

Last Day for Filing Expected to Result In Three-Ring Circus

'Horse Traders' and 'Swappers' Due Out
In Force as Primary Deadline Nears

By IRVING LEIBOWITZ

POLITICS blooms into a three-ring circus today at the Court- house.

Today is the day the politicians—out the strips that put many machine candidates out in front, is the last day for candidates to file in the May primary.

For a ringside seat at Marion County's political circus visit the election room on the 4th floor of the Courthouse. It will be open until midnight.

There you can get an education in county politics that will amaze some, fool others and plain flabbergast still others.

The 'horse traders' and 'swappers' will be out in full force giving and taking candidates.

It is an experience the voters would benefit to observe.

CLARENCE F. MERRELL joined the Democratic fight for the Circuit Court judgeship today against George Ober, Speedway magistrate.

Mr. Merrell, former president of the Indianapolis Bar Association, served as a member of President Truman's United States Military Tribunals trying major war criminals in Germany.

Another Democratic candidate expected to file for Circuit Court late today is former Circuit Court Judge Earl R. Cox.

FROSEYUTOR GEORGE DAILEY finally got an opponent in the Democratic race for prosecutor when former Municipal Court Judge John McNells filed.

CITY WORKS Board member Henry (Heine) Mueller entered the race for Center Township Trustee on the Democratic ticket.

THE Republican 'rebel' organization which has been giving the GOP county machine a rough political road to travel, ran into trouble itself.

Glenn Funk's American Way Republican rancorization party hit a roadblock when Walter Ernest Hemphill switched his candidacy from the treasurer's race to the fight for county clerk.

Mr. Hemphill, who accepted switch pits two American Wayers now finds himself in competition with H. Dale Brown, Paul B. Brewer, Ralph F. Moore and Frank P. Huse Jr.

Mr. Hemphill's last minute support of the American Wayers, against each other, Mr. Moore, another insurgent Republican, has the support of the American Wayers. Party leaders tried to keep Mr. Hemphill in treasurer's race.

DEMOCRATS were "surprised" when James P. Scott filed for County Assessor.

Mr. Scott, long-time Democratic politician and one-time candidate for sheriff, opened an early campaign for sheriff but changed his mind when he got a look at the heavy list of hopefuls seeking the four-year job.

The Democratic list now includes incumbent James Cunningham, Raymond A. Howard, Charles G. Burkett, Charles Jerry Lakin, Charles L. (Buck) Summer, William James Brown and Tony Malo.

THE first woman to file for recorder on the Republican ticket in Marion County is Mrs. Mamie E. Hurt. She is opposed by three men, Carl R. Lich, Oliver Bell and Harry B. Alford.

Two women, however, have filed on the Democratic ticket—Mayne P. Badger and Mary Francis Shackelford. Sole male on Democratic ticket is A. Prentiss Stevens.

JOHN A. WEINBRECHT, former chief clerk of the city engineer's office, filed for state representative on the Democratic ticket. Another Democratic candidate for the legislature is Norman W. McClure.

RAID POKER GAME Ten men were arrested early today in a police raid on a poker game. William Allison, 46, 29 W. Ninth St., was charged with keeping a gambling house. The others were charged with visiting.
