They Argue Over Worth Of Hand

No One Offers Obvious Bid

MRS. RHULE, the "book" player, was down one at her rather aimless contract of four diamonds. But her husband was far from displeased. "I am delighted with the result of this hand," he said. "It proves the old-time experts are best."

"What do you mean, dear?" asked Mrs. Rhule.

"Well," he answered, "you didn't have a play for four diamonds. And yet Goren gives our combined hands 27 points enough for four-odd with something to spare.

Karpin is even more liberal. He gives us 35 points. But the old-timers are more accurate. For example, Bissell gives us 9½ tricks. Whitehead gives us only 9½.

"How about Winslow, sweetheart?" inquired Mrs. Rhule.

Winslow Is Optimist

Mr. Rhule thought for a few moments. Then, "By George," he said, "Winslow says we can take 11½ tricks with this hand... on the other hand, there is Courtney who says we can take only six!"

Here Mr. Dale stepped in. "I don't want to appear stodgy," he said, "but had you thought of three no trump? I really believe Goren, Karpin, Courtney, Winslow, Bissell or Whitehead might have actually reached that contract. And you had nine cold tricks."

"And how," asked Mrs. Rhule acidly, "would you have bid it?"

Invents an Expert

Why I would have opened your hand with one no trump and my partner would have bid three no trump," Mr. Dale replied.

"And by whose authority?" thundered Mr. Rhule.

At this point Mr. Dale was man-

British-Type Ties Just the Thing for Papa

BRITISH TYPE

neckwear—neater patterns and narrower shapes—is becoming more and more important in fashions for men. Typical of the trend is the John Bull collection of Signet ties just unwrapped at Ayres.

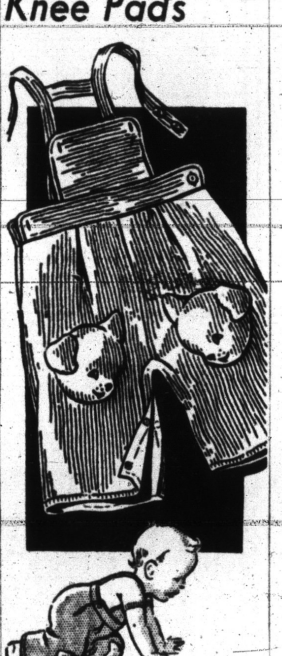

Even if papa shows up in the Easter parade with but one bit of new wearing apparel, he'd probably be happy if it were one of the John Bull ties.

THE FIVE pictured are of imported silk foulards in Old World colors—the soft, muted colorings that originally made imported foulard ties famous. (The dusky colorings blend perfectly with oxford shirt-irings.)

Patterns ARE neater, being for the most part geometrical in inspiration or with neat challis-print effects. The narrower shape also lends itself to the new, narrower knot worn with pin collar shirts.

The ties are $3.50, with a $2 price tag for the bow styles... which have, of course, adjustable neckbands.

Tips on How To Prepare New Lawn

Care in Preparing Feed Bed Urged

How do experienced gardeners approach the making of a new lawn? The L. R. Groendykes, building a lawn around their new home at 9600 E. Raymond St., started out last fall with additional seeding this spring. But certain points they observed should help spring lawn makers, too.

For example, they prepared the seed bed carefully so small grass plants wouldn't have to fight clods. They fertilized heavily but saw to it that chemicals got watered in so they wouldn't burn young grass.

And wherever a spot of hardpan or gravel cropped up this spring they put on a thick layer of compost before they sowed any more seed.

Should you bury rubbish or not bury rubbish when you want drainage under your newly planted rosebushes? "Don't do it," says Dr. E. J. Nugent, Rose Society president. "The books mostly advise it, but it's not good practice, nevertheless."

Safer way to get drainage, if yours is one of these pancake flat back yards, is to raise the bed somewhat by working in some humus with the soil.

Another pointer—unless you're sure any mature you're using is really rotted so it can't burn roots, it's safer to use it as a mulch on top of the soil than to bury it around plant roots.

Changing Hubby's Hat

If your husband decides to change the shape of his hat, use your steam iron to take the old creases out and steam in the new style.

DISHING the DIRT

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor

Q—I have some tulips which have been planted for two years. I want to know when is the best time to take up the bulbs and how to keep them until planting time again. Camp St.

A—Do not dig your tulip bulbs until after they have bloomed this spring and the foliage has had plenty of time to turn yellow. During the period between blooming and complete yellowing of leaves give the tulip bed some chemical fertilizer and also water if weather turns dry. That will help bulbs to package up good-sized flowers for next year. When the bulbs show by their yellowed leaves that they are through work for the season, dig them and let them dry. Store them in a dry place until mid-October.

Holy Rosary PTA Sets Spring Bazaar

The PTA of the Holy Rosary School will sponsor a spring bazaar Apr. 13 in the Holy Rosary Hall. Mrs. Kenneth Wolskoff is chairman of the event. She is assisted by Mrs. John Tolle.

Booth chairmen are Mesdames Alfred Renssio, John Romano Jr., Marion Quattrocchi, Sammy Burrello, Owen Sweeney, Tolle, Theresa Pangalib and Marvin Neese.

Vacations in N. Y.

Miss Carolyn Anne Jaffe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Jaffe, 5406 N. Delaware St., is spending spring vacation in New York City.

Stop Candle Drip

If your candles aren't the drip-less kind, you can correct the dripping. Just chill them in the refrigerator for 24 hours before using them. They will burn evenly and won't drip.

FOR PRECIOUS CARGO... There's no substitute for EASTERN'S EXPERIENCE

Every day hundreds of Mothers and Dads, with their children, fly Eastern. They fly Eastern because they have the utmost faith in the thoughtful, courteous treatment they receive from every man and woman of Eastern Air Lines.

They know their babies are serenely comfortable while traveling by air. The low, soothing tone of the powerful engines lulls them into restful sleep. The healthful routine, to which babies are accustomed, is undisturbed.

Mothers and Dads fly Eastern because of the special care given their little ones—such things as warming a bottle or preparing baby foods to mother's instructions. Important, too, babies fly as our special guests (one child in arms under two flies free of charge). Where precious cargo is concerned, there's no substitute for Eastern's experience.
