

Mr. Jones, Meet The Master

by PETER MARSHALL

The Old Book records for us some amazing promises some startling assurances if we would only believe them.

He promised that we should have power—power—to do amazing things—grace—to do unnatural things, such as to harbor no grudges and to forgive those who hurt us to love even those who treat us unjustly or unkindly to pray for those who give us pain and grieve us to confess our own private and secret sins...

He Who made these promises is here with us now. Some of you may seek healing of body or mind or of soul.

Some of you may seek guidance on some problem.

Some of you need faith to stand up under the tensions and suspenses of life.

Some of you seek forgiveness and a new beginning.

All of us need to touch Christ for some reason or other.

Perhaps I can make some suggestions which will be helpful.

First, give God a chance. Take your problem, whatever it may be, to Him in prayer. Tell him all about it—just as if He didn't know a thing. In the telling be absolutely honest and sincere. Hold nothing back.

Then the second step is to believe that God will hear you. Remember that He heard the poor woman who only touched the hem of His garment. Believe with all your faith that He cares what happens to you. You must believe that. You can't doubt it when you look at the cross.

Next, you must be willing to wait patiently for the Lord. He does not answer every prayer on Sunday afternoon. You may have to wait until Friday. But wait. God is never in a hurry.

Then when He speaks to you—as He will—do what He tells you. He may not tell you audibly. You may not hear your voices—as did Joan of Arc. You may not see any writing in the sky and have any unusual experience. God could if He wanted, send you messages in that way, but that is not His usual method.

God speaks sometimes through our circumstances and guides us, closing doors as well as in opening them.

Reach out your faith—touch Him.

He will not ask "Who Touched Me?"

He will know.

'Cinderella' Quit School to Aid Family

Mother Lauds Daughter's Spirit
By ART WRIGHT

The entire Floyd D. Cook family of Morgantown today proudly recommended their 17-year-old breadwinner to The Times Cinderella Contest.

Mary Jane Cook is Cinderella to her mother and father, three brothers and two sisters, all of whom signed this nominating letter written by Mrs. Cook:

"My husband suffered a severe stroke last fall and was unable to work. In spite of the fact that Mary Jane loves school, and is an honor student, she gave up her senior year and obtained a job in an Indianapolis store to help keep our family well fed and clothed. Four of the children are in school. She also helped us to keep our new home, which her daddy built."

"From September until Christmas she turned over her complete wages to her family and always with a smile."

"After her daddy was well enough to work, she returned to school and is working hard to graduate in May. While her classmates are enjoying carefree evenings, she is truly a Cinderella among pots and pans. She must assume a mother's responsibility ties morning and evening as I must work to help out.

"We can never forget how much her help has meant to us all and we would like to give her all the joys Cinderella experienced."

The outstanding Cinderella in The Times Contest, judged from information in letters sent in, will receive $300 in cash. Second will get $100 and third, $50. The person nominating the winning Cinderella will receive $50.

When the 100 finalists appear on the stage of the Indiana Theater Apr. 5, the 97 runners-up each will receive a musical album of the Walt Disney Technicolor cartoon movie, "Cinderella" and Walt Disney Cinderella novelty jewelry. The picture opens that day at the Indiana.

Anyone may nominate any teen-age girl for Cinderella honors and cash. She may be a member of your family or someone you know. Keep letters brief and not more than 150 words. Send them by Sunday midnight to: Cinderella Contest, Indianapolis Times, 214 W. Maryland St.
