianapolis; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

John Brooks

A requiem mass will be sung at 9 a.m. Friday in St. Mary's Church for John Brooks, native of Lexington, Ky., who died yesterday in General Hospital.

Burial will be in New Crown Cemetery.

Mr. Brooks, who lived in 534 Spring St., had been an Indianapolis resident 40 years. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church. He was 72.

His wife, Mary, and three nieces survive.

Rites Tomorrow

Mr. Setter was a member of the All Souls Unitarian Church, the Bell Telephone Pioneer Club, and the Purchasing Agents Association of America.

Rites at 4 p.m. tomorrow in Flanner & Buchanan mortuary will be followed by cremation.

His wife, Lillian M., who survives, requests no flowers be sent to the funeral. Instead, she suggests, memorial donations in his name be made to local and national cancer funds.

Mrs. Mary Farmer Lee

Rites for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Farmer Lee, 1331 Hoyt Ave., native of Brown County, will be held at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in the J. C. Wilson Chapel of the Chimes. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Mrs. Farmer Lee died Sunday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Christen Tempin, R. R. 2, Martinsville. She was 81.

An Indianapolis resident for 60 years, Mrs. Farmer Lee was a member of Mt. Olive Methodist Church in Brown County. She moved to the home of her daughter when she became ill in July.

Surviving also are two sons, Ralph Farmer Lee, Indianapolis, and Roy Farmer Lee, Huntington, Ind.; two sisters, Mrs. Eva Williams, Greenwood, and Mrs. Joseph Williams, Whiteland, and a brother, Elva Hague, Bremen, Ind.

Mrs. Earl Hostetter

Rites for Mrs. Ruth J. Hostetter, native of Linton, who died yesterday in St. Francis Hospital, will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday in Linton. Burial will follow in Fairview Cemetery there.

Mrs. Hostetter, 1259 S. East St., had lived in Bloomington 14 years before coming to Indianapolis eight years ago. She was a member of the Bloomington Methodist Church. She was 55.

Her husband, Earl A. Hostetter, survives, in addition to a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Williams, Bloomington, and three sons, Harry Hostetter, Oakland, Calif., and James W. and Ralph G. Hostetter, Indianapolis.

Miss Catherine Houppert

Services at 8:30 a.m. Thursday in Grindel's Funeral Home for Miss Catherine M. Houppert, lifelong Indianapolis resident, will be followed by a requiem high mass at 9 a.m. in Holy Cross Church.

Miss Houppert died yesterday in her home, 342 N. Arsenal Ave., after a brief illness. She was 51.

A graduate of Technical High School, Miss Houppert attended Holy Cross grade school. She was a member of Holy Cross Catholic Church.

Surviving are her father, Henry J. Houppert; two brothers, Walter W. and Robert F. Houppert, and a sister, Miss Helen A. Houppert, all of Indianapolis.

Funeral Tomorrow For Atley M. Crose

THORNTONVILLE, Nov. 22—Atley M. Crose, lifelong Boone County farmer who died yesterday in an Indianapolis nursing home, will be buried in the Cox Cemetery, Dover, Ind., tomorrow. He was 91.

Funeral rites will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow in the Myers Mortuary, Lebanon.

Surviving are two sons, Moreland Crose, Indianapolis, and Earl Crose, Lebanon, and two grandchildren.

LOST: MISERY OF CONSTIPATION

"It's wonderful—how much better I feel. And I need no more laxatives—all due to eating one dish of ALL-BRAN daily! I sincerely recommend this cereal." Mrs. J. A. Hamm, 1226 W. Main St., Portland, Ind. "Just one of many unsolicited letters.

You, too, may expect wonderful relief if constipation is due to lack of bulk in your diet. Just eat one ounce of crisp, flavorful ALL-BRAN daily with a pint of water. If not satisfied after 10 days, send the empty carton to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich. Get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK."

Orville Bray, Salesman, Dies

Orville Bray, salesman-driver for Ballard Ice Cream Co., died of a heart attack while making a delivery in the 3600 block E. 20th St., yesterday. He was 67.

Mr. Bray, who lived in 925 Broadway, was a native of Amon, Ind., but had lived in Indianapolis most of his life. He was a member of the Friends Church.

He had been associated with the Ballard Ice Cream Co. 30 years.

Surviving are his wife, Estelle; a son, Emil D. Bray, Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Compton and Mrs. Lillian Wilson, Muncey; a grandchild and a great-grandchild.

Rites at 10 a.m. Thursday in Shirley Brothers Central Chapel will be followed by burial in Memorial Park.
