Ask Mrs. Manners— Don't Treat Your Man Like a Slave or a Dog

DEAR MRS. MANNERS:
THE "MISSUS" who wrote she can't keep her husband home should treat him as a husband, not a slave and hound dog. Sex, bad management, parties without his company, and expecting him to do his day's work and hers so she can sleep, take in shows, parties and dances, even have dates, could cause trouble.

It could be, too, that she does not welcome his presence at home. Any of these things would drive a good man to roaming and drinking. I am amazed at the troubles had by folks. I've been married 15 years. Work is the only place my sweet wife of 15 years and our children aren't with me. I think the world of them.

STEADY COLUMBUS READER
I like that comment about a wife not welcoming her husband's presence at home. "Mr. Columbus." Often she doesn't. He gets her off her schedule, he needs feeding, he and his friends track up her house. An unhealthy atmosphere develops when a woman thinks of the house as hers alone. The only time she lets her husband in on those things she's doing to make it a home is at the first of the month when the bills come in.

A husband is as much to blame as the wife. It's infuriating to work and sew all day and have a man come in without a word of praise. Maybe he doesn't know anything about hemstitching and such, but surely he sees the general effect. Another thing. Telling a wife the dinner is good after she drags the compliment from him or saying occasionally she's a good cook won't convince her. She wants praise and companionship regularly.

Sex Crime Cause?
AMERICAN WOMEN are causing a wave of rapings and sex crimes by their lewdness and flaunt-and-brzen exposure. They go practically naked in public and pose in scanty attire.

Are the people who publish just-creating pictures and put on public exhibitions of bathing beauties, etc., contributing to the delinquency, immorality, and uncontrollable lust of the psychopathic sex maniac? Are these practices degrading and disgracing American womanhood?
E. F. M.

Ask a psychiatrist about sex maniacs. I have a feeling those mentally sick people would still be sick if women wore longies.

Money a Problem
I'VE BEEN A WIFE, and a good one, for 20 years and I don't agree with this stuff about forever trying to please a husband. My husband sticks around the house, sometimes too much, so I must be satisfactory. What started me off was watching a woman and man huddled together downtown. She evidently was asking for money and was having trouble getting it. Maybe he was saving his pride by managing the money, but what about her pride? Her clothes were worn and the three children who clung to her needed shoes. It took nerve for her to go downtown. It took courage to tell herself she preferred her life to a life that would

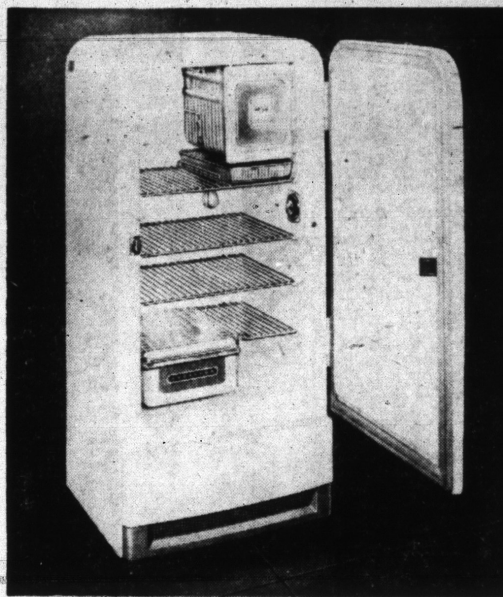

'HAPPY MEDIUM' LAXATIVE FINE FOR OLDER FOLKS

When you're getting along in years, it's especially important to take a laxative that doesn't go to extremes. That's why millions of older folks put their trust in Ex-Lax. They know, from experience, that Ex-Lax is not too strong, not too mild . . . not too fast, not too slow—it's the "Happy Medium." Ex-Lax brings effective relief in an easy, natural-like way. It is so dependable that many doctors use it in their practice. Ex-Lax tastes good, too—just like delicious chocolate. Try Ex-Lax yourself. Still only 10¢. No better laxative at any price. Not too strong, not too mild—
