New Southport School Likely
Board Studies Plan For $240,000 Bonds
Construction of a $240,000 junior high school in Southport loomed today as the State Tax Board took under advisement a petition to approve school building bonds to the amount of $240,000.
Seventy-five Perry Township taxpayers appeared before the board yesterday in support of the issue. Noble W. Hollar, chairman of the board, said decision on the bond issue would be made within a few days.
Contribute $200,000
The township accumulated school building fund would contribute $200,000 to the building of the school.
Nelson P. Swift, Perry Township trustee, told the board the proposed building would accommodate 1200 seventh-, eighth- and ninth-graders and would include 24 classrooms, a cafeteria and boiler room.
A 30-acre site for the new school already has been selected and approved by the State Board of School Building Construction, Mr. Swift said.

Marks 50 Years

Rudolph A. Johnson
... 50 years with U. S. Rubber Co.
There will be a little ceremony today at the U. S. Rubber plant here, but it will be big and important for Rudolph A. Johnson. Tomorrow will mark the end of his 50th year with the company.
He lives at 51 Ridgeview Ave. and has been with the plant here 15 years. He entered service with the Hartford Rubber Works, Hartford, Conn., Apr. 1, 1900, at the age of 12.
He was the first president of the 25-Year Club. And he will be the first person in Indianapolis to reach the 50-year service mark.
