

For Women

The Social Calendar—

Society Is Scattered; Few Parties in Sight For Stay-at-Homes

Dog Days Have Hit Hoosierdom Hard Blow; Clubs Have Little to Offer for Amusement

By MARJORIE TURK

AUGUST HAS BECOME the official vacation month. With society scattered to lake and mountain resorts the town and country clubs have hung up the "nothing's doing" notice.

The Propylaeum and the University Club have virtually closed down and are using the 31 days to spruce up the premises for the post-Labor Day season.

The Indianapolis Athletic Club will have its regular Friday night buffet-dances and the Columbia Club will have dancing on Fridays and Saturdays. But there will be no organized parties and no extras like the ladies' luncheon-bridges which highlight the calendar in other months.

The Saturday night parties in the summer garden of the Athenaeum will continue through August with a Maennerchor concert, skit and ox-barbecue being planned as added features.

Neither the Highland Golf and Country Club nor the Woodstock Club have any events scheduled for the membership as a whole. However the regular golfing, tennis and swimming programs will be available for the stay-at-homes.

The Meridian Hills Country Club has no events during the first weeks of the month. The club's working frantically to complete new quarters. When the building is finished, and it may be this month, partying will be resumed.

Outlook Grim
On the cultural front the outlook is equally grim for those who remain in the city. The last opera of the Starlight Musical, "The Great Waltz," begins today and runs through Sunday. After that all footlights on the local boards will be out.

The social calendar through August follows:
Aug. 1-6 — Starlight Musical presents "The Great Waltz" in the State Fairgrounds.
Aug. 5 — Summer-time party in the Indianapolis Country Club.

Aug. 5 — Dinner-dance in the Hillcrest Country Club.
Aug. 5 — Dinner-dance in the Athenaeum.

Aug. 9 — Luncheon and swimming party for the Dolphins of the Indianapolis Athletic Club in the home of Mrs. Frank O. Goode, Conover Road.

Aug. 12 — Maennerchor concert in the Athenaeum.
Aug. 19 — Cape Cod dinner party in the Indianapolis Country Club.

Aug. 19 — Fish fry in the Hillcrest Country Club.
Aug. 19 — Theater party in the Athenaeum.

Aug. 20 — Junior dance in the Hillcrest Country Club.
Aug. 26 — Ox-barbecue in the Athenaeum.

Eva Woodlock To Be Wed
Aug. 19 Date Set For Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Woodlock, 4818 W. 13th St. announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Eva Nell, to Trenton D. Gipson. The couple will be married at 2:30 p. m., Aug. 19, at the Springfield Avenue Church. The Rev. Kenneth E. Thorne will officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Driscoll, Danville, the parents of the prospective bridegroom.
The couple will be attended by Mrs. A. W. Pratt, Lexington, Ky., matron of honor; Mrs. Frank Woodlock, Miss Elizabeth Wallace, of Arcadia, Mrs. Frank Woodlock, Miss Betty Dye, bridesmaids; Paul Bradford, Ayon, best man; and the Rev. Kenneth E. Thorne, officiant.

The bride-to-be attended Butler University. The prospective bridegroom is attending Canby College where he is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Messings Will Entertain
Miss Jane Messing and Kenneth Richard Kleinschmidt will be honor guests at a bridal dinner at 7:30 p. m. Friday, in the Hawthorn Room. The couple will be married at 4:30 p. m., Saturday, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Messing, parents of the bride-to-be, will be hosts.

Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kleinschmidt, parents of the prospective bridegroom; the Rev. Rudolph W. Locker, Messrs. and Mesdames T. W. Engle, Victor M. Knight, Norman Meek, A. E. R. Mueller, and Walter Muehsamann, Mrs. Hazel Boggs, and Joseph Messing.

Out-of-town guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Driscoll, Misses Nancy and Carol Joanne Driscoll, Lorraine O. Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Etherington, Park Forest, Ill.; Miss Joan Holmes, Chicago, and James Barbieri, Bluffton, Ind.

Trip to Texas
Mr. and Mrs. Lowell C. Reed, 3334 College Ave., and their son, Jack, will leave tomorrow for a two-week vacation in Dallas, Tex. Mrs. D. S. MacLeod, 5272 Cornelia Ave., and her children, Betty and Jack, will accompany them.

Club Will Meet
Miss Marie Hanson, 2150 Park Ave., will be hostess to the Bide-A-Wee Club at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Card Party Will Be Thursday

Taking telephone reservations for Thursday's PTA card party are (left to right) Mrs. Robert E. Kelley, Mrs. B. C. Milburn and Mrs. Frank Harrington. They are on the ways and means committee of the party sponsors—the Past Presidents of the PTA. The event will be at 1:30 p. m. in the Food Craft Shop.

Ribbon Winners Display Works In County 4-H Shows Today

Finalists are announced in the 4-H Wayne township show held Friday. The blue ribbon winners are displaying their projects today through Thursday in the County show in Ipaeco Hall. Exhibitors are:

Donna Barnard, Linda Burkhardt, Jacqueline Chambers, Shanda Cook, Diane Culley, Carolyn Fogleman, Marilyn Harvey, Sylvia Herndon, Brenda Johnson, Susan Nachoff, Donna Sterrett, Linda Thompson, Nedra White, Margaret Wright, and Barbara Neill, plain loaf cakes.

Paul Abbott, Goldie Ayres, Barbara Barnhart, Pauline Barton, Joyce Herd, Arlene Hoover, Lois Jones, Virginia Jones, Lois Kettle, Shirley Nachoff, Judy Shuler, Norman Vogel and Carol White, drop cookies.

Barbara and Emilie Ristow, Janet Sawyers, Edith Shadley, Sue Timmons and Nancy Hayes, angel food cakes; Annette Hunt, Phyllis Lane and Georganne Cassidy, yeast rolls; Ann Abbott, June Hanneman, Marilyn Phillips, Noia Smith and Elizabeth Vogel, cakes.

Lynda Wilson, room improvement; Annette Hunt, handicraft, and Mary D. Hoover, gardening.

Family Frolic Is Planned

The annual Family Frolic sponsored by the Shortridge PTA will be held Nov. 17, Mrs. Addison M. Dowling, chairman, announces.

She will be assisted by Don Knight and Kenneth Peterman. Committee chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Buell, auditorium show; Dr. and Mrs. Harold C. Ochsner, bake shop; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ross, cashiers; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Roberts Jr., check; Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Vandiver and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wiles, coffee shop; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Sinclair, country store.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Browning, fashion show; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Pohlman, fortune telling; Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hooster, frolic queen; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shadlow, games; Dr. and Mrs. Harold M. Truesler, gift shop; Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Jink, information bureau; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McNally, international casino; Mr. and Mrs. Graeme B. Supple, movies; and Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Raup, picture taking.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Fechtman, refreshments; Mr. and Mrs. G. Woodward, procurement; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Collins and Mr. and Mrs. William W. Peterson, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. Blaine H. Miller Jr., soft drinks; and Mr. and Mrs. J. Dwight Peterson, tickets.

Sorority Sets Party

The Kappa Kappa Gamma party of Iota Chapter, Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, will be held from 3 to 5 p. m. Aug. 13. Mrs. Silas Reagan, 7808 N. Pennsylvania St., will be hostess.

Invitations have been issued to all women students entering DePauw University this fall and active and alumnae members of the sorority.

Indianapolis actives who will be present are Miss Carol King and Miss Carolyn Compton, co-chairmen; Misses Carolyn Clift, Barbara Brewer, Anne Huseman, Betty Van der Kerkhof, and Betty Van der Kerkhof.

Local alumnae who will be at the party are Mesdames John Tucker, Richard C. Clift, Robert Brewer, Don Compton, Dan Crichlow, Bert Cluser, Robert P. Knowle, Irvin Sedbury, Carlton Hamm and John Hillman.

Actives to Attend
Other active members present will be Miss Julia Avery and Miss Cynthia Cline, Columbus, Ind.; Miss Barbara Butler, Marion; Miss Emily Clifford, Kokomo; Miss Carol Reimling, Oak Park, Ill.; Miss Barbara Beberstein, Ft. Wayne; Miss Nancy Pitney, St. Louis; Miss Barbara Pittz, Pontiac, Ill.; Misses Alice and Betty Gross, Shelbyville, and Miss Janet Marshall, Darlington.

Miss Judy Drompp, and Miss Mary Lou Miller, Logansport; Miss Sally Gantt, Paris, Ill.; Miss Susie Pitkin, Martinsville, and Miss Betty Thomas, Bluffton.

Additional alumnae who will attend are Mrs. Joseph Carmichael, Morristown; Mrs. Robert Richardson, Greencastle; Miss Martha Lou Bower, Shelbyville; Miss Barbara Lenfesty, Columbus, Ind. and Gloria Vaughn, Winnetka, Ill.

Send today for the new fall and winter fashion. This latest issue is filled with news and styles for a smart winter wardrobe; interesting features; free gift pattern printed inside the book.

3 Appointed By GFWC
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, chairman, today announced a supplemental change in the council set-up of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Regional chairmen have been discontinued and three new committees have been established. Chairmen are Mrs. T. C. Carroll, Shepherdsdale, Ky., organization; Mrs. Margaret Rhoads, Safford, Ariz., project, and Mrs. Richard S. Horan, Elyria, O., letter writing.

New interest in letter writing between international women and women in the United States will be Mrs. Horan's job. She also will supply names and addresses secured from GFWC headquarters.

New clubs will be organized by the general federation chairman. Each state, district and club will have letter-writing and project chairmen.

The Bridal Scene—

Nancy Judy Will Be Guest At Shower

Mrs. Favre Hostess For Aug. 15 Event

Parties are being planned for three future brides. Mrs. Robert Favre, 909 E. 58th St., will entertain Aug. 15 with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Nancy Ann Judy. The Tabernacle Presbyterian Church will be the scene of Miss Judy's marriage to Robert Warren Camp Sept. 9.

Shower guests will be Mesdames John W. Judy, Edwin W. Camp, Arthur Weber, Paul Huddleston, E. L. Baker Jr., Douglas Reid, Thomas Hindman, Guy Bradley, Norvin Strickland, Allen H. Warner Sr. and Richard Hollings.

Also, Misses Elizabeth Armstrong, Joan LeBlond, Joan Spitznagel and Carolyn Favre.

A kitchen shower and outdoor barbecue supper Sunday afternoon will honor Miss Mary Ann Hands. She will be married to Edward W. Locklear on Sept. 2 in the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Springfield, Ill.

Hostesses Sunday will be Misses Joan Anderson, Dorothy Ellen Romine and Marjean McKay. The party will be in the home of Miss McKay, 1250 Markwood Ave.

Guests will be Mrs. John Keach, Seymour; Mesdames Miles Tierman, William Huff, James Buchanan and Hugh Cameron, Misses Virginia Wampler, Nancy Osborne, Ellen Cox, Winnie Locklear, Ruth Ann Deming and Lois Rithard.

Mrs. Louise E. Brown, 2817 Napoleon St., announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Thelma Jean, to Robert L. Dill. The couple will be married Aug. 26 in the chapel of the Olive Branch Christian Church. The Rev. E. B. Miller will officiate.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott E. Dill, 125 S. 9th St., Beech Grove.

The attendants will be Mrs. Kenneth Bridgewater, matron of honor; Scott Dill Jr., best man, and Roy W. Brandes, usher.

Mrs. Ralph Fisher, 699 S. Meridian St., will entertain tonight with a miscellaneous shower for the bride-to-be.

Guests will include Mesdames Brown, Brandes, Scott E. Dill, Charles French, Jack Bolin, Ella Dill, Marvin S. Kennedy, Marvin C. Kennedy, Cyril Becker, Louise Shepherd, Joseph Becker, Jesse Pelley, William McMillan, Mollie Brown, Walter G. Brown, Gertrude Green, Donald Schmidt, Michael Longo, William Schumann and Richard Greenfield and Mildred Burns.

Out-of-town guests will be Mrs. Eric Dodge, West Lafayette; Mrs. Donald E. Williams, Pendleton, and Mrs. J. C. Greenfield, Lake Shafter.

A personal shower will be given Aug. 9 by Mrs. Kenneth Bridgewater, 130 S. 4th St., Beech Grove. Invitations have been sent to Mesdames Brown, Brandes, Scott E. Dill, Ella Dill, Paul Lee, Harry Pate, Willard Laker, Charles Ellis, Frank Bridgewater, Phillip Ford, Hiram Deer, Donald Ross, Don Mills and Richard Cook.

Others will be Misses Jerry Lee, Mary Lou Peterson, Letha Minnich, Jane Petry, Ruth Mann, Kathryn Mann, Evelyn Persinger, Mary Torrence and Mary Jacobs.

Dr. Dean to Attend PTA Workshop
CHICAGO, Aug. 1—Dr. C. Ross Dean, associate professor of education, Butler University, will be one of 15 attending the workshop on "The Teacher's Role in the Community" at Northwestern University Monday.

Dr. Dean will be accompanied by a scholarship awarded to Butler by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Bride in Recent Ceremony
The bride in the recent ceremony was Mrs. W. C. Robertson, 5216 Woodside Drive, was hostess at 1 p. m. today for the meeting of the Crooked Creek Homemakers group. Mrs. W. K. Huckleberry was in charge of the lesson.

Teens Get 'Hep' to Best in Charleston Steps

By JOAN SHOEMAKER
LOCAL TEENS have added a new twist to their vocabulary.

The stubborn revival of the Charleston has hit the Middle West, and Shortridge students like Jane Knight and Butch Lubow are learning the technique from their elders.

Roy Abernethy, physical education instructor at Shortridge, and his wife give tips to classes there.

STARTING with the simple walk and the twisting step, pupils learn popular variations. Among these are the knee step. The dancer stands with heels together, toes out and left hand on right knee and vice versa. Then he flops knees together and alternates hands on knees.

Charleston music has come back, too. Some of the old favorites of the Twenties heard on dance floors again are "Five Foot Two," "Ain't She Sweet," "Yes, Sir, That's My Baby," "Yes, We Have No Bananas," "The Johnson Rag," "When My Sugar Walks Down the Street" and "I Never See Maggie Alone."

After Bee Jackson, Ziegfeld Follies Girl, saw the dance routine of the Negro musical, "Runnin' Wild," she introduced it in night club shows and musicals. It went strong for about three years of the "flaming youth" era.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

THE revival has been in progress for the past couple of years. Jane and Butch found an "official source" when they located Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy. "I learned the Charleston on the street corner when I was a kid," the Shortridge teacher remarked. "It swept the country and that was the way practically everybody learned it."

HE SHOWS his pupils how it was done in the days of the "flapper." Putting your arms and face into the picture is half of the dance, he insists. "Concentrate on your feet, look back and a little happy."

Once you've learned the rhythm of the Charleston and the basic step, you make your own variations. That's the fun of the Charleston, the freedom of the steps.

Teens Get 'Hep' to Best in Charleston Steps

Jane Knight and Butch Lubow... "Hep, hep, there goes the Johnson Rag..."

My Day— 'The Christian Ideal Insists Upon Human Dignity'

By ELEANOR ROOSEVELT
NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—In my mail I find a letter which says: "How can you so easily rationalize man's inhumanity to man and glorify war? War means warped minds, dead bodies and stunted personalities."

"Surely this is not the measure of success in our country's progress. Surely somewhere in your very busy and full life you have had some contact with christianity. Do you not have a Christian approach to help us in our thinking? Or am I completely wrong—"

Christianity is not only an ideal and not practical for present day living. This is an example of the confusion and the conflict which troubles many people. Naturally I am the last person to glorify war. But in the present instance it has seemed to me that the United Nations' clear statement of aggression on the part of the Northern Koreans, and the call to prevent that aggression, must be answered by all people, particularly by those who are Christians and therefore insist on the dignity and freedom of all individual human beings.

If one did not answer the challenge one would be opening the doors wide to further aggression and further enslavement. This enslavement certainly did not permit the Christian ideal to flourish. It is the prevention of this on a larger scale that the United Nations, and those who answered the call, are attempting to stem through the use of joint force at the present time.

I THINK anyone who even considers an all-out war today has determined upon suicide. Only a backward nation with a lack of understanding would attempt the steps for control of other people—such that are being undertaken by the Soviets on so many different occasions.

Until they have an opportunity for broader development, it seems that a stronger force than theirs will have to be brought into being in the world. And it is good to know that this is a joint force and not just the United States alone.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

By MARGUERITE SMITH
Times Garden Editor
Q—I have a begonia my children gave me for Mother's Day. Would it hurt to transplant it? Or would you put more soil around it? E. 12th St.

A—If this is an everblooming wax begonia, don't transplant it to a much larger pot—they bloom best when root-bound. Try slipping the old plant if you like window sill flowers for winter. Slip root readily in a mossy soil mixture in shade. Get them potted up as soon as possible so they'll be ready to bloom just want to carry over the old plant for sentimental reasons, wash out some of the old dirt with a hard hose spray, replace it with good rich topsoil.

TUESDAY
Health
Actress
By WHA
term
the bab
After stantly fo
Here's recipe fo head—the live art
Jane Gre
nancy ro
can foll beauty a after her urge to b is un economy
high cost
The clo
wren pres convert to figure at Naturally have an but I like nity cloth to add