 Public to Be Spoiled by Great
Events by Just Turning Dial

By Earl Wilson

NEW YORK, Apr. 13—Lucky all of us!

Today we're rich with free entertainment and getting richer. In the next three, four or five years, we're going to be spoiled by the great entertainment we're given just for turning a dial.

Well, we're all willing to be spoiled.

I thought of this anking along Broadway from Bing Crosby's radio show to Bob Hope's one-shot television show.

They were dramatizing it, Bing and Bob, the battle between radio and television, and the programs and the networks... and we, the public, are the lucky recipients of the free shows.

Bing was at CBS Playhouse No. 2 with Fred Allen cutting a record for a radio program to be heard May 17. Bing Crosby a month after Bing's gone to Europe.

Now that's a pretty good show there—Crosby and Fred. And Bill Morrow, Bing's producer, had done a great "scripting job."

Fred came in a couple of seconds late, explaining that he'd thought the applause, when his name was announced, would last longer.

"They forgot you," said Bing who had on a jacket, for a change over his rainbow-colored shirt. "Sic transit gloria."

"GLORIA SWANSON?" said Fred, then he added, "Sic transit—that's riding in an ambulance isn't it?"

Fred, claiming he was unable to get work, wanted to be the announcer, and insisted his voice was as good as Arthur Godfrey's. "When Godfrey sings," Fred said, "they have to step on a bullfrog to get the pitch."

Bing up to now has no interest in television, but Bob is eager, and I found him at the Nola Studios, upstairs over Lindy's with Douglas Fairbanks Jr. and various writers and assistant genuses working on the Easter 4000 show.

That reminded me of another line from Bing's program. "Hope made so much money
