Dear Herb:

It is not a job well done -- but a great job you are doing! The Indianapolis Times has developed one of the finest companies to their hearts. It is indeed a great satisfaction to the business owner as well as the buyer to have a complete service of this kind. The Reader has benefited by this service in knowing that prospective clients are going to READ this section. It has helped us tremendously.

As far as our particular business is concerned -- The Indianapolis Times has done a magnificent job, and whatever success that we might attain, a large share should be credited to the Times.

In this hurrying world, we seldom take the time to thank other businesses or firms for our necessary services -- it is just more or less a matter of fact, but again I wish to say -- it's a great job you are doing!

Very truly yours,
GIL CARTER COMPANY
