Taxi Tourist Arrives Here On Cross-Country Jaunt

Film Star Makes Safety Drive

By R. K. SHULL

It was a tough struggle, but Bridget Carr, the taxi tourist of the film industry, finally made it to Indianapolis.

She's been on the road for three weeks now, making a Los Angeles to New York to Los Angeles jaunt around the country promoting a variety of items including:

The Yellow Cab Company, DeSoto automobiles, the National Safety Council, Loew's Theater, MGM's "The Yellow Cab Man," and, of course, Bridget Carr.

Keeps Up Appearance

Bridget has to keep up a fine appearance, since she is playing good will ambassador for so many businesses, so she didn't utter one whimper about the snow in Louisville, the early morning road trips, personal appearances, radio interviews and the sundry other items which are plugged into the itinerary of a traveling celebrity.

She's making this grand circuit of the U. S. in a Los Angeles cab piloted by Earl Riggs, who boasts a record of 26 years without an accident. Luckily, they've had no mishaps on the trip.

Only 19, brown-haired and sun-glassed, Bridget is just getting started in the films, with her work confined to minor roles. She has a small part in the picture she's now plugging.

In contrast to other stars and satellites coming to Indianapolis, Bridget thinks the Soldiers and Sailors Monument is "just swell," and even offered favorable comment on the other limestone edifices in our downtown area.

Unfortunately, the local police department felt that Bridget's venture was a little too commercial, so she won't have the official sanction to make safety awards to careful drivers here as she has done in other cities.

Her local business will consist of radio interviews and a few publicity shots, then she'll be on her way today to Columbus, O., then to her old home town, Toledo.

Hundreds Pay Last Tribute to Dale

Services Tomorrow For Leukemia Boy

Times Special

NORTH VERNON, Mar. 31

The white cross atop St. Mary's Catholic Church will look down tomorrow on hundreds of people as they file into the red brick house of worship.

From all about this southern Indiana farming community they will come to pay last respects to Dale Roger Back, the 16-year-old leukemia victim who died Tuesday in New York City.

Services for the "fighting" youth, whose courage couldn't quite match the dread disease, will be held at 9 a. m., in the church with burial in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Dear to All

From 3 p. m. today until services tomorrow, Dale's body will lie in state in the farm home where for three years he battled cancer of the blood. The Rev. Fr. Omer Eisenman will conduct the ceremony.

And so will close a chapter in the life of North Vernon—a chapter which has become dear to the hearts of all. These very people who come to pay respects from the heart, paid generously from their pockets, hoping the collected funds would buy health for Dale.

Dale was flown to New York's Lenox Hill Hospital where he underwent treatments of the wonder drug ACTH. His type of leukemia, however, failed to respond to the injections.

Fund to Continue

Nevertheless, the Dale Roger Back Leukemia Fund will continue, marked to grow so future Hoosier victims of the disease may draw upon it if they are in need.

In death Dale has returned to the place of his birth 16 short years ago. He will be remembered by the townsfolk for the courage noted by all who came in contact with him.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Back; four brothers, Leo of the U.S. Navy and John, William and Robert; North Vernon; a half-brother, Ervin Back and two half-sisters, Mrs. William Osborn and Mrs. Clarence Gillman, all of Brookville.
