

ASTHMA COUGHERS Give Thanks for LUCKY DISCOVERY

You, thousands who sneezed and coughed with bronchial asthma and who's sleep was disturbed by the wheezing and rattling of the chest, thank the lucky discovery of KENDADO. This is the new KENDADO, a new medicine that works through the blood stream reaching the lungs and bronchial tubes. Also because KENDADO usually works so fast to help relieve thin, loose and clean out thick, sticky, straining mucus when you have free breathing, coughing is alleviated and better sleep time promised. Get KENDADO from your druggist today. Inside nothing else will do and take this opportunity to join the happy thousands who give thanks for their lucky discovery of KENDADO.

Research, Firm Names
Six Hoosier Scientists
Six Hoosier scientists, all university or college faculty members, have been named to participate in a $250,000-research allocation by Research Corp., New York City.

They include L. M. Langer and R. W. Thompson, Indiana University; Howard Burkett, DePaul University; William E. Trice, Purdue University; C. C. Price, University of Notre Dame; and Clayton M. Ziemann, Wabash College.

Davis Y. Byrkit Rites Tomorrow

Former GOP Worker
Here Dies in Illinois

Davis Y. Byrkit, former Marion County draftsman and active Republican Party worker, will be buried in Washington Park after services at 3:30 p. m. tomorrow in Shirley Brothers Central Chapel.

A draftsman for the county 20 years, he retired and moved to Wilmette, Ill., several months ago. He died there Monday in the home of his son, Kenneth. He was 74.

Mr. Byrkit was born in Indianapolis and formerly was employed at the New York Central Shops, Beech Grove, 24 years, where he worked in the mechanical engineering department.

He was a GOP precinct committeeman many years. He also was a member of Broadway Baptist Church, North Park Masonic Lodge and Sahara Grotto.

In addition to his son, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James H. Otto, and a sister, Mrs. Bertha B. Strader, both of Indianapolis, and three grandchildren.

Irwin B. Jacobs

Rites for Irwin B. Jacobs, 412 E. Market St., who died Sunday in his home, will be at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in Harry W. Moore Peace Chapel. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Mr. Jacobs, who was 46, was night watchman for the State Highway Commission. He previously was employed by the Indianapolis Park Board. A lifelong Indianapolis resident, he was a member of the Woodside Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Minnie; four sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Schmidt, Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Marietta Bonshib, Ft. Wayne; Mrs. Lillian Hauck, Indianapolis; and Mrs. Claribel Woodsma, Miami, Fla., and two brothers, Ralph R., Indianapolis, and Robert L., Jacksonville, Ill.

L. L. Eggerding Services Friday

Services for Louis Ludwig Eggerding, 630 Terrace Ave., will be at 2:30 p. m. Friday in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Burial will be in Concordia Cemetery.

Mr. Eggerding died yesterday in Methodist Hospital. He was 73. A maintenance employee at Technical High School eight years, he previously was custodian 10 years at St. Paul's Church, of which he was a member. He was a millwright 18 years for Indianapolis Drop Forging Co.

Born in Red Bud, Ill., he lived in Indianapolis 35 years. Surviving are his wife, Ida; four sons, Arthur, Elmer and Edward, all of Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Alfred, Indianapolis; a daughter, Miss Teckla Eggerding, Indianapolis; a brother, Ernest, St. Louis; 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Miss Elizabeth Ewing

Miss Elizabeth B. Ewing, 2842 Park Ave., a retired librarian, died last night after suffering a heart attack in the home of a friend, Frank P. McCoy, 4837 Kenwood Ave. She was 75.

Miss Ewing, who lives with her brother, Jesse F. Ewing, had resided in Indianapolis nine years. She was a native of Mitchell, where she was librarian for 15 years. She was a member of the Mitchell Methodist Church and White Cross Guild.

Services will be at 10 a. m. Friday in Flanner & Buchanan Mortuary. Burial will be in Mitchell. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. Jesse D. Wood, Phoenix, Ariz.

August C. Robinson

A requiem high mass for August C. Robinson, 1013 N. Olney St., will be sung at 10 a. m. tomorrow in Little Flower Catholic Church after services at 9:30 a. m. in Harry W. Moore Peace Chapel. Burial will be in Greenlawn Cemetery, Franklin.

Mr. Robinson died Monday in a nursing home. He was 65. He was born at Pittsburgh, and operated a tool and die shop 15 years behind his home. A niece, Mrs. Pauline Sanders, Indianapolis, survives.

Rites Tomorrow For Mrs. Neff

Dies in Cincinnati
While on Trip

Services for Mrs. Margaret Alene Neff, 21 N. High School Road, will be at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in Conkle West Sixteenth Street Funeral Home. Burial will be in Memorial Park.

Mrs. Neff, who was 48, died Monday as she and her husband, Herbert, drove through Cincinnati en route to Middletown, O., to visit her brother, Charles Yut-meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Neff owned and operated Neff Cleaners, 3904 Rockville Road, the last several years. A native of Fontanet, Vigo County, she lived in Indianapolis 40 years. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Also surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Yut-meyer, and a sister, Mrs. Christian Williams, Indianapolis, and another brother, Frank Yut-meyer, Martinsville.

Charles R. Greenwood

Charles R. Greenwood, 526 N. Livingston Ave., will be buried in Floral Park after services at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in Conkle West Michigan Street Funeral Home.

Mr. Greenwood, who was 82, died Monday in his home. He molder at Prest-O-Lite, Inc., but retired in 1925. A resident of Indianapolis 40 years, he was a member of the Independence Order of Odd Fellows and Fairfax Christian Church.

Survivors include two sons, Bert and Walter, Indianapolis; a daughter, Mrs. Josie Baker, Westport, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

LILIBET GETS READY

LONDON, July 5 (UP)—Princess Elizabeth will have her second baby at her Clarence House residence in London, reliable sources said today. Complete medical facilities are being installed in a room of the house, which is near St. James Palace.

Mrs. Ellen Daggy Rites at Thornton

Services for Mrs. Ellen Daggy, who died Sunday in Witham Hospital, Lebanon, were held here this morning. Burial was in Maple Lawn.

A lifelong Thornton resident, Mrs. Daggy, who was 71, was active in the Methodist Church here.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Harry Seale, Logansport; Mrs. Norman Morrison, Craw-fordville; a son, Willard Jr.; a brother, Dr. Thomas Woody, Philadelphia, and two sisters, the Misses Martha and Lucy Woody, Thornton.

Chicken Dinner Set

The parish of the St. Lawrence Catholic Church has scheduled a chicken dinner Sunday from 3 to 8 p. m. and a card party at 8 p. m. tomorrow on the church property. Mrs. Forrest Hibbs and Mrs. Margaret Ollis will serve as party hostesses. Mrs. V. V. Ragdale is chairman for the Sunday dinner.

SUMMER SLACKS

Wrinkle resistant
Tropicals in all colors
HARRY LEVINSON
Illinois and Market—37 N. Penn.

S

A MEMORABLE TRIBUTE

A truly beautiful funeral service is more than a source of consolation and comfort at the time of the event—it is a tribute you'll always remember and treasure through the years.

Shirley Brothers uses its experience and all of its professional knowledge and skill in the preparation for and conducting of each funeral service. Friendly understanding . . . courtesy . . . and complete relief from burdensome detail await all who come here. Selection of a price level (more than 15 price levels available, several selections at each) is purely a matter of individual choice; and has no bearing upon the extent of Shirley Brothers' services.

Every Shirley Brothers funeral is a tribute of genuine beauty—truly a remembered service.

Shirley Brothers
TRULY A REMEMBERED SERVICE

AYRES' DOWNSTAIRS STORE

CLEARANCES!
MARK DOWNS!

SPECIAL PURCHASES!
ODDS and ENDS!

JULY SALES

Open ALL DAY
SATURDAYS

OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAYS
Shop Tuesday thru Saturday
9:00 to 5:25
CLOSED MONDAYS

The Smartest Women in Town Know It's Wise to Shop Ayres' Cool Store-On-One-Floor Fashion Center!

Icy-Cool Fashions for the Woman of Taste!

Designed for the Hot Days Ahead!

Misty-Cool Rayon Bemberg

Print DRESSES

5.98

Sheer Beauties for the Half Size Figure!

Note These Points as Shown on the Certified Rayon Bemberg Tag!

1. SHRINKAGE!
2. WASHABILITY!
3. SEAM STRENGTH!
4. SLIPPAGE!
5. TENSILE STRENGTH!
6. CONSTRUCTION!
7. YARN UNIFORMITY!

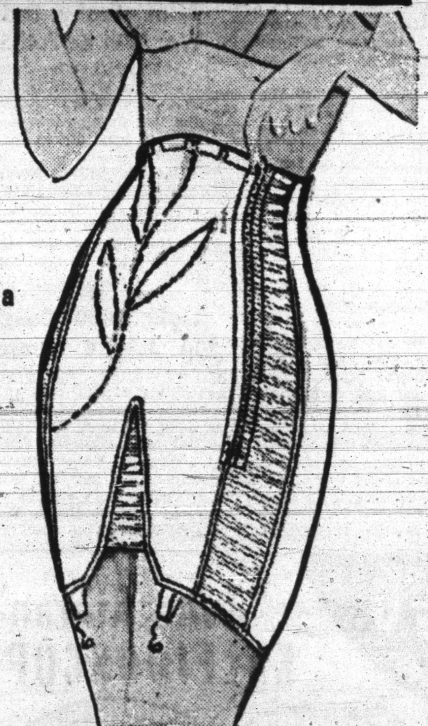

Whether vacation-bound or staying at home . . . you'll love and live in these frosty-cool RAYON BEMBERG SHEER DRESSES . . . styled especially for half size figures! You'll appreciate the careful detailing, the youthful lines, the perky prints and stripes . . . and the dazzling pastel or dark color combinations! So popular because they're HAND WASHABLE, these sheers will take you anywhere in your busy life in well dressed comfort.

FASHION DRESSES, Section 2, Downstairs at AYRES'

Special Purchase

Designed for a Woman's Summertime
Comfort!

Famous
"Society Girl"

ALL NYLON
Stepin GIRDLES

3-Inch Non-Roll Elastic Top!

* Soft Tealose
Color!

5.95

Fashion begins with a good foundation . . . and this is it! Airy-light, cool, ALL NYLON "Society Girl" girdles! High-riding, three-inch, non-roll elastic top! Invisible boning in front and back. Talon closing! Rayon satin elastic back for up and down stretch! Easy to launder . . . quick drying! Comfortable support! Two-way woven NYLON elastic side panels. 14", 27 to 32; 16", 27 to 34. Also with rayon satin front with latex back.

CORSETS, Section 3, Downstairs at AYRES'

A. Sizes 16½ to 24½ in smart colors of GREY and AQUA.

B. Sizes 18½ to 24½ in your choice of GREEN,
BLUE and PINK.