Two-Gun Man Says He Got Over $6000

Bean listed many out-of-town robbery victims, among them: Evansville Bowling Alley, Evansville, $300; Anderson Super Market, Anderson, $700; an unidentified Evansville bowling alley, $500; Lafayette bowling alley, $300; a Terre Haute drug store, $104; a super market in Muncie, $300; a bowling alley, Richmond, $120.

A Ft. Wayne Kroger super market, $1004; and a super market in a town he does not remember, $335.

Identifies Guns
Bean, scheduled for arraignment in Municipal Court 3, positively identified two foreign guns, a revolver and an automatic he used in most of the robberies. He said he owned another pistol but had loaned it to a friend.

Doctors Undecided on Siamese Separation

TOFIELD, Alberta, Nov. 22 (UP)—Doctors watched closely today the condition of newly born Siamese twin girls before deciding whether or not to perform an operation to separate them.

The infants, daughters of Mrs. Bud Townsend, wife of a gas company employee, were born last Thursday joined together at the abdomen.

Dr. W. H. Freebury said the girls were in a healthy condition, but added he could not state now whether it would be possible to separate them. He said they weighed nine pounds 12 ounces at birth.

Churches to Mark Thanksgiving

Prayer and Song To Feature Day

BY EMMA RIVERS MILNER Times Church Editor

Men and women of all faiths will express their gratitude for happenings of the past year and express their hopes and aims for the future in Thanksgiving services.

Some of the services will be held tomorrow night and others Thursday morning. Protestant services will be both united and individual.

All the Episcopal churches of the city will unite for an inter-parochial service Thursday at 10:30 a. m. in Christ Episcopal Church on the Circle. The Rev. Chester Minton, Veterans' Hospital chaplain, will preach. The Mens and Boys' Choir of the host church will sing. A host congregational service at 8 a. m. will precede the united program.

Plan Joint Service
The All Souls Unitarian Church and the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation will hold a joint service Thursday at 11 a. m. in the church in accordance with a custom of more than 40 years.

Dr. Norman B. Johnson, headmaster of the Park School, will speak. Dr. F. S. C. Wicks, church minister emeritus, will read the "Thanksgiving Proclamation."

Others assisting with the service are: Rabbi Maurice Goldblatt and Emeritus Rabbi Morris M. Feuerlicht of the Hebrew Congregation. Dr. E. Burdette Backus is All Souls minister.

Large numbers of Roman Catholics always attend mass on Thanksgiving Day officials report. This week they are bringing offerings of clothing and soap to the churches for shipment to the needy overseas.

Renew Marriage Vows
The Rev. Fr. Bernard Strange will say a special high mass Thursday at 9 a. m. in St. Rita's Catholic Church. Parents and children will receive Holy Communion together.

Following the mass, couples will renew their marriage vows and be given the church's blessing.

Peeling and baking are going forward at a great rate in the kitchen of the Evangelistic Center, 3518 Shelby St. Mrs. Marie La Fara (left), Mrs. Ethel Hightower and many other women of the center are preparing a Thanksgiving dinner for approximately 3000 needy persons.

ing for a renewed Christian life. The Christian Science churches and society of Indianapolis will hold their regular Thanksgiving Day services at 11 a. m. in the church edifices. Deputy Scalps Scalper Of Gridiron Tickets
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 22 (UP)—Harold Davis of Detroit decided today that he picked the wrong customer when he tried to scalp tickets to the Michigan-Ohio State football game.

He was fined $150 in municipal court after admitting that he tried to sell two tickets for $11 each to Deputy Sheriff Robert Shumacher.

Sex Crimes Stir Pleas for Curbs

3 Children Killed Within 10 Days

Citizens began demanding new laws to deal with sex criminals today as the nation was shocked by the third child slaying within 10 days.

In the latest case, Paul Gutierrez, a 25-year-old cotton picker, was charged with the rape-slaying of 18-month-old Josephine Yanez at Huron, Cal.

Authorities said evidence pointed directly to Gutierrez as the slayer but the migrant farm worker couldn't remember whether he killed the baby because he "blacked out" after a liquor and marijuana binge.

The new slaying came as Los Angeles authorities prepared to arraign Fred Strobbe, 66, who confessed murdering and mutilating 6-year-old Linda Joyce Giucotti when she resisted his drunken advances on Nov. 14. Strobbe, who will be arraigned Friday, said yesterday that "I deserve to die if anyone ever did."

Youth Waits Trial
In Idaho, Neil Butterfield, a 16-year-old hot rod driver, awaited trial on his confession that he killed 7-year-old Glenda Joyce Briscoe of Burley, Ida.

Butterfield denied molesting the girl although an autopsy showed she had been subjected to sexual indecencies.

In Minnesota, 7-year-old Vivian Shannon of Red Lake Falls was found after a widespread search. She told authorities she was abducted last yesterday by "a man in a black car."

She said her abductor released her this morning. Police said it was not known whether she had been molested, but that she would be examined by doctors. The search continued for her abductor.

Held in $50,000 Bond
Fast-acting Detroit police saved little Karen Kuechenmeister, 7, from a possible similar fate on the night of Nov. 15.

William B. Mabrey, 35, was held today under $50,000 bond for preliminary hearing Nov. 25 on charges that he kidnapped Karen from her home.

Police, alerted by Karen's father, captured Mabrey after an 80-mile-per-hour chase. Mabrey has pleaded innocent to the kidnapping charge but admitted trying to lure two other girls into his car.

Last Friday, Teresa Koenig, 19-year-old Navy employee from Arlington, Va., killed Charles K. Ellyett, 22, with his own gun when he threatened to destroy her and himself with dynamite unless she submitted to him. She was free on bond today awaiting trial for manslaughter.

Beat Off Degenerate
Three Illinois children told Joliet authorities that they beat off a degenerate attack yesterday by a stranger who picked them up in his car on their way to school. The children, Lois Anderson, 12, her brother Laverne, 10, and Phyllis Lane, 12, said they beat and scratched the man until he let them out of the car and sped away.

A group of 1000 Los Angeles citizens held a town meeting last night and demanded that the California Legislature be called into special session to enact new laws dealing with sex criminals.

Thanksgiving Banquet Set by Fraternity
Annual Thanksgiving eve banquet of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity will be held tomorrow at 7 p. m. at the Athenaeum when alumni from Purdue, Indiana University, Wabash and DePauw will assemble.

Speaker will be Lawrence H. Whiting of Chicago, president of the American Furniture Mart and a member of the fraternity.

Gales to Backtrack
LONDON, Nov. 22 (UP)—Winter gales which lashed north and western Europe from France to Scandinavia and cost at least 10 and probably 12 lives, yesterday, will sweep across the same region again tonight and tomorrow, weather forecasters said.

Bullitt Scores U. S. Effort To Put Heat on Ward Jailers

Recalls 'Big Stick' Wielded by Teddy; VFW Spokesman Banks on Truman

By OLAND D. RUSSELL, Scripps-Howard Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—News that our State Department had asked Russia and 29 other nations to intercede with the Chinese Communists to get Consul General Angus Ward out of jail brought some acid comments here today.

Among diplomatic observers opinion was widespread that nothing would come of it, and unless further steps were taken, our government representative and four of his aids would stay on in their Mukden, Manchuria, prison.

"It is strange," said William C. Bullitt, former American ambassador to Moscow and Paris, "that the nation which produced President Theodore Roosevelt's message—'Perdarius alive, or Raisuli dead!'—should be in the position of appealing to the Soviet dictator and his satellite subordinates, who deliberately and wilfully have rejected all the principles on which civilized relations are based."

"Stalin, of course, would be observed if he should order his subordinate dictator, the Chinese Mao Tse-tung, to release Consul General Ward."

"No appeal by any other government would have the slightest effect."

"Stalin always asks a high price for anything he does. Is the State Department contemplating the payment of a price to Stalin?"

The State Department admitted that the action was without precedent.

The U. S. Consul General in Communist-held Peking, Oliver E. Chubb, repeatedly has sought a personal interview with high officials of the Red regime. He has had to depend on written communications and so far these apparently have not even been acknowledged.

Some observers were quick to contrast France's speedy single-handed action in handling a similar case. When the Red Polish government seized a French consular agent, France promptly grabbed its members of a Polish lane crew and is holding them hostage until the affair is settled.

"It is high time," said Sen. Herbert R. O'Connor (D. M.), "that our government begin to talk to the Chinese Communist leader in the only language such lawless people understand—reprisals that will hurt."

Favors Blockade
"They should be requested to release Mr. Ward and his staff under penalty of the most severe economic crackdown this country has ever visited upon any nation. They should be advised that not only would they be prevented from receiving any food or other ity of the practice."

Twin, 95, Dies In Nursing Home

Rites Tomorrow for Roderick Irrgang

The second of the two oldest twins in the United States died here Sunday, two weeks after the death of his sister.

Roderick Irrgang, who was to have celebrated his 95th birthday Saturday, died in an Indianapolis nursing home after an illness of two years.

His sister, Mrs. Ann Bohem, died here.

Born in Germany
At the 1948 National Twins Association Convention here Mr. Irrgang and his sister were acclaimed the oldest living twins in the nation.

Born in Germany, Mr. Irrgang and his sister fled Europe to avoid political persecution. They found sanctuary in Indianapolis 61 years ago.

A retired machinist, Mr. Irrgang worked 20 years for the Chandler & Taylor Co., before his retirement. He was a member of the Lutheran Church and was formerly active in the Knights of Pythias.

Since his retirement 25 years ago he had lived in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Fred Galloway, R. R. 3, Box 522.

Services Tomorrow
The Rev. Clifford R. Lanman, pastor of the West Park Christian Church, will officiate in services at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Usher Mortuary.

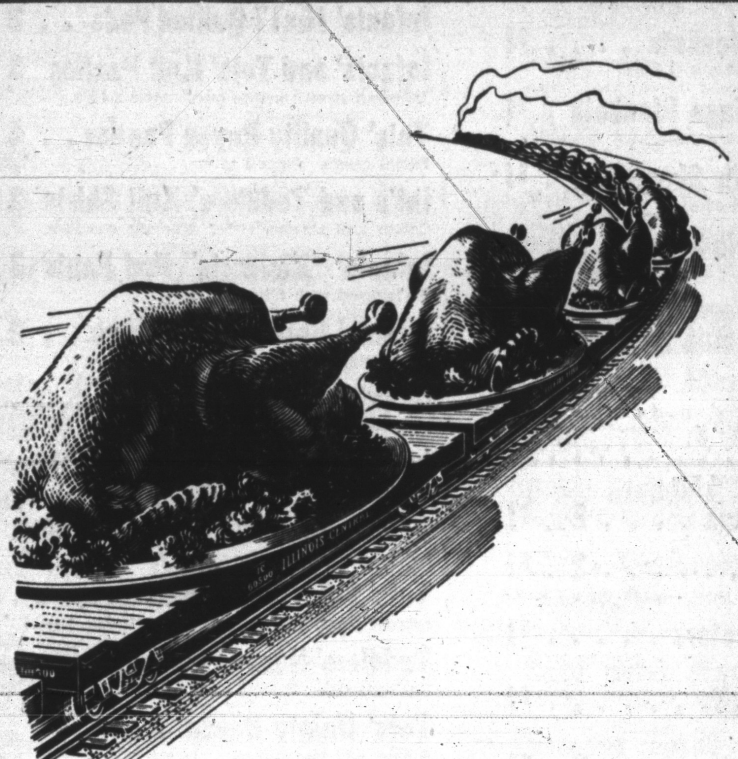

Burial will be in Memorial Park. Surviving are five sons, Otto, William, Richard and George Irrgang, Indianapolis, and Herman Irrgang, Seattle, Wash.; two other daughters, Mrs. Alvena Ellis, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Freda Hurst, Grand Rapids, Mich.; four grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Suspect Batters Open 'Unlocked' Safe

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22 (UP)—Burglary suspect Clifford L. Aubertin, 35, confessed to police how he carried off a 200-pound safe from an auto accessory shop and garage.

First, he lugged the bulky strongbox to his car. After driving to a secluded spot, he pushed the safe 200 yards up a hill and battered it open with a sledge hammer. Inside he found $3.80.

Officers who arrested Aubertin as he slept, resting from his labors, added the crushing blow. The safe was unlocked all the time.

Turkeys are better by the mile

Don't let fond memories of grandmother's day play you tricks. Your Thanksgiving turkey is broader and meatier across the breast, shorter and plumper of drumstick—gives you far more good eating per pound.

Raising such turkeys takes a big investment in proper shelter, skilled workers, special feed—a big bird may gobble up 60 or 80 pounds. Yet you probably pay less than if you raised it yourself.

We help make this true by providing low cost transportation for turkeys, their feed and all the good things that grace your Thanksgiving board. (We haul a ton of corn a mile for about 1 1/4 cents.)

We are thankful that we can do this job economically. Our average freight rate is only 17 per cent above that of 20 years ago. Yet we pay our people twice what they earned in 1929.

Illinois Central people earn more because $700,000,000 of railroad "tools" enable them to produce more. With such tools and such workers we intend to earn your continued friendship and patronage.
