Attucks to Give
Holiday Program

Wabash Honories
Pledge Local Students

The Crispus Attucks Night School will hold its annual Thanksgiving program at 7:30 p.m. today in the school auditorium.

Participating in the six-part program will be Harry Minor, Reginald Gibbs, Wilbur Chenuant, Max BonDurant and the Garfield Jubilee Quartet. Lawrence Holland will be master of ceremonies.

Members of the program committee are Mrs. Mabel Ammons, Mrs. Lois Mills, Harry Radcliffe and Mr. BonDurant.

Ten Indianapolis students have been pledged to three honoraries at Wabash college.

Selected for Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, were Bill Hershman, 33 E. 32d St.; Tom Cunningham, 34 Campbell Ave.; Tom Woerner, 1221 W. Bancroft Ave.; Dick Williams, 4618 E. 34th St.; Paul Jones, 5120 N. Pennsylvania St., and Fred Gallagher, 41 E. 37th St.

Named to Fraternity

Three men were named to Delta Phi Alpha, honorary German fraternity. They are Robert Brueck, 1251 Markwood Ave.; James Swope, 3755 Ruckle St., and Kurt Kaufman, 510 E. 61st St.

Charles Scott, R. R. 12, has been elected to Blue Key, national honor fraternity.

William A. Kleifgen, 121 N. Drexel Ave., has enrolled as a senior in the Creighton University school of medicine. Mr. Kleifgen is a graduate of Tech High School.
